Doyle, Matthew R. Bennett, 2013-03-14 Terrain has a profound effect upon the strategy and tactics of any military engagement and has consequently played an important role in determining history. In addition, the landscapes of battle and the geology which underlies them has helped shape the cultural iconography of battle, certainly within the 20th century. In the last few years, this has become a fertile topic of scientific and historical exploration and has given rise to a number of conferences and books. The current volume stems from the international Terrain in Military History conference held in association with the Imperial War Museum London and the Royal Engineers Museum Chatham at the University of Greenwich in January 2000. This conference brought together historians, geologists, military enthusiasts and terrain analysts from military academic and amateur backgrounds with the aim of exploring the application of modern tools of landscape visualisation to understanding historical battlefields. This theme was the subject of a Leverhulme Trust grant F 345 E awarded to the University of Greenwich and administered by us in 1998, which aimed to use the tools of modern landscape visualisation in understanding the influence of terrain in the First World War. This volume forms part of the output from this grant and is part of our wider exploration of the role of terrain in military history. Many individuals contributed to the organisation of the original conference and to the production of this volume. The Jewish Confederates Robert N.

Rosen, 2021-08-30 Details Jewish participation on the Civil War battlefield and throughout the Southern home front. In The Jewish Confederates Robert N. Rosen introduces readers to the community of Southern Jews of the 1860s, revealing the remarkable breadth of Southern Jewry's participation in the war and their commitment to the Confederacy. Intrigued by the apparent irony of their story, Rosen weaves a complex chronicle that outlines how Southern Jews, many of them recently arrived immigrants from Bavaria, Prussia, Hungary and Russia who had fled European revolutions and anti-Semitic governments, attempted to navigate the fraught landscape of the American Civil War. This chronicle relates the experiences of officers, enlisted men, businessmen, politicians, nurses, rabbis and doctors. Rosen recounts the careers of important Jewish Confederates, namely Judah P. Benjamin, a member of Jefferson Davis's cabinet; Col. Abraham C. Myers, quartermaster general of the Confederacy; Maj. Adolph Proskauer of the 125th Alabama; Maj. Alexander Hart of the Louisiana 5th; and Phoebe Levy Pember, the matron of Richmond's Chimborazo Hospital. He narrates the adventures and careers of Jewish officers and profiles the many Jewish soldiers who fought in infantry, cavalry and artillery units in every major campaign. Civil War

Day by Day E.B. Long, 2012-06-06 In all the vast collection of books on the American Civil War, there is no book like this one. Says Bruce Catton, "Never before has such a stunning body of facts dealing with the war been gathered together in one place and presented in a coherent, useful, day-by-day narrative. And never before have statistics revealed human suffering of such heroic and tragic magnitude." The text begins in November 1860 and ends with the conclusion of hostilities in May 1865 and the start of reconstruction. It is designed to furnish the reader not only with information but to tell a story. Here, in addition to the momentous events that are a familiar part of our history, the daily entries recount innumerable lesser military actions as well as some of the other activities and thoughts of men great and unknown engaged in America's most costly war. May 5

1864 a private in the Army of Northern Virginia writes at the beginning of the Battle of the Wilderness It is a beautiful spring day on which all this bloody work is being done May 6 1864 Gen Lee rides among his men and is shouted to the rear by his protective troops April 30 1864 Joe David five year old son of the Confederate President dies after a fall from the high veranda of the White House in Richmond April 14 1865 President Lincoln s busy day includes a Cabinet meeting where he tells of his recurring dream of a ship moving with great rapidity toward a dark and indefinite shore that night Mr Lincoln attends a performance of a trifling comedy at Ford s Theatre Our American Cousin Battles and Leaders of the Civil War Ned Bradford,1956 Battles and Leaders of the Civil War V3 Robert Underwood Johnson, Clarence Clough Buel, 2014-03 This Is A New Release Of The Original 1887 Edition Memoirs of the Stuart Horse Artillery Battalion Robert J. Trout, 2008 The History of Hart s Battery as told by Maj James F Hart Dr Levi C Stephens Louis Sherfese and Charles H Schwing is as Trout puts it a cannon of a different caliber It recounts in broader terms the battery s history from its inception before the war to its surrender as the last horse artillery in the field The authors offer rare glimpses into the development of tactics learned from the school of the battlefield War Upon the Land Lisa M. Brady, 2012 War upon the land is not merely an environmental history of the war Instead Brady s is a book about how the Civil War engaged with and forever altered a suite of nineteenth century American ideas about nature Thus it examines the place of wilderness in the history of the Civil War and as importantly the place of the Civil War in the history of wilderness Foreword
