Retreat From Imperialism Social Studies:

The Social Studies Student Investigates the Retreat from Imperialism Henry J. Brun, 1978-01-01 The Journal of Social Studies, 1984 Teaching and Facilitating Retreats with Caesar Meg Gorzycki, 2017-10-12 This manual provides educators and retreat facilitators with questions for guided reflection and discussion and with ideas about how to orchestrate conversations based on these reflections The material illuminates some considerations instructors and facilitators may address as they plan for courses and retreats This guide will help instructors and facilitators plan lessons and activities that aim to enrich scholarship critical thinking and personal spiritual development In and against Development: From New to Newest Development Economics Ben Fine, 2025-02-27 The Economics of Everything or Economics Imperialism now has a dominant presence in development economics and an agenda setting role in development studies with the World Bank taking a leading if contested role This volume examines how this happened charting the evolution from the old or classic development economics through the new newer and newest development economics Drawing critically upon the Kuhnian notions of paradigm shifts corresponding changes are contextualised materially intellectually and policy wise Covering key issues such as famine the developmental state and trade and industrial policy detailed attention is paid to the potential for alternatives for economics and economic policies El-Hi Textbooks in Print, 1984 Anthropology and Politics Joan Vincent, 1994-09-01 In considering how anthropologists have chosen to look at and write about politics Joan Vincent contends that the anthropological study of politics is itself a historical process Intended not only as a representation but also as a reinterpretation her study arises from questioning accepted views and unexamined assumptions This wide ranging cross disciplinary work is a critical review of the anthropological study of politics in the English speaking world from 1879 to the present a counterpoint of text and context that describes for each of three eras both what anthropologists have said about politics and the national and international events that have shaped their interests and concerns It is also an account of how intellectual social and political conditions influenced the discipline by conditioning both anthropological inquiry and the avenues of research supported by universities and governments Finally it is a study of the politics of anthropology itself examining the survival of theses or schools of thought and the influence of certain individuals and departments Beyond Market-Driven Development Costas Lapavistas, 2007-04-11 Because their economies were regulated their financial systems repressed and their states interventionist for many years the countries of East Asia challenged the Washington consensus offering an alternative development paradigm However in the 1990 s Asian capitalism was disrupted following Japan s stagnation and the financial crisis of 1997 98 Treading the unexplored theoretical terrain created by the simultaneous decline of the Washington Consensus and Asian developmentalism this revealing book analyzes the comparative political economy of East Asia and Latin America Divided into four key sections it covers Theoretical Framework Results of Globalization Converging and Diverging of Paths of Economic Development Finance and Regionalism Through the juxtaposition of countries in East Asia and Latin America leading academics analyze the impact of government intervention institutional malfunction social transformation and financial change as well as conflict and power on economic development This book will prove to be invaluable to students and academics of development economics The Cumulative Book Index, 1979 A world list of books in the English language Howard University Studies in the Social Sciences Howard University. Graduate School. Division of Social Sciences, 1945 The Social Studies, 1916 Columbia University Studies in the Social Sciences, 1951 Transafrican Journal of History, 1998 Unpopular Sovereignty Luise White, 2015-03-23 In 1965 the white minority government of Rhodesia after 1980 Zimbabwe issued a unilateral declaration of independence from Britain rather than negotiate a transition to majority rule In doing so Rhodesia became the exception if not anathema to the policies and practices of the end of empire In Unpopular Sovereignty Luise White shows that the exception that was Rhodesian independence did not in fact make the state that different from new nations elsewhere in Africa indeed this history of Rhodesian political practices reveals some of the commonalities of mid twentieth century thinking about place and race and how much government should link the two White locates Rhodesia s independence in the era of decolonization in Africa a time of great intellectual ferment in ideas about race citizenship and freedom She shows that racists and reactionaries were just as concerned with questions of sovereignty and legitimacy as African nationalists were and took special care to design voter qualifications that could preserve their version of legal statecraft Examining how the Rhodesian state managed its own governance and electoral politics she casts an oblique and revealing light by which to rethink the narratives of decolonization

Columbia Studies in the Social Sciences Donald Craigie Gordon, 1951 Participant Observers Freddy Foks, 2023-02-14 By the 1950s social anthropologists were at the forefront of debates about culture society and the limits to economic development in Britain and the British Empire This book explains how anthropology rose to such prominence and how its influence dispersed across the humanities and social sciences Part institutional history of social anthropology s imperial formation part cultural history of the discipline s impact this is the first account of social anthropology s pivotal role in Britain s midcentury intellectual culture American Book Publishing Record, 2006 The Saga of Anthropology in China: From Malinowski to Moscow to Mao Gregory Guldin, 2016-09-16 This book studies the development of the four fields of anthropology in China Looking at both the political and social contexts Greg Guldin demonstrates how political turmoil has shaped China s twentieth century anthropological landscape Intercultural Explorations, 2021-11-01 Divided into four sections Asian Western Intersections Intercultural Memory Intercultural Perspectives on Women Genre Studies and The Intercultural Arts these essays from diverse hands and multiple perspectives illuminate the intersections the cross sections and the synergies that characterize significant literary texts and artistic productions Individually they exemplify the insights available in an intercultural perspective together they remind us that no culture even those that claim to be pure or those that might be regarded as isolated has escaped the influence of external influences As a result this volume is doubly synergistic one because it focuses on intercultural phenomena within a specific culture and two because they represent multiple perspectives on these phenomena Colonialism and Development Michael A. Havinden, David Meredith, 2002-06-01 British colonial rule of the tropics is the critical background to contemporary development issues This study of Britain s economic and political relationship with its tropical colonies provides detailed analyses of trade and policy The considerations of past successes and failures elucidate current opportunities and developments No other book covers this broad topic with such detail and clarity Routledge International Handbook of Critical Mental Health Bruce Cohen, 2017-09-22 The Routledge International Handbook of Critical Mental Health offers the most comprehensive collection of theoretical and applied writings to date with which students scholars researchers and practitioners within the social and health sciences can systematically problematise the practices priorities and knowledge base of the Western system of mental health With the continuing contested nature of psychiatric discourse and the work of psy professionals this book is a timely return to theorising the business of mental health as a social economic political and cultural project one which necessarily involves the consideration of wider societal and structural dynamics including labelling and deviance ideological and social control professional power consumption capital neoliberalism and self governance Featuring original essays from some of the most established international scholars in the area the Handbook discusses and provides updates on critical theories of mental health from labelling social constructionism antipsychiatry Foucauldian and Marxist approaches to critical feminist race and queer theory critical realism critical cultural theory and mad studies Over six substantive sections the collection additionally demonstrates the application of such theoretical ideas and scholarship to key topics including medicalisation and pharmaceuticalisation the DSM global psychiatry critical histories of mental health and talk therapy Bringing together the latest theoretical work and empirical case studies from the US the UK Australia New Zealand Europe and Canada the Routledge International Handbook of Critical Mental Health demonstrates the continuing need to think critically about mental health and illness and will be an essential resource for all who study or work in the field
