Reflections From Down Under:

Reflections of My Mind Herman Jones, 2019-12-03 When I was a small Lad growing up in Alabama my Grandmother used to tell me stories about different things and events she knew about She inspired me to be a storyteller This book is the end results of that inspiration My book is a composition of thoughts and ideas that reflect relationships between living creatures both human and animal I attempted to show the impact of these relationships both good and evil I firmly believe that we all need each other no matter how or at what level we relate to each other Being a Christian I tried to show these relationships from the perspective of equality and dependence of all upon the unfailing Love Grace and Mercy of The Lord

The Doryman's Reflection Paul Molyneaux, 2017-07-25 What happens when the oceans are emptied of all their fish What happens when three hundred years of human knowledge and expertise disappear before the onslaught of the technology driven world The Doryman's Reflection is simply the most accurate and eloquent account of what transpired in the New England fisheries over the past half century as told by the people who lived it including author Paul Molyneaux Fishermen survive as relics the last hunter gatherers among us Their boats crammed with ropes and nets carry the mystique of a nearly forgotten world ruled by the elements Now an accomplished writer Molyneaux as a young man journeyed to Maine with no experience and a dream of working on a boat This is the story of his apprenticeship with Bernard Raynes one of Maine's last independent commercial fishermen The Doryman's Reflection speaks to those who want to know what really happened and what will happen on our oceans Part coming of age memoir part biography it is a very personal account of what families in this dying but important industry face each day Molyneaux shares his own history as a young man seeking the fisherman's life in Maine and Alaska Originally published in 2005 it has been thoroughly updated to cover the events of the past ten years Told through the life of the colorful and engaging Bernard Raynes The Doryman's Reflection is alive and real and powerful far from a dry pedantic treatise on the economics of commercial fishing Reflection Michael

Blekhman, 2018-01-11 Michael Blekhman's novel Reflection describes three generations of people living in the Soviet Union in the 20s 30s 40s of the XX century as well as in a Jewish village Rechitsa in Belarus in the XIX century The novel is focused on a young couple Klara Stolberg and Samuil Blekhman their relatives and friends The author and his characters seek to answer the central questions of human life Together with them Blekhman is reflecting on whether human beings can be happy retain their individuality be loved and love dream and make their most cherished wishes come true despite all the tragic problems which may seem insurmountable to the present generation Blekhman shows Klara and Samuil growing up the boy becoming a man and the girl turning into a woman enjoying things that may seem not very important to others but are quite significant to them At the beginning of the novel the female protagonist of the novel Klara who is 9 years old at that time comes across an enigmatic line in a collection of poems by Alexander Pushkin No happiness exists just force of will and peace In fact Blekhman's novel is an attempt to answer the question Does happiness exist Together with his characters the
