Reformed Christians And Mormon Christians Lets Talk:

Reformed Christians and Mormon Christians Roger R. Keller, 1986 The Mormon Culture of Salvation Douglas J. Davies, 2018-12-07

The Mormon Culture of Salvation presents a comprehensive study of Mormon cultural and religious life offering important new theories of Mormonism one of the fastest growing movements and thought by many to be the next world religion Bringing social scientific and theological perspectives to bear on the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints Douglas Davies draws from theology history of religions anthropology sociology and psychology to present a unique example of a truly interdisciplinary analysis in religious studies Examining the many aspects of Mormon belief ritual family life and history this book presents a new interpretation of the origin of Mormonism arguing that Mormonism is rooted in the bereavement experience of Joseph Smith which influenced the development of temple ritual for the dead and the genealogical work of many Mormon families Davies shows how the Mormon commitment to work for salvation relates to current Mormon belief in conversion and to traditional Christian ideas of grace The Mormon Culture of Salvation is an important work for Mormons and non Mormons alike offering fresh insights into how Mormons see the world and work for their future glory in heavenly realms Written by a non Mormon with over 30 years research experience into Mormonism this book is essential reading for those seeking insights into new interdisciplinary forms of analysis in religion as well as all those studying or interested in Mormonism and world religions Douglas J Davies is Professor in the Study of Religion in the Department of Theology Durham University UK He is the author of many books including Death Ritual and Belief Cassell 1997 Mormon Identities in Transition Cassell 1994 Mormon Spirituality 1987 and Meaning and Salvation in Religious Studies Brill 1984

Understanding Your Neighbor's Faith Philip Lazowski, 2004

Understanding Your Neighbor's Faith What Christians and Jews Should Know About Each Other was the brainchild of Rabbi Philip Lazowski of Hartford Connecticut The idea was born several years back after he invited a group of non Jewish clergymen to visit the Holy Land with him Priests ministers and some members of their congregations who wanted a better understanding of Israel and Judaism enthusiastically accepted his gesture of good will Rabbi Lazowski's unique perspective as a Holocaust survivor made him ideally poised to teach others about the historical and philosophical context of Judaism as well as its rich tradition of practice Rabbi Lazowski also learned much from his colleagues of other faith traditions This unprecedented volume gives Rabbi Lazowski and the other clergy the opportunity to explicate their religion using their own language and concepts in responding to the questions of people of goodwill outside their faith Difficult even uncomfortable questions are asked and answered No question is too simple or too complex Every chapter each by an author belonging to a different Christian faith tradition will prove as informative to the co religionist as to the outsider The concise straightforward question and answer style allows the book to be studied in full read casually or consulted for reference
