RED, BROWN, YELLOW, BLACK, WHITE -- WHO'S MORE PRECIOUS IN GOD'S SIGHT? Leroy Barber, 2014-09-09

Drawing upon two decades of mission experience Leroy Barber exposes the racial divisions within Christian ministries and offers practical and comprehensive solutions for promoting diversity Red Brown Yellow Black and White highlights the historic patterns that have created racial discrepancies within missions It joins the essential canon created by touchstone books like Divided by Faith by Michael Emerson and Christian Smith and the ever popular Race Matters by Cornel West With a no blame attitude powerful personal narratives from a dozen other black Hispanic Asian Native American and white Christians interactive histories of missions and the writings of MLK and Howard Thurman the entire Letter From Birmingham Jail and Howard Thurman's motivational speech Sound of the Genuine Barber addresses this tough issue in a way that will inspire and motivate readers of all races toward change

Administrative Challenges and Organizational Leadership in Historically Black Colleges and Universities Prince, Charles B. W., Ford, Rochelle L., 2016-06-16 Student retention engagement and success are some of the biggest challenges that administrators and university leaders face in higher education settings As financial support and steep competition pose an issue to student acquisition and participation especially within Historically Black Colleges and Universities it becomes pertinent that these academic organizations implement new leadership practices to assist in the overall success of the student as well as the institution Administrative Challenges and Organizational Leadership in Historically Black Colleges and Universities examines how administrations in Historically Black Educational Institutions utilize different leadership techniques to overcome challenges of student retention and engagement Focusing on student development practices organizational collaboration funding for institutions and support provided from faculty and staff within Historically Black Colleges and Universities this book is an essential reference for university administrators educators researchers and graduate level students in the fields of education and sociology

Shaping and Reshaping the Caribbean Martin Munro, 2000 The current drive in Caribbean literary studies stresses similarities and points of convergence between the various islands of the archipelago and their authors the fundamental aim of which is to move closer to an all encompassing theory of Caribbeanness Martin Munro challenges this movement and through a study of the work of Aime Cesaire and Rene Depestre proposes an alternative vision of the present and future of Caribbean literature The main areas of inquiry are how these two Caribbean writers construct their sense of themselves how they relate to the Caribbean and to the wider world and how they have been influenced by the historical and cultural particularities of their respective islands Aime Cesaire's sense of self and of the Caribbean is essentially shaped around the circuit triangulaire the model of Africa Europe Caribbean interdependencies ultimately inherited from the time of the slave trade Munro shows how Cesaire views the Caribbean as a deeply traumatic insubstantial space how he looks to Africa for his lost sense of self and how Europe is seen at once as the malevolent colonial power and also the home of poetry and learning

Rene Depestre's Caribbean shape is quite different. Africa is relatively absent in Depestre's work. Europe is not presented as a threat and Depestre, unlike Césaire, sees in the Caribbean an energy and a creativity brought about by the historical fusion of disparate cultures. An important factor in shaping Depestre's model of Caribbeanness is his long exile from Haiti and Depestre's experience of exile is analysed in detail. The combination of broad contextualization, diverse theoretical approaches and close analysis of these important writers' work produces a strong argument against attempts to view and read writing from the Caribbean as one literature. Difference and diversity, it is argued, predominate as Caribbean writing embraces the new century and the whole notion of Caribbeanness undergoes further processes of highly creative splintering and reshaping.

Black, White and Grey Franz Krüger, 2004. In South Africa the debate about journalism ethics has taken particular turns in contemporary times. Issues of transformation and race have sparked heated debates in the profession. This book grew out of these discussions. It attempts to measure the traditional standards of journalism against the demands of a changing society.

Strengths and Challenges of New Immigrant Families Rochelle L. Dalla, 2009-01-01. This book is comprised of nineteen chapters written by scholars with expertise on immigrant families representing every corner of the globe—from Africa and India to Europe and Central America. It provides a springboard from which to answer the application and what now questions for those who work with immigrant families in a variety of capacities—from academicians and researchers to educators and human service providers.

Forest and Stream, 1897. Challenges to Equality Chester W. Hartman, 2001-05-24. Poverty and race, two of America's most salient and seemingly intractable domestic problems, form the cornerstone of this volume. Featuring the contributions of some of the most progressive thinkers on these subjects, the book focuses on the key questions as we begin the new century. From the possibility of achieving true integration as opposed to mere desegregation, environmental justice, education and its role as counter to structural poverty, to the promise and lack thereof of recent anti-poverty policies, Challenges to Equality shines an unflinching light on some of the most important issues we face as a society.
