amended NEPA FSA's previous NEPA regulations had been in place since 1980. Significant changes to the structure of FSA and the scope of FSA's programs require changes in FSA's NEPA regulations. The changes will also better align FSA's NEPA regulations with the President's Council on Environmental Quality (CEQ) NEPA regulations and meet the FSA responsibilities for periodic review of their categorical exclusions (CatExs). CatExs involve proposed actions that typically do not result in individual or cumulative significant environmental effects or impacts and therefore do not merit further environmental review in an Environmental Assessment (EA) or Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). The additions to the existing list of CatExs improves the clarity and consistency of the regulations. This final rule also expands and clarifies the list of proposed actions that require an EA. The FSA NEPA implementing regulations also cover the Commodity Credit Corporation (CCC) programs that FSA administers on behalf of CCC. In addition, this rule makes conforming changes to existing references to FSA NEPA regulations in other FSA regulations. The revisions to the FSA NEPA implementing regulations are intended to improve transparency and clarity of the FSA NEPA process for FSA program participants and to provide for a more efficient environmental review that will lead to better decisions and outcomes for stakeholders and the environment. Finally, in coordination with the Rural Housing Service, Rural Business Cooperative Service, and Rural Utilities Service, this rule removes the old NEPA regulations. This ebook contains the complete text of the Environmental Policies and Procedures Compliance with the National Environmental Policy Act and Related Authorities, US Rural Utilities Service Regulation, RUS 2018 Edition. A dynamic table of content linking to each section. A table of contents in introduction presenting a general overview of the structure.

National Priorities List Final Rule No. 49 US Environmental Protection Agency Regulation EPA 2018 Edition. The Law Library presents the complete text of the National Priorities List Final Rule No. 49 US Environmental Protection Agency Regulation EPA 2018 Edition. Updated as of May 29, 2018. The Comprehensive Environmental Response Compensation and Liability Act of 1980 (CERCLA) or the Act as amended requires that the National Oil and Hazardous Substances Pollution Contingency Plan (NCP) include a list of national priorities among the known releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances, pollutants, or contaminants throughout the United States. The National Priorities List (NPL) constitutes this list. The NPL is intended primarily to guide the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) or the Agency in determining which sites warrant further investigation. These further investigations will allow EPA to assess the nature and extent of public health and environmental risks associated with the site and to determine what CERCLA-financed remedial actions, if any, may be appropriate. This rule adds nine sites to the NPL, all to the General Superfund Section. This book contains the complete text of the National Priorities List Final Rule No. 49 US Environmental Protection Agency Regulation EPA 2018 Edition.
