Lisbon, Athens, Constantinople, and Jerusalem William Makepeace Thackeray, 1865 Notes on a Journey from Cornhill to

Grand Cairo (Annotated) William Makepeace Thackeray, 2016-09-22 On the 20th of August 1844 the writer of this little book went to dine at the Club quite unconscious of the wonderful events which Fate had in store for him Mr William was there giving a farewell dinner to his friend Mr James now Sir James These two asked Mr Titmarsh to join company with them and the conversation naturally fell upon the tour Mr James was about to take The Peninsular and Oriental Company had arranged an excursion in the Mediterranean by which in the space of a couple of months as many men and cities were to be seen as Ulysses surveyed and noted in ten years Malta Athens Smyrna Constantinople Jerusalem Cairo were to be visited and everybody was to be back in London by Lord Mayor s Day The idea of beholding these famous places inflamed Mr Titmarsh s mind and the charms of such a journey were eloquently impressed upon him by Mr James Come said that kind and hospitable gentleman and make one of my family party in all your life you will never probably have a chance again to see so much in so short a time Consider it is as easy as a journey to Paris or to Baden Mr Titmarsh considered all these things but also the difficulties of the situation he had but six and thirty hours to get ready for so portentous a journey he had engagements at home finally could he afford it In spite of these objections however with every glass of claret the enthusiasm somehow rose and the difficulties vanished But when Mr James to crown all said he had no doubt that his friends the Directors of the Peninsular and Oriental Company would make Mr Titmarsh the present of a berth for the voyage all objections ceased on his part to break his outstanding engagements to write letters to his amazed family stating that they were not to expect him at dinner on Saturday fortnight as he would be at Jerusalem on that day to purchase eighteen shirts and lay in a sea stock of Russia ducks was the work of four and twenty hours and on the 22nd of August the Lady Mary Wood was sailing from Southampton with the subject of the present memoir quite astonished to find himself one of the passengers on board These important statements are made partly to convince some incredulous friends who insist still that the writer never went abroad at all and wrote the following pages out of pure fancy in retirement at Putney but mainly to give him an opportunity of thanking the Directors of the Company in question for a delightful excursion It was one so easy so charming and I think profitable it leaves such a store of pleasant recollections for after days and creates so many new sources of interest a newspaper letter from Beyrout or Malta or Algiers has twice the interest now that it had formerly that I can t but recommend all persons who have time and means to make a similar journey vacation idlers to extend their travels and pursue it above all young well educated men entering life to take this course we will say after that at college and having their book learning fresh in their minds see the living people and their cities and the actual aspect of Nature along the famous shores of the Mediterranean
