Mr. Personality Mark Singer, 2005-07-12 A superb collection Mr Personality brings together the best of Mark Singer's profiles and Talk of the Town pieces from The New Yorker 1977-1989. In these thirty-three witty and offbeat pieces, Singer presents a slice of New York and its citizens in a way that only he can. From prolific filmmaker Errol Morris and a family of superintendents to one of the last great zipper fixers, a court buff in Brooklyn, and Mr Personality himself, these remarkable portraits offer something for every reader.

Describer's Dictionary: A Treasury of Terms & Literary Quotations (Expanded Second Edition) David Grambs, Ellen S. Levine, 2014-11-24 The unmatched guide and perfect gift for stymied scribes and working wordsmiths everywhere, now expanded and updated. A singular and indispensable reference tool. The Describer's Dictionary, now expanded and updated, has served for over twenty years as the go-to resource for writers who are determined to capture the world in just the right words. The dictionary uses a unique reverse definition-to-term format that makes it easy to zero in on the term you're seeking. Turn to the new section on sensory impressions for example to find vivid terms for loud or jarring, such as grating, harsh, piercing, blaring, thunderous, cacophonous, and raucous. And at the end of each section, dozens of illustrative passages by notable fiction and nonfiction authors, including Donna Tartt, Michael Lewis, Zadie Smith, Khaled Hosseini, and Paul Theroux, bring the terminology to life. New in this edition: Hundreds of additional definitions, terms, and synonyms. Brand-new categories including Physical States and Symptoms, Temperament and Behavior, Rooms and Interior Spaces, Weather and Forces of Nature, and The Solar System. Over 400 new quotations from books, periodicals, and digital media by established and rising literary stars. An index of the more than 600 authors quoted in the book.

American Literary Journalists, 1945-1995 Arthur Jesse Kaul, 1997 Essays on American literary journalists whose writings appeared from 1945 to 1995. During this period, literary journalists and novelists turned journalists produced nonfiction writing of enduring aesthetic, cultural, and political significance, reshaping the contours of contemporary American letters. These journalists achieved a notoriety and status in literature, winning major journalism and literary prizes.

True Stories Norman Sims, Medill School of Journalism, 2007 Journalism in the twentieth century was marked by the rise of literary journalism. Sims traces more than a century of its history, examining the cultural connections, competing journalistic schools of thought, and innovative writers that have given literary journalism its power. Seminal examples of the genre provide ample context and background for the study of this style of journalism.

Profile Pieces Sue Joseph, Richard Lance Keeble, 2015-10-14 This book examines the history, theory, and journalistic practice of profile writing. Profiles and the practice of writing them are of increasing interest to scholars of journalism because conflicts between the interviewer and the subject exemplify the changing nature of journalism itself. While the subject often, through the medium of their press representative, struggles to retain control of the interview space, the journalist seeks to subvert it. This interesting and multi-layered interaction, however, has rarely been subject to critical scrutiny, partly because profiles have traditionally been regarded as public relations exercises or as soft journalism However chapters in this volume reveal not only that profiling has historically taken many different forms but that the idea of the interview as a contested space has applications beyond the subject of celebrated individuals The volume looks at the profile s historical beginnings at the contemporary manufacture of celebrity versus the ordinary at profiling communities countries and movements at profiling the destitute at sporting personalities and finally at profiling and trauma
