Postcolonialism Robert J. C. Young, 2016-10-12 This seminal work now available in a 15th anniversary edition with a new preface is a thorough introduction to the historical and theoretical origins of postcolonial theory Provides a clearly written and wide ranging account of postcolonialism empire imperialism and colonialism written by one of the leading scholars on the topic Details the history of anti colonial movements and their leaders around the world from Europe and Latin America to Africa and Asia Analyzes the ways in which freedom struggles contributed to postcolonial discourse by producing fundamental ideas about the relationship between non western and western societies and cultures Offers an engaging yet accessible style that will appeal to scholars as well as introductory students Chocolate on Trial Lowell Joseph Satre, 2005 At the turn of the twentieth century Cadbury Bros Ltd was a successful Quaker owned chocolate manufacturer in Birmingham England celebrated for its model village modern factory and concern for employees In 1901 the firm learned that its cocoa beans purchased from Portuguese plantations on the island of S o Tom off West Africa were produced by slave labor Chocolate on Trial Cadbury Slavery and the Economics of Virtue in Imperial Britain gives a lively and highly readable account of the events surrounding the libel trial in which Cadbury Bros Ltd sued the London Standard following the newspaper s accusation that the firm was hypocritical in its use of slave grown cocoa As compelling now as at the turn of the previous century the issues probed by Lowell J Satre give invaluable historical background to contemporary issues of business ethics corporate social responsibility and globalization The story Satre tells illuminates what a stubbornly persistent institution slavery was and shows how Cadbury a company with a well regarded brand name and logo endured ethical dilemmas and challenges to its record for social responsibility Chocolate on Trial brings to life the age old conflict between economic interests and the value of human life Satre illuminates the stubborn persistence of the institution of slavery and shows how Cadbury a company with a well regarded brand name from the nineteenth century faced ethical dilemmas and challenges to its record for social responsibility Chocolate on Trial brings to life the age old conflict between economic interests and regard for the dignity of human life

Guerrilla Radios in Southern Africa Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi, Tshepo Moloi, Alda Romão Saúte Saíde, 2020-11-03 Guerrilla Radios in Southern Africa is a collection of essays on the histories of the different radios of the liberation movements in the region during the era of the armed struggle From Angola and Mozambique to Namibia Zimbabwe and South Africa the new technology of radio provided the liberation movements in exile with a platform to address their followers at home to propagate their ideologies and to counter the propaganda of the oppressive white minority regimes As the cheapest and most direct medium guerrilla radios transcended the boundaries imposed by the settler regimes and were widely listened to albeit within the realm of illegality Transnational in its approach the book explores the workings of these radios from their areas of broadcast in exile international solidarity to reception at home where listeners often huddled around their receivers to listen to the messages from the liberation movements often beyond the gaze of the state These radios shaped the nature of resistance campaigns that the liberation movements embarked upon in the various countries in the region

Identity Conflicts Esther Gottlieb, 2017-09-08 Social conflicts are ubiquitous and inherent in organized social life This volume examines the origins and regulation of violent identity conflicts It focuses on the regulation of conflict the constraining directing and repression of violence through institutional rules and understandings The core question the authors address is how violence is regulated and the social and political consequences of such regulation The contributors provide a multidisciplinary multi regional analysis of identity conflicts and their regulation The chapters focus on the forging and suppression of religious and ethnic identities problematic national identities the recreation of identity in post conflict peace building efforts and the forging of collective identities in the process of democratic state building The instances of violent conflict treated here range across the globe from Central and South America to Asia to the Balkans and to the Islamic world One of the key findings is that conflicts involving religious ethnic or national identity are inherently more violence prone and require distinctive methods of regulation Identity is a question both of power and of integrity This means that both material and symbolic needs must be addressed in order to constrain or regulate these conflicts Accordingly some chapters draw on a political economy approach that places primary emphasis on resources organization and interests while others develop a cultural approach focusing on how identities are constructed grievances defined blame attributed and redress articulated This volume offers new ideas about the regulation of identity conflicts at both the global and local level that engage both tradition and modernization It will be of interest to policymakers political scientists human rights activists historians and anthropologists

Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology Peter J. Brown, Svea Closser, 2016-07 The editors of the third edition of the seminal textbook Understanding and Applying Medical Anthropology bring it completely up to date for both instructors and students The collection of 49 readings 17 of them new to this edition offers extensive background description and exposes students to the breadth of theoretical methodological and practical perspectives and issues in the field of medical anthropology. The text provides specific examples and case studies of research as it is applied to a range of health settings from cross cultural clinical encounters to cultural analysis of new biomedical technologies and the implementation of programs in global health settings. The new edition features a major revision that eliminates many older readings in favor of more fresh relevant selections, a new section on structural violence that looks at the impact of poverty and other forms of social marginalization on health, an updated and expanded section on Conceptual Tools including new research and ideas that are currently driving the field of medical anthropology forward such as epigenetics and syndemics, new chapters on climate change, Ebola, PTSD among Iraq/Afghanistan veterans, eating disorders and autism among others, recent articles from Margaret Mead Award winners Sera Young, Seth Holmes and Erin Finley along with new articles by such established medical anthropologists as Paul Farmer and Merrill Singer.

The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa
 York W. Bradshaw, Stephen N. Ndegwa, 2000. In the 1970s and 1980s Indiana University Press published a series of books edited by Gwendolen Carter and others on economic and political conditions in Southern Africa during the apartheid era. The Uncertain Promise of Southern Africa is a return to that successful format in the post apartheid era. Leading scholars analyze the economic, political, social and cultural conditions in Southern Africa and the prospects for the region. The first part of the book examines the current political and development situation in six countries: South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Zimbabwe, Angola and Mozambique. The second part focuses on issues of enduring importance in the region: education, health, gender, the law, intra and inter regional power relations, international commerce and popular culture.

Fieldwork Under Fire Carolyn Nordstrom, Antonius C. G. M. Robben, 1995. Required reading for anyone about to leave for the field. A timely, deserving and original contribution to a rapidly growing body of literature on the study of violence.

Jean Paul Dumont, George Mason University. A Different Kind of War Story Carolyn Nordstrom, 1997-10-14. A deeply researched study into the nature of political violence.
