Mr Palomar:

Mister Palomar Italo Calvino, 1985 Italo Calvino's last fictional work is a witty elegant fantastic rendering of the ultimate observer whose name Mr Palomar deliberately evokes the famous telescope Beautiful nimble solitary feats of imagination The New York Times Book Review Calvino is the acclaimed author of Difficult Loves and Invisible Cities

Children of Silence Michael Wood, 1999-10-06 On 20th century fiction Understanding Italo Calvino Beno Weiss, 1993 Highlights Calvino's fascination with folk tales knights social political allegories science fiction Borges and His Successors Edna Aizenberg, 1990 In the first book devoted to the impact made by Borges on the contemporary aesthetic imagination Aizenberg brings together specially commissioned essays from international scholars in a variety of disciplines to provide a wide ranging assessment of Borges's influence on the fiction literary theory and arts of our time Publishers website

Environmental Sociology Michael D. Mehta, Eric Ouellet, 1995 Exercises in Constructive Imagination Ermanno Bencivenga, 2001 Philosophy in this century has often self consciously presented itself as aiming at the destruction or deconstruction of the philosophical tradition or even of theorizing as such The basis for such self description may well be a deep seated anxiety about death but whatever its grounds the procession of distinguished intellectuals who seem mostly concerned with who gets to turn off the light on philosophy on his/her way out is one main reason why philosophy seems to have lost its grip on public opinion and public policy Which is ironical because there is often considerable constructive work going on under the pretence of all this destruction but the superficial rhetoric has more currency and impact than the substance of that work This book brings back the spirit of bold imaginative even outrageous theorizing into philosophy and contains a series of examples of it venturing playfully into quantum mechanics and political theory psychoanalysis and environmental ethics philosophy of language and sociology without any attempt at systematically exhausting these disparate fields but rather using them as suggestive excuses and arenas for the display of intellectual creativity There are numerous echoes among the various pieces and between them and other works by the same author but again these resonances are not systematized The result is more to be seen as a collection of snapshots of an intellectual landscape than as a hierarchical regimentation of it The New York Times Guide to the Arts of the 20th Century: 1900-1929, 2002 Reviews news articles interviews and essays capturing 100 years of art architecture literature music dance theater film and television

Postmodern/drama Stephen Watt, 1998 Scrutinizing the critical tendency to label texts or writers as postmodern scholar Stephen Watt argues that reading post modernly merely implies reading culture more broadly In contemporary drama Watt considers postmodernity less a question of genre or media than a mode of subjectivity shared by both playwright and audience 6 illustrations Interstitial Writing Paolo Bartoloni, 2003 This book pushes literary theory into unexplored grounds to articulate the modern and contemporary condition of interstitiality through an innovative discussion of literary and philosophical underpinnings and interpretation of works by Calvino Caproni Sereni and Svevo It will appeal to Italianists and anyone studying Italian literature 101 Letters to a Prime Minister Yann Martel, 2012-10-30 A compendium of 101 book recommendations from Booker Prize winning author Yann Martel Life of Pi to Prime Minister Stephen Harper each with an accompanying letter together probing the question what sort of mind nourished by what do we want our leaders to have Politely and unfailingly every two weeks for almost four years Yann Martel sent Canadian Prime Minister Stephen Harper a book and accompanying letter He completed the project in 2011 with 101 book recommendations Now from the mailbox of the Prime Minister's Office to your bookshelf comes a list of essential reading for all Canadians This largely one sided correspondence from the loneliest book club in the world Stephen Harper never personally responded to Yann Martel's gifts is a valuable compendium for bibliophiles and those who follow the Canadian political scene Smart subversive signed sealed and now available to you even if your address is not 80 Wellington Street We Are Not Users Eswaran Subrahmanian, Yoram Reich, Sruthi Krishnan, 2024-10-29 A call to reclaim and rethink the field of designing as a liberal art where diverse voices come together to shape the material world We live in a material world of designed artifacts both digital and analog We think of ourselves as users the platforms devices or objects provide a service that we can use But is this really the case We Are Not Users argues that people cannot be reduced to the entity called user we are not homogenous but diverse That buzz of dissonance that we hear reflects the difficulty of condensing our diversity into one size fits all This book proposes that a new understanding of design could resolve that dissonance and issues a call to reclaim and rethink the field of designing as a liberal art where diverse voices come together to shape the material world The authors envision designing as a dialogue simultaneously about the individual and the social an act enriched by diversity of both disciplines and perspectives The book presents the building blocks of a language that can conceive designing in all its richness with relevance for both theory and practice It introduces a theoretical model terminology examples and a framework for bringing together the social cultural and political aspects of designing It will be essential reading for design theorists and for designers in areas ranging from architecture to software design and policymaking Finders Keepers Seamus Heaney, 2025-08-22 Whether autobiographical topical or specifically literary these writings circle the central preoccupying questions of Seamus Heaney's career How should a poet properly live and write What is his relationship to be to his own voice his own place his literary heritage and the contemporary world Along with a selection from the poet's three previous collections of prose Preoccupations The Government of the Tongue and The Redress of Poetry the present volume includes Heaney's finest lectures and a rich variety of pieces not previously collected in volume form ranging from short newspaper articles to radio commentaries In its soundings of a wide range of poets Irish and British American and Eastern European predecessors and contemporaries Finders Keepers is as its title indicates an announcement of both excitement and possession The Measure of Times Past Donald J. Wilcox, 1987 In this extraordinary work Donald J Wilcox seeks to discover an approach to narrative and history consistent with the discontinuous relative time of the twentieth century He shows how our B C A D system intimately connected to Newtonian concepts of continuous objective and absolute time has affected our conception and experience of the past He demonstrates absolute time s centrality to modern historical methodologies and the problems it has created in the selection and interpretation of facts Inspired by contemporary fiction and Einsteinian concepts of relativity he concludes his analysis with a comparison of our system with earlier pre Newtonian time schemes to create a radical new critique of historical objectivity

