Reflexive Ethnography Charlotte Aull Davies, 2012 Reflexive Ethnography is a unique guide to ethnographic research for students of anthropology and related disciplines It provides practical and comprehensive guidance to ethnographic research methods but also encourages students to develop a critical understanding of the philosophical basis of ethnographic authority Davies examines why reflexivity at both personal and broader cultural levels should be integrated into ethnographic research and discusses how this can be accomplished for a variety of research methods This revised and updated second edition includes a new chapter on internet based research and interethnography chapters on selection of topics and methods data collection and analysis and ethics and politics of research practical advice on writing up ethnographic study new and updated research examples Postmodernist relativism can lead to an over emphasis on reflexivity that denies the possibility of social research Reflexive Ethnography utilises postmodernist insights incorporation of different standpoints exposure of the intellectual tyranny of meta narratives but proposes that reflexive ethnographic research be undertaken from a realist perspective Reflexive Ethnography will help students to use and understand ethnographic research practices that fully incorporate reflexivity without abandoning claims to develop valid knowledge of social reality

Authoring the Dialogic Self Gergana Vitanova, 2010 This book offers a truly interdisciplinary perspective on key socio cultural aspects of second language learning Building on Bakhtin's philosophy of language and the self it examines the complex intersections among gender culture and agency in the everyday discursive practices of immigrants Bakhtin's dialogic framework still remains on the periphery of second language acquisition research The book embraces not only Bakhtin's well known notion of dialogue but also his core concepts of responsibility and ethics in the analysis of immigrants narrative samples The significance of narratives is underscored throughout the book and a dialogic discourse centered approach to narrative as a genre is suggested Authoring the Dialogical Self targets a range of disciplines Scholars in applied linguistics narrative studies cultural psychology and communication studies will find the discussed concepts relevant The rich data samples and detailed analysis make the book appropriate for graduate courses in TESOL language and identity or language and gender
