

A person is walking away from the viewer on a beach at sunset. The person is in silhouette, wearing a hat and a dark top. The beach is wet, reflecting the orange and yellow light of the setting sun. The sky is a gradient of blue, orange, and yellow. The sun is a bright yellow circle on the horizon.

Reflections For Women Alone:

Reflections for Women Alone Carole Sanderson Streeter, 1987 Reflections of Women in Antiquity Helene P. Foley, 2013-01-11 Published in the year 1981 Reflections of Women in Antiquity is a valuable contribution to the field of Performance Women Psychotherapists' Reflections on Female Friendships Lillian Comas-Diaz, Marcella Bakur Weiner, 2016-04-08 Psychologists as well as the general public have recognized the importance of female friendships. Scientists call this bond the tending instinct, a kind of female relaxation response that has salutary effects. Such special attachment shields women from isolation and provides an enhanced sense of wellbeing. Intimate friends can therefore act as sisters of the heart to promote connection, solace, wholeness, and longevity. Moreover, women friends frequently provide emotional, social, physical, and spiritual benefits. Indeed, sisters of the heart constitute an unparalleled bond that encourages women to connect with themselves, with others, and with the world at large. In this book, twelve women therapists who are diverse in age, young, middle, and older women, as well as in ethnicity, White, African American, Latina, Asian American, Native American, and multiracial women, examine the psychological and physical aspects of this unique female bonding. Through their narratives, we hear their distinctive voices as women and as healers. In this fashion, they reflect on both the functional and dysfunctional dynamics occurring between intimate female friends. Finally, these women therapists examine how their experience with a sister of the heart informed their development as healers and discuss how they use this special bond in psychotherapy with women. This book was originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy. This enlightening, iconic book is for anyone who wants to understand more about the powerful roles of friendships, including challenges among women that facilitate their ability to survive and thrive. It is special in that the chapter authors are psychotherapists who describe the impact of female bonding from scientific as well as personal bases. The descriptions are rooted in theory, research, extensive clinical experience, and personal lives. Refreshing and much needed, this book will prove useful to professionals as well as any women or men who want to understand the value and salience of female relationships. Melba Vasquez, PhD, ABPP, Past President, American Psychological Association, Independent Practice, Austin, Texas Reflection-in-Motion Jaclyn Fiscus-Cannaday, 2025-05-23 Reflection in Motion considers how reflective practice is embedded in daily course happenings, centering the experiences of students and teachers in Minority Serving Institutions to amplify underrepresented viewpoints about how reflection works in the writing classroom. Jaclyn Fiscus-Cannaday examines how its availability is subject to teacher-student power dynamics, the literacies welcomed or not in the class, the past and present pedagogies that students are engaging with and attending to, and the interactions among humans, materials, and emotions within the rhetorical context. She adopts an intersectional feminist perspective for an inclusive view of how practitioners name, identify, and practice reflection in the everyday moments of writing classrooms. Fiscus-Cannaday invokes a Black feminist qualitative research method that Venus Evans-Winters calls a mosaic. When researchers collect both traditional and nontraditional texts to create a full view of students and teachers interviews at three institutions a Hispanic Serving Institution a Historically Black College and University and an Asian American Native American Pacific Islander Serving Institution she finds that practitioners often build definitions from past experiences with reflection and then use those definitions as terministic screens to decide if an activity can be named identified and practiced as reflection These definitions hold different rhetorical effects reflection for introspection reflection for learning reflection for mindfulness and reflection for awareness Reflection is used for these different rhetorical effects but because classrooms so often focus on the Westernized view and its emphasis on growth reflection has the underused and undertheorized potential rhetorical effect of helping students investigate their identities and positionalities acknowledge deep rooted ideologies and consider new perspectives so they can better work across difference Reflection in Motion will inspire teachers and writing program administrators to listen to how students define and practice reflection and why thus making room for more capacious definitions of reflection and student centered practices of what reflection can do and be
