, Women Made Visible Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda, 2019-04-01 2020 Canadian Association for Latin American and Caribbean Studies CALACS Book Prize In post 1968 Mexico a group of artists and feminist activists began to question how feminine bodies were visually constructed and politicized across media Participation of women was increasing in the public sphere and the exclusive emphasis on written culture was giving way to audio visual communications Motivated by a desire for self representation both visually and in politics female artists and activists transformed existing regimes of media and visibility Women Made Visible by Gabriela Aceves Sepúlveda uses a transnational and interdisciplinary lens to analyze the fundamental and overlooked role played by artists and feminist activists in changing the ways female bodies were viewed and appropriated Through their concern for self representation both visually and in formal politics these women played a crucial role in transforming existing regimes of media and visibility increasingly important intellectual spheres of action Foregrounding the work of female artists and their performative and visual rather than written interventions in urban space in Mexico City Aceves Sepúlveda demonstrates that these women feminized Mexico's mediascapes and shaped the debates over the female body gender difference and sexual violence during the last decades of the twentieth century Weaving together the practices of activists filmmakers visual artists videographers and photographers Women Made Visible questions the disciplinary boundaries that have historically undermined the practices of female artists and activists and locates the development of Mexican second wave feminism as a meaningful actor in the contested political spaces of the era both in Mexico City and internationally

The Art of Solidarity Jessica Stites Mor,Maria del Carmen Suescun Pozas,2018-10-17 The Cold War claimed many lives and inflicted tremendous psychological pain throughout the Americas The extreme polarization that resulted from pitting capitalism against communism held most of the creative and productive energy of the twentieth century captive Many artists responded to Cold War struggles by engaging in activist art practice using creative expression to mobilize social change The Art of Solidarity examines how these creative practices in the arts and culture contributed to transnational solidarity campaigns that connected people across the Americas from the early twentieth century through the Cold War and its immediate aftermath This collection of original essays is divided into four chronological sections cultural and artistic production in the pre Cold War era that set the stage for transnational solidarity organizing early artistic responses to the rise of Cold War polarization and state repression the centrality of cultural and artistic production in social movements of solidarity and solidarity activism beyond movements Essay topics range widely across regions and social groups from the work of lesbian activists in Mexico City in the late 1970s and 1980s to the exchanges and transmissions of folk music practices from Cuba to the United States to the uses of Chilean arpilleras to oppose and protest the military dictatorship While previous studies have focused on politically engaged artists or examined how artist communities have created solidarity movements this book is one of the first to merge both perspectives Bolivia ,1928

Making a Killing Alicia Gaspar de Alba,Georgina Guzmán,2010-11-01 Since 1993 more than five hundred women and girls have been murdered in Ciudad Ju rez across the border from El Paso Texas At least a third have been sexually violated and mutilated as well Thousands more have been reported missing and remain unaccounted for The crimes have been poorly investigated and have gone unpunished and unresolved by Mexican authorities thus creating an epidemic of misogynist violence on an increasingly globalized U S Mexico border This book the first anthology to focus exclusively on the Ju rez femicides as the crimes have come to be known compiles several different scholarly interventions from diverse perspectives including feminism Marxism critical race theory semiotics and textual analysis Editor Alicia Gaspar de Alba shapes a multidisciplinary analytical framework for considering the interconnections between gender violence and the U S Mexico border The essays examine the social and cultural conditions that have led to the heinous victimization of women on the border from globalization free trade agreements exploitative maquiladora working conditions and border politics to the sexist attitudes that pervade the social discourse about the victims The book also explores the evolving social movement that has been created by NGOs mothers organizing efforts and other grassroots forms of activism related to the crimes Contributors include U S and Mexican scholars and activists as well as personal testimonies of two mothers of femicide victims web suppose that a and b are $m \times n$ and $n \times m$ matrices respectively then e and f are well defined matrices of dimensions $m \times m$ and $n \times n$ respectively by the law of matrix multiplication their elements are $e_{ij} = \sum_{k=1}^n a_{ik} b_{kj}$ and $f_{ij} = \sum_{k=1}^m b_{kj} a_{ik}$ thus post multiplying a by b is the column operation
