Intersectional Knowledges Susan Arndt, Nihan Duran, Mario Faust-Scalisi, Gülten Gizem Fesli, Louisa Kamrath, 2024-11-22 Intersectionality is a transformative framework that transcends traditional social categorizations emphasizing the interconnectedness of identities like class race and gender The contributors to this volume offer profound insights into the complexities of human experiences social structures and power dynamics Unique in its global perspective their analysis incorporates critical voices from the Global South and examines minority experiences in the Global North It aims to carry the tradition of intersectionality as a social critical theory to the European context and addresses key issues in German academia proposing new definitions and structures to advance Intersectionality Studies This poses an essential invitation to critically engage with and reshape existing power structures in the production of knowledge
Debating the End of Yugoslavia Florian Bieber, Armina Galijaš, 2016-05-13 Countries rarely disappear off the map In the 20th century only a few countries shared this fate with Yugoslavia The dissolution of Yugoslavia led to the largest war in Europe since 1945 massive human rights violations and over 100 000 victims Debating the End of Yugoslavia is less an attempt to re write the dissolution of Yugoslavia or to provide a different narrative than to take stock and reflect on the scholarship to date New sources and data offer fresh avenues of research avoiding the passion of the moment that often characterized research published during the wars and provide contemporary perspectives on the dissolution The book outlines the state of the debate rather than focusing on controversies alone and maps how different scholarly communities have reflected on the dissolution of the country what arguments remain open in scholarly discourse and highlights new innovative paths to study the period
Memory and Migration Andreas Kitzmann, 2011-01-01 Julia Creet is an associate professor in the Department of English at York University
Cities in Contemporary Africa M. Murray, G. Myers, 2007-01-08 This book explains how and why cities on the African continent have grown at such a rapid pace how municipal authorities have tried to cope with this massive influx of people and how long time urban residents and newcomers interact negotiate and struggle over access to limited resources
Religious Credibility under Fire Leif-Hagen Seibert, 2018-02-05 Leif Hagen Seibert carries out a three step praxeological analysis of empirical data from field studies in the research project The ethos of religious peace builders that allows for novel assessments of societal conjuncture field theory subjective meaning habitus analysis and the mutual rules of engagement of religious practice the religious nomos Over the course of this three step argument the sociological concept of religious credibility i e the determinants of religious legitimacy gains more and more contours and facilitates the reevaluation of risks and chances in a peace process where religion is a vector for both peace and division
