Much Depends on Dinner by Margaret Visser Llewellyn Johns, 1995 Robotti, Frances Diane Robotti, 1961 Chains Warren Belasco, Roger Horowitz, 2011-06-03 In recent years the integrity of food production and distribution has become an issue of wide social concern The media frequently report on cases of food contamination as well as on the risks of hormones and cloning Journalists documentary filmmakers and activists have had their say but until now a survey of the latest research on the history of the modern food provisioning system the network that connects farms and fields to supermarkets and the dining table has been unavailable In Food Chains Warren Belasco and Roger Horowitz present a collection of fascinating case studies that reveal the historical underpinnings and institutional arrangements that compose this system The dozen essays in Food Chains range widely in subject from the pig poultry and seafood industries to the origins of the shopping cart The book examines what it took to put ice in nineteenth century refrigerators why Soviet citizens could buy ice cream whenever they wanted what made Mexican food popular in France and why Americans turned to commercial pet food in place of table scraps for their dogs and cats Food Chains goes behind the grocery shelves explaining why Americans in the early twentieth century preferred to buy bread rather than make it and how Southerners learned to like self serve shopping Taken together these essays demonstrate the value of a historical perspective on the modern food

Wood storyteller The London and Paris Observer ,1837 A Century of Travels in China Douglas Katharine B. WOOD, 1896 Kerr, Julia Kuehn, 2007-05-01 Writings of travelers have shaped ideas about an evolving China while preconceived ideas about China also shaped the way they saw the country A Century of Travels in China explores the impressions of these writers on various themes from Chinese cities and landscapes to the work of Europeans abroad From the time of the first Opium War to the declaration of the People's Republic China's history has been one of extraordinary change and stubborn continuities At the same time the country has beguiled scared and puzzled people in the West The Victorian public admired and imitated Chinese fashions in furniture and design gardens and clothing while maintaining a generally negative idea of the Chinese empire as pagan backward and cruel In the first half of the twentieth century the fascination continued Most foreigners were aware that revolutionary changes were taking place in Chinese politics and society yet most still knew very little about the country But what about those few people from the English speaking world who had first hand experience of the place What did they have to say about the real China To answer this question we have to turn to the travel accounts and memoirs of people who went to see for themselves during China's most traumatic century. While this book represents the work of expert scholars it is also accessible to non specialists with an interest in travel writing and China and care has been taken to explain the critical terms and ideas deployed in the essays from recent scholarship of the travel genre A Woman's Trip to Alaska Septima Maria Collis,1890 New-York Observer ,1898 Practical Cooking and Dinner Giving Mary Foote Henderson, 1889 What's Eating You? Cynthia J. Miller, A. Bowdoin Van Riper, 2017-02-23 Divided into four thematic sections What's Eating You explores the deeper significance of food on screen the ways in which they reflect or challenge our deepest fears about consuming and being consumed Among the questions it asks are How do these films mock our taboos and unsettle our notions about the human condition How do they critique our increasing focus on consumption In what ways do they hold a mirror to our taken for granteds about food and humanity asking if what we eat truly matters Horror narratives routinely grasp those questions and spin them into nightmares Monstrous others dine on forbidden fare the tables of consumption are turned and the consumer becomes the consumed Overindulgence as Le Grande Bouffe 1973 and Street Trash 1987 warn can kill us and occasionally as films like The Stuff 1985 and Poultrygeist 2006 illustrate our food fights back From Blood Feast 1963 to Sweeney Todd 2007 motion pictures have reminded us that it is an eat or be eaten world

Beyond Homelessness Steven Bouma-Prediger, Brain J. Walsh, 2008-06-03 This book is a brilliant use of metaphor that makes clear why the world leaves us feeling so uneasy
