Ingram, 2011-11-04 The interdependence of boundary questions and the experience of cognitive dissonance reveal that knowledge in all fields of inquiry is always incomplete and tentative The issues are particularly acute for Christian theological reflection Ingram illustrates the importance of boundary questions and cognitive dissonance as a means of creatively transforming contemporary Christian theological reflection through dialogue with the natural sciences and the world's religions particularly Buddhism filtered through the lenses of Whiteheadian process philosophy Theological Reflections Elaine Graham, 2013-01-08 Following the same topics as the Methods volume this reader is aimed at postgraduates and academics interested in the expanding volume of work and research surrounding theological reflection Brought together in this second volume are materials relating to the same topics and dealt with by the same divisions descriptions and features The identified models being The Living Human Document Constructive Narrative Theology Canonical Narrative Theology Corporate Theological Reflection The Correlative Method Performative or Praxis Theological Reflection and Theology in the Vernacular or local theologies Volume one described and identified the various models whilst this new second volume fleshes out these descriptions by allowing the reader access to a variety of sources and examples of writings within these models Winning the Crowd Jonathan Ashbach, 2025-03-15 How are the films we watch shaping our political worldview Studies show that films shape us they affect our values our beliefs and our actions Consequently understanding the messages reinforced by many popular films is vital for everyone and especially for the student of politics Winning The Crowd The Politics of Popular Films showcases careful close readings of recent popular films as serious texts of political thought Ten contributors select a film or small set of related films from the John Wick franchise to Pixar's The Incredibles and analyze the political orientations that these films convey The volume will be a helpful introduction for those interested in what Hollywood is teaching its viewers about power and the good life It will also be a valuable model for those wishing to sharpen their own ability to think critically about the meaning of their evening entertainment How have your values and beliefs been formed by Hollywood Winning The Crowd takes you on a guided journey through some of the smartest popular films of recent years Practicing Critical Reflection in Social Care Organisations Jan Fook, 2021-09-09 This book explores concrete examples of different strategies and activities aimed at creating and embedding critically reflective learning and working environments within organisations whose prime function is social care Critical reflection has long been recommended as a general professional skill and is a core component of the practice capabilities in social work in countries across the Western world However despite unequivocal support for it in social work education sustaining critical reflection within organisations as both an individual and collective practices supported by organisational cultures is problematic With contributions from social work practitioners and educators who have sought to embed critical reflection into broader activities and cultures within their organizations the book addresses common features of critical reflection and challenges and benefits in specific case studies This book will inspire and develop new thinking and vision about being critically reflective in organisations and facilitate efforts to improve the learning and working experience in addition to that of service quality and delivery It will be required reading for all undergraduate and postgraduate social work modules focusing on management leadership organizational change and professional education SCM Studyguide: Theological Reflection Judith Thompson, Stephen
