Department of State,1902 Elihu Root Collection of United States Documents ,1895 Representing China on the Historical London Stage Dongshin Chang,2015-02-11 This book provides a critical study of how China was represented on the historical London stage in selected examples from the late seventeenth century to the early twentieth century which corresponds with the Qing Dynasty 1644 1911 China's last monarchy The examples show that during this historical period the stage representations of the country were influenced in turn by Jesuit writings on China Britain's expanding material interest in China the presence of British imperial power in Asia and the establishment of diasporic Chinese communities abroad While finding that many of these works may be read as gendered and feminized Chang emphasizes that the Jesuits depiction of China as a country of high culture and in perennial conflict with the Tartars gradually lost prominence in dramatic imaginations to depictions of China's material and visual attractions Central to the book's argument is that the stage representations of China were inherently intercultural and open to new influences manifested by the evolving combinations of Chinese and English British traits Through the dramatization of the Chinese Other the representations questioned satirized and put in sharp relief the ontological and epistemological bases of the English British Self The Theory and Practice of Communism in 1972 United States. The Church in China in the 20th Century Chen Zemin,2019-03-11 While the Peoples Republic of China is officially an atheist country Christianity continues to experience rapid growth on the Chinese mainland Many observers see the country as on the way to becoming the world's most Christian nation Yet there is widespread ignorance in the English speaking world about how the Chinese Christian community fared during the decades prior to China's opening up to the West in the aftermath of the historic visit of Richard Nixon to Beijing in 1972 This collection of essays the first of them published in 1939 provides an invaluable record of developments in mainland Chinese Christianity during that period and for the remaining decades of the twentieth century The fact that the essays were all authored by a key participant in the Protestant churches in China provides significant added value Professor Chen discusses a wide range of important topics various stages of rural and urban development the Three Self principles for structuring officially sanctioned worshipping communities Bishop K H Ting s advocacy of a genuinely indigenous Chinese theology patterns of international cooperation worship seminary education and much more These essays make a unique and significant contribution to the Western understanding of Asian religious life in the twentieth century
