Redeeming the Dream Mary C. Grey,1999 Redeeming the Dream Mary Grey,2000 Feminism, Redemption, and the Christian Tradition Mary C. Grey,1990 Controversies in Feminist Theologies Lisa Isherwood,Marcella Althaus-Reid,2013-02-12 Controversies in Feminist Theologies is a clear and accessible analysis of the current controversies within feminist theologies It uses many of the themes of systematic theology to examine whether feminist theology has a future or whether its discourse and praxis has become bankrupt The authors expand this question through an examination of whether the whole project of systematic theology has become outmoded The book is the first to expose the myth of homogeneity and some of the common stereotypes and myths surrounding Feminist Theologies from a methodological and thematic perspective It addresses current stereotypes built around North Atlantic and Third World feminist theology including issues concerning Mariology the use of the Bible and the centrality of women s experiences in feminist praxis while highlighting the richness of different and at times opposite positions in the debates of theology gender and sexuality The Cambridge Companion to Feminist Theology Susan Frank Parsons,2002-07-04 Feminist theology is a significant movement within contemporary theology The aim of this Companion is to give an outline of feminist theology through an analysis of its overall shape and its major themes so that both its place in and its contributions to the present changing theological landscape may be discerned The two sections of the volume are designed to provide a comprehensive and critical introduction to feminist theology which is authoritative and up to date Written by some of the main figures in feminist theology as well as by younger scholars who are considering their inheritance it offers fresh insights into the nature of feminist theological work The book as a whole is intended to present a challenge for future scholarship since it critically engages with the assumptions of feminist theology and seeks to open ways for women after feminism to enter into the vocation of theology ThirdWay ,1991-02 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Salvation as Praxis Wayne Morris,2013-12-19 Will people of other faiths be saved and to what extent should the response to this question shape Christian engagements with people of other faiths Historically the predominant answer to these questions has been that the person of another faith will not be saved and is therefore in need of conversion to Christianity for their salvation to be possible Consequently it has been understood to be the obligation of Christian persons to convert people of other faiths More recent theologies of religions for the past half century and more have sought to reconsider these approaches to soteriology This has sometimes led to a reaffirmation of the status quo and at other times to an alternative soteriological understanding In seeking to articulate soteriologies that make logical and doctrinal sense too often these new approaches to salvation and people of other faiths have paid little attention to questions of practice Drawing on alternative understandings of soteriology as deification healing and liberation each perspective having ancient roots in the Christian tradition it is argued that salvation can be understood as form of concrete earthly practice Understood in this way this book considers how these alternative theologies of salvation might shape Christian practices in a way that departs from a history in which the person of another faith has been perceived as a threat to Christianity and therefore in need of conversion Further it asks how the complex multi faith world of the twenty first century might better inform and shape the way in which Christian theologies frame soteriological understandings

God in our Nature Peter Kenneth Stevenson,2007-09-01 Arguably the leading Scottish theologian of the nineteenth century John McLeod Campbell s theology is much criticized and often misunderstood Previous accounts have tended to overlook both his sermons and his Christology This reassessment of his thought breaks new ground by offering a detailed study of his sermons and by identifying the distinctive Christology which contributes to a clearer understanding of his doctrine of atonement Drawing upon the full range of Campbell s work God in our Nature brings to light a trinitarian theologian whose pilgrimage represents a journey within evangelicalism rather than a departure from the evangelical fold

Women in the Greetings of Romans 16.1-16 Susan Mathew,2013-02-28 Susan Mathew examines the structures of mutuality in Romans to shed light on the issue of women s leadership in Pauline theology Mathew begins by analyzing the general form of greetings in the Pauline letters to shed light on the specific form of the greetings in Rom 16 1 16 Mathew then couples this with analysis of the leadership of women in the Greco Roman world showing that women s leadership roles in the Pauline churches were part of this wider culture This provides a basis from which to show that the women named in Romans 16 1 16 display Paul s acknowledgment of some women associates and point to relationships of mutuality in the greetings A study of Romans 12 13 helps to apprehend the model of mutuality exemplified in the greetings Finally the contextual application of mutuality in the community as mutual welcoming and mutual up building Romans 14 15 is brought into focus This enables Mathew to draw together the strands of the Pauline ethos of mutuality which encourages the leadership roles of women in the greetings at the end of Romans

The Place of Story and the Story of Place Ernst M. Conradie,Willie James Jennings,2025-02-06 This book is the third in a series titled An Earthed Faith Telling the Story Amid the Anthropocene The series aims to offer collaborative constructive contributions to understanding the content and significance of the Christian faith from the perspective of Christian ecotheology given the challenges associated with the Anthropocene The focus of this volume is on creation theology The book addresses the following question What difference does it make to the story of cosmic planetary human and cultural evolution to re describe this as the creative work of God s love Inversely what difference does it make to the story of God s love to describe it in evolutionary terms The ten contributors were selected in order to optimize a diversity of positions in terms of geographical context confessional traditions and theological schools while also taking considerations of gender race age and language into account
