Moving In Memory:

Moving Memory Siri Schwabe, 2023-06-15 Moving Memory is an ethnography of remembrance in the field of tension between post dictatorship Chile and occupied Palestine that offers new insights into memory politics as a globally resurgent and increasingly transnational phenomenon It tells a largely untold story of a Palestinian diaspora how a predominantly Christian conservative and wealthy elite has come to form the backbone of a diasporic community to which the Palestinian struggle remains a central mobilizing force Schwabe explores how Palestinian diaspora politics play into larger attempts to obscure the recent Chilean past and its consequences all the while working to counter Zionist efforts to negate and erase Palestinian existence Despite considerable efforts to contain them memories move They travel across porous and ever changing geographical and socio political boundaries reconfiguring realities in the process In exploring the paradoxes of remembering and forgetting between Palestine and Chile as intertwining nodes in the complex field of global memory politics the book demarcates the limits and possibilities of forging solidarity at the fault lines of memory

Moving in Memory

Julia Randall, 1987-03-01 Moving in Memory Julia Randall s sixth volume of poems explores our relationship to nature to art and to our past selves In these poems Randall s familiar terrain the woods streams and fields of Maryland becomes our own She takes us through the fields of Queen Anne s Lace and clover through woods filled with rock maple and sassafras to places she discovered as a child I am Piedmont born and bred between far hills and sea great hardwoods overhead and waters gently falling down the Bay But these poems also express Randall s uneasiness with trying to exist in a world increasingly divorced from nature They spring from a sensibility that pits memory and its recovery in art against the encroachments of commerce and technology What shall restore cedar and sycamore sweet springs the secrets of the forest floor where now backhoes and scaffoldings and gray computers set us free to manufacture loves and lifeless things along the steely groves where no bird sings Unmistakably a lyric poet Randall varies traditional forms in a way that is both reminiscent and original Her musicality often surprises us into the recognition that poems can still sound like poems In writing about place memory aging and loss Julia Randall displays a wide ranging intelligence a keen eye and a necessary anger as well as joy humor and acceptance