Five Bay Landscapes Karen Lutsky, Sean Burkholder, 2022-12-06 Threatened by issues of environmental health climate change population growth and industrial demands the coastal zone of the Great Lakes reflects an increasingly dysfunctional relationship between the people of the basin and the resources that support them Perhaps no place is the physical manifestation of this struggle more evident than in the basin s shallow bays While many regional and local responses to these issues focus on methods of control Five Bay Landscapes argues that responses should begin with critical experiential and pluralistic understandings of place Through a series of five narratives each located on a bay within the Great Lakes the authors share their practice of curious site explorations These explorations both written and visual consider the nuances and systems of these shorelines along with the lessons these findings might offer for future design and planning interventions Using the Great Lakes as a context Five Bay Landscapes illuminates a dynamic and robust landscape system and establishes a series of methods for understanding analyzing and intervening within the changing landscape

Juvenescence Robert Pogue Harrison, 2014-11-21 How old are we those of us who belong to the postwar era By many measures both evolutionary and cultural we are older than ever But we are also getting startlingly youngeryounger in looks attire behavior mentality desires We belong Robert Harrison says to an age of juvenescence Juvenescence is about the ways in which the spirits of youth and age have coexisted and shaped each other both in individuals and culture from the time of antiquity to the present It is also a book that asks what it means for the future when youth gains the upper hand to the unprecedented degree it has today Our way of aging Harrison argues resembles the scientific concept of neoteny the retention of immature characteristics into adulthood We mature but with a still tenacious youthfulness driving drives toward innovation rather than reflection genius rather than wisdom At its best human maturity has its source in the youth it brings to fruition And yet our protracted youth Harrison suggests is a luxury that can be supported only by our elders and the institutions they build Although Harrison believes echoing Stephen Jay Gould that our genius as a species lies in our collective reluctance to grow up he argues that we are today in a phase of radical juvenalization that allows no space for the kind of wisdom that builds upon the past

Approaches to Teaching the Works of Italo Calvino Franco Ricci, 2013-01-01 Italo Calvino whose works reflect the major literary and cultural trends of the second half of the twentieth century is known for his imagination humor and technical virtuosity He explores topics such as neorealism folktale fantasy and social and political allegory and experiments with narrative style and structure Students take delight in Calvino s wide ranging and inventive work whether in Italian courses or in courses in comparative or world literature literary criticism cultural studies philosophy or even architecture Given the range of his writing teaching Calvino can seem a daunting task This volume aims to help instructors develop creative and engaging classroom strategies Part 1 Materials presents an overview of Calvino s writings nearly all of which are available in English translation as well as critical works and online resources The essays in part 2 Approaches focus on general themes and cultural contexts address theoretical issues and provide practical classroom applications Contributors describe strategies for teaching Calvino that are as varied as his writings whether having students study narrative theory through If on a winter s night a traveler explore literary genre with Cosmicomics improve their writing using Six Memos for the Next Millennium or read Mr Palomar in a general education humanities course

Exchanges and Parallels between Italy and East Asia Gaoheng

Zhang,2019-12-18 This collection of essays is the first English language study to present the latest research on Italy s cultural relationships with China and Japan across the centuries It explores topics ranging from travel writing to creative arts from translation to religious accommodation and from Cold War politics to Chinese American cuisine The volume draws on the expertise of an interdisciplinary group of scholars trained and working in Europe East Asia and North America who re assess research foci and frames showcase transcultural and theoretically informed research and help to strengthen this field of study
