Alaska's Skyboys Katherine Johnson Ringsmuth, 2015-10-01 This fascinating account of the development of aviation in Alaska examines the daring missions of pilots who initially opened up the territory for military positioning and later for trade and tourism Early Alaskan military and bush pilots navigated some of the highest and most rugged terrain on earth taking off and landing on glaciers mudflats and active volcanoes Although they were consistently portrayed by industry leaders and lawmakers alike as cowboys and their planes compared to settlers covered wagons the reality was that aviation catapulted Alaska onto a modern global stage the federal government subsidized aviation's growth in the territory as part of the Cold War defense against the Soviet Union Through personal stories industry publications and news accounts historian Katherine Johnson Ringsmuth uncovers the ways that Alaska's aviation growth was downplayed in order to perpetuate the myth of the cowboy spirit and the desire to tame what many considered to be the last frontier

Bush Pilot Arnold Griesse, 2005-01-01 Harold Gillam Sr's story is presented with new clarity and balance Bush Pilot describes a private introspective man torn between family responsibilities and his unrelenting drive to pursue his goals in aviation Early Alaska aviation did not rely on the actions of one single pilot but succeeded through the shared strength and will of many Yet Gillam made significant contributions The facts and details surrounding Gillam's adventures and some times edge of the seat flights keep readers involved from the first page through the controversy overshadowing his final tragic flight Bush Pilot is an Alaska aviation adventure Bush Pilot offers thought provoking insights into Alaska's aviation history and introduced me to its courageous and colorful pilots and other interesting characters many of whom had once been only names in the news during my growing up years here in the Interior Val Scullion Alaska grown Bush Pilot is a well researched account of an Alaska Pioneer aviator whose natural
