Red Woman with Backward Eyes and Other Stories MariJo Moore, 2001 The People Who Stayed Janet McAdams, Geary Hobson, Kathryn Walkiewicz, 2012-10-09 The two hundred year old myth of the vanishing American Indian still holds some credence in the American Southeast the region from which tens of thousands of Indians were relocated after passage of the Indian Removal Act in 1830 Yet as the editors of this volume amply demonstrate a significant Indian population remained behind after those massive relocations The first anthology to focus on the literary work of Native Americans who trace their ancestry to people who stayed in southeastern states after 1830 this volume represents every state and every genre including short stories excerpts from novels poetry essays plays and even Web postings Although most works are contemporary the collection covers the entire post Removal era Some of the contributors are well known while others have only recently emerged as important literary voices All of the writers in The People Who Stayed affirm their Indian ancestry though many live outside the Southeast today As this anthology demonstrates indigenous Southeastern writing engages the local and the global the traditional and the modern While many speak to the prospects and perils of acculturation all the writers bear witness to the ways oblique or straightforward that they and their families continue to honor their Indian identities despite the legacy of removal In an introduction to the volume and in headnotes on each contributor the editors provide historical context and literary insight on the diversity of writing and lived experiences found in these pages All readers from students to scholars will gain newfound understanding of the literature and the human experience of Native people of the American Southeast A Broken Flute Doris Seale, Beverly Slapin, 2006-12-21 The Winona dilemma Lois Beardslee No word for goodbye Mary TallMountain About the contributors Birthed from Scorched Hearts MariJo Moore, 2016-07-20 Award winning author MariJo Moore asked women from around the world to consider the devastating nature of conflict inner wars outer wars public battles and personal losses Their answers in the form of poignant poetry and essays examine war in all its permutations beginning in 60 CE and continuing into the 21st century from Ireland to Iraq and everywhere in between With contributions from both well known and first time writers this moving anthology encompasses a wide range of voices a Blitz evacuee an ex slave an incarcerated mother former military personnel survivors of domestic violence those who have battled drugs and disease and many other courageous women willing to share their unique and timeless insight on the realities of war Sharing Our Stories of Survival Sarah Deer, Bonnie Clairmont, Carrie A.
