Enid Blyton Andrew Maunder, 2021-12-02 This book is a study of the best-selling writer for children Enid Blyton 1897-1968 and provides a new account of her career It draws on Blyton's business correspondence to give a fresh account of a misunderstood figure who for forty years was one of Britain's most successful and powerful authors. It examines Blyton's rise to fame in the 1920s and considers the ways in which she managed her career as a storyteller, journalist and magazine editor. There is discussion of her most famous series including the Famous Five, the Secret Seven, Malory Towers and Noddy, but attention is also given to lesser-known works including the family stories she published to acclaim in the 1940s and early 1950s as well as her attempts to become a dramatist. The book also discusses Blyton's fluctuating critical reputation, how she and her works were received, and how Blyton the person has fared at the hands of biographers and the media.

ANNUAL, 1999-09 By The Book: A reader's guide to life Ramona Koval, 2012-10-24

By the Book is Ramona Koval's love letter to books and writing. What is it about reading that we love so much? Why do books make our lives so much richer? Ramona Koval's By the Book is about reading and living, and about the authors that have written themselves into her life, from Oliver Sacks to Oscar Wilde, Christina Stead to Grace Paley. It is about learning to read and asking her mother to buy her a copy of the Kama Sutra about love and science, and her childhood ambition to be Marie Curie about arctic exploration, and her ruminations on what part of a husky she would eat if she had to, about poetry and travel and falling in love. In our book-devouring nation, this is a book for every avid reader and every avid listener who has been spellbound by Ramona's interviews over the years. By the Book is quintessentially Ramona: warm, bright, erudite, unmissable. Ramona Koval is a writer, journalist and broadcaster. She is the editor of Best Australian Essays and was the presenter of ABC Radio National's The Book Show for many years. She now interviews writers for The Monthly's online book club, textpublishing.com.au. After 16 years as the host of Australian Broadcasting Corporation's The Book Show, Koval has a knack for conveying the essence of a book without spoiling it. She also recounts key exchanges with interviewees as diverse as Grace Paley, Oliver Sacks and Paul Theroux. starred review Shelf Awareness. By the Book takes us on intriguing journeys through books. The excitement with which Koval still approaches each new book, plunging in head first, heart deep, furnishes the last words of this urbane and enlightening work of her own. Weekend Australian. By the Book is a reminder of the role books can play in our lives. If you celebrate their contribution and appreciate their influence and artistry, then this is a story you will want to treasure. I certainly do. Weekly Review. A love letter to the act of reading, an ideal read for any bibliophile. Her tone is warm and inviting, just a touch short of wry, genuine and infectious. Readings Monthly. She's a shining presence in the world of literature here in Australia and right across the globe. The book reads smoothly; it flows along from mood to mood, full of wit and beauty and grace. Her voice is always recognisable, invigorating, familiar to us and greatly loved: the voice of a highly literate woman. Helen Garner. As keen readers know, a book is more than an ordered pile of paper and cardboard, or these days, a collection of e-reader pixels. A companion, a refuge, a happy distraction, a gift to share, it can be all or any of these things, plus a bookmark of important times of one's life. The wise and warm Ramona Koval has written a literary memoir which focuses on this last quality the books that marked and made her from childhood through teens student years to adulthood Australian Women s Weekly An irresistible study of the symbiotic relationship for the bookish between life and books The voice is easily recognisable as the one we know from Koval s decades in radio generous warm and fearless Kerryn Goldsworthy Australian Book Review The last chapters of By the Book reveal the quality of mind that made Ramona Koval such a brilliant interviewer as much at home with scientists and travel writers as with novelists and poets Brenda Niall Age Koval s enthusiasm bubbles from the page It confirms the erudite and talented Koval is a treasure whose voice is sorely missed on our airwaves Australian Bookseller and Publisher An entertaining funny and instructive memoir about the real value of books Good Reading
