through 20th centuries Halevi Wise demonstrates how dramatized arguments about storytelling open a window on social and generic dilemmas affecting the narrative of each novel at the time of its composition Examined in detail are Cervantes Don Quixote Sterne's Tristram Shandy Austen's Northanger Abbey Dickens's Little Dorrit Conrad's Lord Jim Yehoshua's Mr Mani and Esquivel's Like Water for Chocolate Redressing an imbalance between sociological approaches that displace aesthetic considerations and aesthetic analyses that bracket cultural phenomena the author shows why both genre and culture must be taken into account when we analyze the formation and reception of a narrative Each interactive storytelling event illustrates how social and aesthetic interests compete and reinvent themselves within their framing texts and those texts respective national and historical contexts Just as social interactions cannot be indefinitely displaced in the study of narrative fiction genre cannot be ignored in the study of identity politics What emerges from this unique examination is a postmodern poetics of the novel that takes genre and history into account
