Moving Images:

Moving Picture Annual and Yearbook, 1913 Music, Narrative and the Moving Image, 2019-05-15 In extending the traditional field of Word and Music Studies to include research on film and other forms of moving visualizations this volume focuses on innovative discussions of artistic works showing relationships between three individual communicative media This trifocal interdisciplinary perspective is reflected in seventeen essays that cover the historical space from the 19th to the 21st centuries and discuss a wide variety of individual genres in the represented media These range from Parisian cabaret to revolutionary Peking opera from silent film to Holocaust narration from documentary propaganda movies to opera film interludes and more The investigation of historical cases is broadened by reflections on theoretical and functional issues primarily in film music which show a remarkable breadth of technical and perceptual varieties The essays here collected are of relevance to scholars and students of film studies musicology and literature as well as readers generally interested in Intermediality Studies Motion-picture Work American School (Lansing, Ill.), David Sherrill Hulfish, 1913

Motion-picture Work David L. Hulfish, 1913 The Palgrave Handbook of the Philosophy of Film and Motion Pictures Noël Carroll, Laura T. Di Summa, Shawn Loht, 2019-10-30 This handbook brings together essays in the philosophy of film and motion pictures from authorities across the spectrum It boasts contributions from philosophers and film theorists alike with many essays employing pluralist approaches to this interdisciplinary subject Core areas treated include film ontology film structure psychology authorship narrative and viewer emotion Emerging areas of interest including virtual reality video games and nonfictional and autobiographical film also have dedicated chapters Other areas of focus include the film medium's intersection with contemporary social issues film's kinship to other art forms and the influence of historically seminal schools of thought in the philosophy of film Of emphasis in many of the essays is the relationship and overlap of analytic and continental perspectives in this subject Visual Neuroscience J. D. Pettigrew, K. J. Sanderson, W. R. Levick, 1986-12-18 Visual neuroscience is the study of the way in which the brain accomplishes sight and this book presents overviews of a range of topics in this area The chapters are grouped into six sections retina retino geniculate connections visual development comparative visual physiology visual cortex and integrative aspects and the authors describe both their own contributions to the field and the influence of their teacher P O Bishop on their scientific development Moving Picture World and View Photographer, 1915 Remote Virtue Jen Letherer, 2015-10-13 This introduction to media literacy from a Christian perspective provides the tools to find and assess the beneficial or harmful ideologies depicted in notable films programs and trends Television and movies shape popular culture with audiences often unaware of how media messages influence the way they think act and view the world In this enlightening guide author Jen Letherer interprets film and television shows from a Christian standpoint revealing how beliefs and values portrayed on the big and small screens often impact the moral conduct of daily viewers This book provides the tools for Christians to discern the implicit and explicit messages found within this medium and shows how motion pictures can improve or erode religious principles and a spiritual way of life In a conversational tone the work combines classic film theory an assessment of story structure and faith based film criticism to delve into meaning and interpretations of popular movies and shows Highlighted television programs include Top Chef Modern Family Downton Abbey and The Walking Dead The book also features films like Citizen Kane Thelma and Louise Star Wars Inception and The Hunger Games This fascinating critique prompts media consumers to analyze the messages that their favorite broadcast programs send consider if those messages are in line with their own values and align their viewing choices with their personal beliefs
