Yakovlev Aces of World War 2 George Mellinger, 2012-10-20 This book focuses on the Soviet aces who scored all or most of their victories in the Yak drawing information from official unit histories and memoirs of the Soviet pilots themselves The Yak 1 entered Soviet service in 1941 one of three modern types of aircraft accepted for production just prior to the German invasion of the USSR Despite initial shortcomings it soon proved to be the thoroughbred of the Soviet Airforce Indeed it remained in production until the end of the war modernized but fundamentally recognizable By VE day about 33 100 Yakovlev fighters had been built Virtually all Soviet fighter regiments flew at least one variety of Yak for a time including those which gained their fame identified with other aircraft and consequently many pilots known as Airacobra or Lavochkin aces also scored victories with the Yak Many other famous aces were exclusively Yak patriots including the French Normandie pilots

Messerschmitt Bf 110 Zerstörer Aces of World War 2 John Weal, 2012-10-20 This volume is the first of its type to be devoted exclusively to the Zerstörer day fighter aces spanning the war years from Poland to the defence of the Reich Although Messerschmitt's single engined Bf 109 has received most of the plaudits for achieving virtual air superiority over Europe in 1939 40 the exploits of the manufacturer's twin engined Bf 110 the Ju 88 and the Me 410 Zerstörer in the first year of the war also make for very impressive reading Indeed on the eve of World War 2 a posting to a Bf 110 unit was considered to be the best career move available in the Luftwaffe

Polish Spitfire Aces Wojtek Matusiak,2015-07-20 Of all Allied airmen Polish pilots had had the most experience of fighting the Luftwaffe by the time the war came to Britain As the Battle of Britain raged they quickly proved themselves as highly aggressive and skilful interceptors especially when flying the famous Spitfire The Polish Air Force eventually became the largest non Commonwealth Spitfire operator using some 1 500 Mk I II V IX and XVI to devastating effect Top scoring USAAF ace of the ETO Francis Gabby Gabreski and a whole host of other Allied and Commonwealth aces flew with Polish squadrons adding even more to their fighting quality Conversely several Polish pilots were attached to other Allied squadrons throughout the war demonstrating their prowess alongside airmen from a whole host of nations From an expert on Polish fighter aviation this is a peerless account of the fiery talented Polish Spit pilots whose country had been overrun and whose aggression and determination to shoot down Axis aircraft was unmatched

German Jet Aces of World War 2 Hugh Morgan, John Weal, 1998-01-15 The Third Reich's last ditch efforts to sweep the massed Allied bomber formations from the skies of Germany centred around the new crop of jet wonder weapons that were issued to the Jagdwaffe from mid 1944 onwards Far in advance of anything the Allies had even in the experimental phase types like the Me 262 He 162 Me 163 and the Ar 234 could perform their combat sorties with relative impunity However paucity in numbers and unreliable jet engines eventually cancelled out any technological edge that these aircraft offered

The Most Dangerous Enemy Stephen Bungay, 2010-09-25 Stephen Bungay's magisterial history is acclaimed as the account of the Battle of Britain Unrivalled for its synthesis of all previous historical accounts for the quality of its strategic analysis and its truly compulsive narrative this is a book ultimately distinguished by its conclusions that it was the British in the Battle who displayed all the virtues of efficiency organisation and even ruthlessness we habitually attribute to the Germans and they who fell short in their amateurism ill preparedness poor engineering and even in their old fashioned notions of gallantry An engrossing read for the military scholar and the general reader alike this is a classic of military history that looks beyond the mythology to explore all the tragedy and comedy the brutality and compassion of war First Kills Stefan W. C. Gnys, 2020-01-10 Remarkably detailed It is a tribute to Wladyslaw Gnys the decorated ace pilot but also to the charming and humble man himself Hamilton Magazine Polish pilot Wladyslaw Wladek Gnys was credited with shooting down the first two German aircraft of World War II on September 1 1939 On this day as Gnys squadron took off near Krakow to intercept the German invaders German Stuka pilot Frank Neubert attacked killing the captain Wladek who barely survived himself evaded the pursuing Stukas and went on to make the first Allied kills while Neubert was credited with the first aerial kill of the war Fifty years after the invasion of Poland in the summer of 1989 Gnys and Neubert met and shook hands making news around the world They reconciled their differences and remained friends until their deaths This event symbolized the prevailing friendly coexistence between Poland and Germany Written by his son Stefan and drawing from his logbooks this highly illustrated biography of Wladek Gnys is the most in depth account of the Polish hero's life It tells Wladek's story from his childhood in rural Poland through his time flying in three Allied air forces during World War II his capture and escape during Operation Overlord and his reconciliation with Neubert and his commemoration as a national war hero in Poland Tells the story of one man s ride through the history of most of the 20th century This is far from a run of the mill wartime story being more of a touching and revealing look into an extraordinary life Aircrew Remembered Sweet Land of Liberty Raymond J. Dixon, 2023-12-30 The second of two comprehensive directories of all the Luftwaffe's single seater fighter pilots who were awarded the Knight's Cross during the Second World War. The German fighter pilots of the Second World War are among the undoubted heroes of the conflict; their reputation for flying skill, single minded determination and solitary courage hasn't diminished or been clouded by controversy over the years. Their daring and commitment often displayed when towards the end of the war they were fighting against the odds matches that of any of the other air forces they fought against. This detailed, highly illustrated reference book which covers the exploits of the most famous and successful individuals among them shows just how effective and undaunted they were. All the Luftwaffe day fighter pilots who flew single seater aircraft and won the Knight's Cross during the war are featured. The entries give information about their early lives and pre-war careers and record how many aircraft they shot down, the type of aircraft involved and where and when the combat took place. Included are accounts of particular actions which led to the award of the Knight's Cross and the fate of these remarkable pilots later in the war and in the post-war world is described too. Jeremy Dixon's book will be fascinating reading and reference for anyone who is interested in the aviation history of the Second World War.
