Reforming Theological Anthropology After The Philosophical Turn To Relationality:

Reforming Theological Anthropology F. LeRon Shults, 2003-02-20 With the profound changes in today's intellectual and scientific landscape traditional ways of speaking about human nature sin and the image of God have lost their explanatory power In this volume F LeRon Shults explores the challenges to and opportunities for rethinking current religious views of humankind in contemporary Western culture From philosophy to theology from physics to psychology we find a turn to the categories of relationality Shults briefly traces this history from Aristotle to Levinas showing its impact on the Christian doctrine of anthropology and he argues that the biblical understanding of humanity has much to contribute to today's dialogue on persons and on human becoming in relation to God and others Shults's work stands as a potent effort to reform theological anthropology in a way that restores its relevance to contemporary interpretations of the world and our place in it

The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey, Martin Mittelstadt, 2013-06-15 In The Theology of Amos Yong and the New Face of Pentecostal Scholarship Wolfgang Vondey and Martin William Mittelstadt gather a table of experts on one of the most influential voices in current Pentecostal theology The authors provide an introduction and critical assessment of Yong's biblical foundations hermeneutics epistemology philosophical presuppositions trinitarian theology theology of religions ecumenical and interfaith relations theology of disability engagement with contemporary culture and participation in the theology and science conversation These diverse topics are pursued through the complementary perspectives that together shape Yong's methodology pneumatology pentecostalism and the possibility of renewal The contributors invite a more thorough reading of Yong's work and propose a more substantial engagement with the new face of Pentecostal scholarship Contributors include Andrew Carver Jacob D Dodson Jeff Hittenberger Mark Mann Martin William Mittelstadt L William Oliverio Jr David A Reed Tony Richie Christopher A Stephenson Steven M Studebaker Paraskev Eve Tibbs and Wolfgang Vondey

Arendt, Levinas and a Politics of Relationality Anya Topolski, 2015-05-21 Born in Eastern Europe educated in the West under the guidance of Martin Heidegger and the phenomenological tradition and forced to flee during the Holocaust because of their Jewish identity it should come as no surprise that Emmanuel Levinas and Hannah Arendt's ideas intersect in an important way This book demonstrates for the first time the significance of a dialogue between Levinas' ethics of alterity and Arendt's politics of plurality Anya Topolski brings their respective projects into dialogue by means of the notion of relationality a concept inspired by the Judaic tradition that is prominent in both thinker's work The book explores questions relating to the relationship between ethics and politics the Judaic contribution to rethinking the meaning of the political after the Shoah and the role of relationality and responsibility for politics The result is an alternative conception of the political based on the ideas of plurality and alterity that aims to be relational inclusive and empowering

Remythologizing Theology Kevin J. Vanhoozer, 2010-01-14 Kevin J Vanhoozer develops a new vision of Christian theism by establishing divine communicative action as the formal and material principle of theology His contribution revisits long standing controversies such as the relations of God's sovereignty to human freedom time to eternity and suffering to love Personal Identity and Resurrection Georg Gasser, 2016-09-17 What happens to us when we die According to Christian faith we will rise again bodily from the dead This claim raises a series of philosophical and theological conundrums is it rational to hope for life after death in bodily form Will it truly be we who are raised again or will it be post mortem duplicates of us How can personal identity be secured What is God's role in resurrection and everlasting life In response to these conundrums this book presents the first ever joint work of leading philosophers and theologians on life after death This is an impressive demonstration of interdisciplinary cooperation between philosophy and theology Various models are offered which depict what resurrection into an incorruptible post mortem body might look like Therefore this book is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the doctrine of bodily resurrection be they philosophers theologians scholars in religious studies or believers interested in examining their faith

Transforming Spirituality F. LeRon Shults, Steven J. Sandage, 2006-06-01 The twenty first century has given rise to a growing interest in the intersection of science religion and spirituality Few books address these issues from multiple perspectives and theories To fill this void F LeRon Shults and Steven Sandage coauthors of The Faces of Forgiveness winner of the Narramore Award from the Christian Association for Psychological Studies continue their interdisciplinary dialogue in their latest work Transforming Spirituality In this book Shults and Sandage address the subject of spiritual transformation through the lenses of psychology and theology In addition to college and seminary students Transforming Spirituality will appeal to readers interested in Christian spirituality What is more it provides helpful insights for counselors psychologists and others who work in the mental health field

Christianity and the Disciplines Mervyn Davies, Oliver D. Crisp, Gavin D'Costa, Peter Hampson, 2012-11-02 This volume will show how various intellectual disciplines most found within the modern university can learn from theology and philosophy in primarily methodological and substantive terms It will explore the possible ways in which current presuppositions and practices of the discipline might be challenged It will also indicate the possibilities of both a Christian Culture in relation to that discipline or the way in which that discipline might look within a real or theoretical Christian university

Christology and Science F. LeRon Shults, 2021-11-18 The dialogue between theology and science has blossomed in recent decades but particular beliefs about Jesus Christ have not often been brought to the forefront of this interdisciplinary discussion even in explicitly Christian contexts This book breaks new ground by explicitly bringing the specific themes of Christology into dialogue with contemporary science It engages recent developments in late modern philosophy of science in order to articulate the Christian beliefs about Jesus Christ in a way that responds to challenges and opportunities that have arisen in light of various scientific discoveries The main chapters deal with Incarnation Atonement and Parousia After a brief treatment of the history of the shaping of these ideas the author traces developments in some of the sciences that have challenged these formulations evolutionary biology cultural anthropology and physical cosmology Each chapter also summarises some of the popular constructive responses to these developments After clarifying the way in which the Christian understanding of God and of humanity shape the task of reforming Christology each chapter concludes with a programmatic outline of ways in which we might articulate the identity agency and presence of Jesus Christ in dialogue with late modern science and culture

The Cosmic Breath Amos Yong, 2012-05-10 Recent thinking in the interfaith dialogue and in the theology science dialogue have taken a pneumatological turn The Cosmic Breath explores this pneumatological theology as unfolded in the Christian Buddhist dialogue alongside critical interaction with the theology and science conversation As an attempt in comparative and constructive Christian philosophical theology its central thesis is that a pneumatological approach to Buddhist traditions in further dialogue with modern science generates new philosophical resources that invigorate Christian thinking about the natural world and humanity's place in it The result is a transformation of the Buddhist Christian dialogue from insights generated in the theology and science interface and a contribution to the religion and science dialogue from a comparative theological and philosophical perspective

Sex Difference in Christian Theology Megan K. DeFranza, 2015-05-16 How different are men and women When does it matter to us or to God Are male and female the only two options In Sex Difference in Christian Theology Megan DeFranza explores such questions in light of the Bible theology and science Many Christians entrenched in culture wars over sexual ethics are either ignorant of the existence of intersex persons or avoid the inherent challenge they bring to the assumption that everybody is born after the pattern of either Adam or Eve DeFranza argues from a conservative theological standpoint that all people are made in the image of God male female and intersex and that we must listen to and learn from the voices of the intersexed among us
