Regeneration The Journey:

Morning light [afterw.] The New-Church weekly ,1879 A Journey through the Beyond Silvia Zago,2022-02-01 This volume offers the first comprehensive overview of the evolution over time of a foundational concept of the Egyptian afterlife beliefs the Duat or netherworld The Duat is a complicated multifaceted notion which was never canonized into a single version of the beyond but offered instead a variety of alternatives attempting to describe the metaphysical realms beyond the visible world and beyond life Theological speculations gave rise to a rich textual and visual repertoire which underwent a process of evolution over thousands of years during which newer ideas and images were constantly introduced Through the analysis of royal and non royal funerary texts from the late Old Kingdom to the end of the New Kingdom this book traces the development of the conceptualization of the notion of Duat outlining what it encompassed and where it was imagined to be located In addition to the translation and discussion of the most significant passages of the texts analyzed each chapter also provides an overview of the individual compositions and of the relevant theological cosmological and astronomical notions complementing the conceptual framework of which the Duat formed but a part Additionally discussions of concurrent changes in Egyptian culture society and ideology are included in order to clarify the context in which afterlife beliefs and related texts evolved An analysis of the correlation between funerary compositions and their material supports complements the study emphasizing the Egyptians belief in a magical synergy between texts images and their contexts in the activation of a suitable effective afterlife for the recipients of the texts Energy-Efficient Train Operation Shuai Su,Zhongbei Tian,Rob M. Pneumatology and Union Peter Ross,2019-07-11 Peter Ross examines how John Calvin might assist Pentecostals in the development of a global Pentecostal theology by examining the views of each on pneumatology and the Christian s union with Christ He conducts a conversation between the two within the contexts of the assurance of faith providence and guidance and justification each an area in which the Spirit and the union are substantially involved for both parties He also looks closely at Spirit release showing that this Pentecostal distinctive can sit well as an extension from Calvin's thought. Ross shows that affinities exist between Pentecostals and Calvin in these contexts. These affinities clearly identify Calvin's thought as a rich resource for Pentecostals one they should not hesitate to mine as they develop their own global theology.

Christian Observer and Advocate..., 1817 Reading behind the lines Natasha Alden, 2015-11-01 This book takes the concept of postmemory developed in Holocaust studies and applies it for the first time to novels by contemporary British writers. Focusing on war fiction, Alden builds upon current scholarship on historical fiction and memory studies and extends the field by exploring how the use of historical research within fiction illuminates the ways in which we remember and recreate the past. Using postmemory to unlock both the transgenerational aspects of the novels discussed and the development of historiographic metafiction, Alden provides a ground-breaking analysis of the nature and potential of contemporary historical fiction. By examining the patterns and motivations behind authors' translations of material from the historical record into fiction, Alden also asks to what extent such writing is necessarily metafictional. Ultimately, this study offers an updated answer to the question that historical fiction has always posed: what can fiction do with history that history cannot.

Transpersonal Psychology in Psychoanalytic Perspective Michael Washburn, 1994-01-01 In this book, Michael Washburn provides a psychoanalytic foundation for transpersonal psychology. Using psychoanalytic theory, Washburn explains how ego development both prepares for and creates obstacles to ego transcendence Spiritual development he proposes can be properly understood only in terms of the ego development that precedes it For example many difficulties encountered in spiritual development can be traced to repressive underpinnings of ego development and significant gender differences in spiritual development can be traced to corresponding gender differences that emerge during ego development Washburn draws on a wide range of psychoanalytic perspectives in discussing ego development and uses both Eastern and Western sources in discussing spiritual development In rethinking transpersonal psychology in psychoanalytic terms he explains how essential elements of Jungian thought can be grounded in psychoanalytic theory
