Mrs Sc Hall A Literary Biography:

Mrs. S.C. Hall Maureen Keane,1997 In 1829 Mrs S C Hall an Irishwoman living in England published Sketches of Irish Life and Character This and many subsequent works established her reputation as a sharp interpreter of Irish character What makes her work particularly interesting is that it displays a tolerance and lack of bigotry that was unusual for its time and that she is openly critical of government mismanagement and misrule This book explores her life and literary achievement

Life Writing and Victorian Culture David Amigoni,2017-09-29 In this collection of interdisciplinary essays experts from Britain and the United States in the fields of nineteenth century literature and social and cultural history explore new directions in the field of Victorian life writing Chapters examine a varied yet interrelated range of genres from the biography and autobiography to the relatively neglected diary collective biography and obituary Reflecting the rich research being conducted in this area the contributors link life writing to the formation of gendered and class based identities the politics of the Victorian family and the broader professional political colonial and literary structures in which social and kinship relations were implicated A wide variety of Victorian works are considered from the diary of the Radical Samuel Bamford to the diary of the homosexual George Ives from autobiographies of professional men to collective biographies of eminent women Embracing figures as diverse as Gandhi Wilde and Bradlaugh the collection explores the way in which narratives contested one another in a society that devoted an abundance of cultural energy to writing about and reading of lives

Homes and Haunts Alison Booth,2016-09-08 This is the first full length study of literary tourism in North America as well as Britain and a unique exploration of popular response to writers literary house museums and the landscapes or countries associated with their lives and works An interdisciplinary study ranging from 1820 1940 Homes and Haunts Touring Writers Shrines and Countries unites museum and tourism studies book history narrative theory theories of gender space and things and other approaches to depict and interpret the haunting experiences of exhibited houses and the curious history of topo biographical writing about famous authors In illustrated chapters that blend Victorian and recent first person encounters that range from literary shrines and plaques to guidebooks memoirs portraits and monuments Alison Booth discusses pilgrims such as William and Mary Howitt Anna Maria and Samuel Hall and Elbert Hubbard and magnetic hosts and guests as Washington Irving Wordsworth Martineau Longfellow Hawthorne James and Dickens Virginia Woolf s feminist response to homes and haunts shapes a chapter on Mary Russell Mitford Gaskell and the Bront s and another on the Carlyles house and Monk s House Booth rediscovers collections of personalities haunted shrines and imaginative re enactments that have been submerged by a century of academic literary criticism
