Rich,2009 The dawn of the twentieth century saw the birth of the New Woman a cultural and literary ideal that replaced Victorian expectations of domesticity with visions of social political and economic autonomy Although such writers as Edith

Wharton and Kate Chopin treated these ideals in well known literature of that era marginalized women also explored changing gender roles in works that deserve more attention today This book is the first study to focus solely on multiethnic women writers responses to the ideal of the New Woman in America opening up a world of literary texts that provide new insight into the phenomenon Charlotte Rich reveals how these authors uniquely articulated the contradictions of the American New Woman and how social class race or ethnicity impacted women s experiences of both public and private life in the Progressive era Rich focuses on the work of writers representing five distinct ethnicities Native Americans S Alice Callahan and Mourning Dove African American Pauline Hopkins Chinese American Sui Sin Far Mexican American Mar a Cristina Mena and Jewish American Anzia Yezierska She shows that some of their works contain both affirmative and critical portraits of white New Women in other cases while these authors align their multiethnic heroines with the new ideals those ideals are sometimes subordinated to more urgent dialogues about inequality and racial violence Here are views of women not usually encountered in fiction of this era Callahan s and Mourning Dove s novels allude to women s rights but ultimately privilege critiques of violence against Native Americans Hopkins s novels trace an increasingly pessimistic trajectory drawing cynical conclusions about black women s ability to thrive in a prejudiced society Mena s magazine portraits of Mexican life present complex critiques of this independent ideal of womanhood Yezierska s stories question the philanthropy of socially privileged Progressive female reformers with whom immigrant women interact These writers works sometimes affirm emerging ideals but in other cases illuminate the iconic New Woman s blindness to her own racial and economic privilege Through her insightful analysis Rich presents alternative versions of female autonomy with characters living outside the mainstream or moving between cultures Transcending the New Woman offers multiple ways of transcending an ideal that was problematic in its exclusivity as well as an entrance to forgotten works It shows how the concept of the New Woman can be seen in newly complex ways when viewed through the writings of authors whose lives often embody the New Woman s emancipatory goals and whose fictions both affirm and complicate her aspirations

The Collected Writings of Sui Sin Far Sui Sin Far, 2021-10-26 Inspired by the author s experience living among Chinese Americans in the United States The Collected Writings of Sui Sin Far highlights stories of prejudice perseverance and the soul of a proud and vibrant community Characterized by her wisdom and cross cultural knowledge Mrs Spring Fragrance is one of Sui Sin Far s most beloved characters and can be found throughout the collection of stories In the Land of the Free is a powerful story inside this collection on a Chinese immigrant who is separated from her young son due to insufficient paperwork Exploring the struggles of this woman to reclaim her son discrimination and hardships faced by Chinese Americans due to the Chinese Exclusion Act are exposed illuminating the restrictive immigration policies which continue in modern America With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this Mint Editions version of The Collected Writings of Sui Sin Far is a classic of Chinese American literature reimagined for modern readers Competing Stories James

Stamant,2019-11-08 Major changes in media in the late 19th and early 20th centuries challenged traditional ideas about artistic representation and opened new avenues for authors working in the modernist period Modernist authors reactions to this changing media landscape were often fraught with complications and shed light on the difficulty of negotiating understanding and depicting media The author of Competing Stories Modernist Authors Newspapers and the Movies argues that negative depictions of newspapers and movies in modernist fiction largely stem from worries about the competition for modern audiences and the desire for control over storytelling and reflections of the modern world This book looks at a moment of major change in media the dominance of mass media that began with the primarily visual media of newspapers and movies and the ways that authors like Ernest Hemingway Zora Neale Hurston James Joyce Djuna Barnes and others responded The author contends that an examination of this moment may facilitate a better understanding of the relationship between media and authorship in our constantly shifting media landscape      Companion to Literature Abby H. Werlock,2009 Praise for the previous edition Booklist RBB Twenty Best Bets for Student ResearchersRUSA ALA Outstanding Reference Source useful Recommended for public libraries and undergraduates      Approaches to Teaching the Works of Jack London Jeanne Campbell Reesman,2015-10-01 A prolific and enduringly popular author and an icon of American fiction Jack London is a rewarding choice for inclusion in classrooms from middle school to graduate programs London s biography and the role played by celebrity have garnered considerable attention but the breadth of his personal experiences and political views and the many historical and cultural contexts that shaped his work are key to gaining a nuanced view of London s corpus of works as this volume s wide ranging perspectives and examples attest The first section of this volume Materials surveys the many resources available for teaching London including editions of his works sources for his photography and audiovisual aids In part 2 Approaches contributors recommend practices for teaching London s works through the lenses of socialism and class race gender ecocriticism and animal studies theories of evolution legal theory and regional history both in frequently taught texts such as The Call of the Wild To Build a Fire and Martin Eden and in his lesser known works      Cities of Others Xiaojing Zhou,2014-12-01 Asian American literature abounds with complex depictions of American cities as spaces that reinforce racial segregation and prevent interactions across boundaries of race culture class and gender However in Cities of Others Xiaojing Zhou uncovers a much different narrative providing the most comprehensive examination to date of how Asian American writers both celebrated and overlooked depict urban settings Zhou goes beyond examining popular portrayals of Chinatowns by paying equal attention to life in other parts of the city Her innovative and wide ranging approach sheds new light on the works of Chinese Filipino Indian Japanese Korean and Vietnamese American writers who bear witness to a variety of urban experiences and reimagine the American city as other than a segregated nation space Drawing on critical theories on space from urban geography ecocriticism and postcolonial studies Zhou shows how spatial organization shapes identity in the works of Sui Sin Far Bienvenido Santos Meena Alexander

Frank Chin Chang rae Lee Karen Tei Yamashita and others She also shows how the everyday practices of Asian American communities challenge racial segregation reshape urban spaces and redefine the identity of the American city From a reimagining of the nineteenth century flaneur figure in an Asian American context to providing a framework that allows readers to see ethnic enclaves and American cities as mutually constitutive and transformative Zhou gives us a provocative new way to understand some of the most important works of Asian American literature

A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24 A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allen Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway William Faulkner F Scott Fitzgerald and Richard Wright Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic Asian and Jewish writers Each chapter places the short story into context focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles The Companion takes account of cutting edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction cycles of interrelated short fiction and comic social and political stories The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature
