Peterson, Henrietta Williams, 2003 Decolonizing the Academy asserts that the academy is perhaps the most colonized space At the same time the academy is a place of knowledge and transformation As we move into the 21st century it is becoming clear that the academy is one of the primary sites for the production and reproduction of ideas that serve the interests of colonising powers This collection of essays argues the possibility of re engaging the decolonizing process at the level of knowledge and asserts that this is an ongoing project worthy of being undertaken in a variety of fields Preserving the Landscape of Imagination ,2023-07-10 Black Women's Rights Carole Boyce Davies, 2022-11-01 Black Women s Rights Leadership and the Circularities of Power presents Black women as alternative and transformative leaders in the highest political positions and at grassroots community levels Beginning with a critique of the assumption of an equivalence between masculinity and political leadership Carole Boyce Davies moves through the various conceptual definitions intents and meanings of leadership and the differences in the presentation of practices of leadership by women and feminist scholars She studies the actualizing of political leadership in the Presidency of Ellen Johnson Sirleaf the historical role of Shirley Chisholm as the first woman to run for presidency of the United States on a leading party ticket the promise of the Black left feminist leadership of Brazilian Marielle Franco and the current model of Prime Minister Mia Mottley of Barbados in advancing new leadership models from the Caribbean This book proclaims the 21st century as the century for Black women s leadership Encyclopedia of the African Diaspora Carole Boyce Davies, 2008-07-29 The authoritative source for information on the people places and events of the African Diaspora spanning five continents and five centuries The field of African Diaspora studies is rapidly growing Until now there was no single authoritative source for information on this broad complex discipline Drawing on the work of over 300 scholars this encyclopedia fills that void Now the researcher from high school level up can go to a single reference for information on the historical political economic and cultural relations between people of African descent and the rest of the world community Five hundred years of relocation and dislocation of assimilation and separation have produced a rich tapestry of history and culture into which are woven people places and events This authoritative accessible work picks out the strands of the tapestry telling the story of diverse peoples separated by time and distance but retaining a commonality of origin and experience Organized in A Z sections covering global topics country of origin and destination country the work is designed for easy use by all Black Women, Identity, and Cultural Theory Kevin Everod Quashie, 2004 Ultimately moves beyond these to propose a new cultural aesthetic that aims to center black women and their philosophies Book jacket The Cambridge Companion to
