Mammon Eugene McCarraher, 2019-11-12 Eugene McCarraher challenges the conventional view of capitalism as a force for disenchantment From Puritan and evangelical valorizations of profit to the heavenly Fordist city the mystically animated corporation and the deification of the market capitalism has hijacked our intrinsic longing for divinity laying hold to our souls

Anarchists, Beats and Dadaists Jim Burns, 2015-10-12 This seventh collection of essays and reviews kicks off with a survey of some overlooked British poets from the 1940s who through a network of little magazines with anarchist inclinations attempted to offer an alternative to the MacSpaunDay generation's sensibilities Another piece considers how British writers were monitored by MI5 and local police forces while a third switches attention to the USA and looks at the still controversial case of Alger Hiss and his alleged role as a spy who passed information to Russia There are essays about lesser known Beat related writers like Bob Kaufman and Brion Gysin inspections of some little magazines of the 1950s and 1960s and two long reviews which consider the effect that Dadaism had and the role played in the movement by Tristan Tzara Walt Whitman Woody Guthrie and Malcolm Cowley also make an appearance The Life Swap Nancy Weber, 2015-06-23 In February of 1973 Nancy Weber put an ad in the Village Voice offering to trade places with another woman a stranger for a month In hopes of better understanding what was fixed and final in each person and what was invented and therefore might be reinvented they would use each other's names live in each other's homes love each other's loves and do each other's work After interviewing many of the fascinating women who answered the ad Weber single with a longtime lover and straight chose a polyamorous bisexual married psychologist and academic the pseudonymous Micki Wrangler They spent five months getting ready for their adventure cajoling their nearest and dearest into participating exchanging thousands of details and swapping deep secrets But instead of a month their wild ride lasted only a week Wrangler was having a rough time and Weber too good a time maybe so they decided to call things off Wanting The Life Swap to convey more than her own experience Weber invited Wrangler and ten others to enrich the book with their uncensored reports Publicity for the book included stints on The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson and To Tell the Truth The book achieved a kind of cult status in part because it's a relic of 1970s sexual openness cruelly destroyed by HIV AIDS and belief in the right of self invention Recent critics have credited the book with inspiring life swap reality TV shows and several popular novels and films

Perspectives USA, 1956 Brother-Souls Ann Charters, Samuel Charters, 2010-09-27 John Clellon Holmes met Jack Kerouac on a hot New York City weekend in 1948 and until the end of Kerouac's life they were in Holmes's words Brother Souls. Both were neophyte novelists hungry for literary fame but just as hungry to find a new way of responding to their experiences in a postwar American society that for them had lost its direction. Late one night as they sat talking Kerouac spontaneously created the term Beat Generation to describe this new attitude they felt stirring around them. Brother Souls John Clellon Holmes Jack Kerouac and the Beat Generation is the remarkable chronicle of this cornerstone friendship and the life of John Clellon Holmes. From 1948 to 1951 when Kerouac's wanderings took him back to New York he and Holmes met almost daily. Struggling to find a form for the novel he intended to write Kerouac climbed the stairs to the apartment in midtown Manhattan where Holmes lived with his wife to read the pages of Holmes's manuscript for the novel. Go as they left the typewriter. With the pages of Holmes's final chapter still in his mind he was at last able to crack his own writing dilemma. In a burst of creation in April 1951 he drew all the materials he had been gathering into the scroll manuscript of On the Road. Biographer Ann Charters was close to John Clellon Holmes for more than a decade. At his death in 1988 she was one of a handful of scholars allowed access to the voluminous archive of letters, journals, and manuscripts Holmes had been keeping for twenty-five years. In that mass of material waited an untold story. These two ambitious writers Holmes and Kerouac shared days and nights arguing over what writing should be, wandering from one explosive party to the next and hanging on the new sounds of bebop. Through the pages of Holmes's journals, often written the morning after the events they recount, Charters discovered and mined an unparalleled trove describing the seminal figures of the Beat Generation: Holmes, Kerouac, Neal Cassady, Allen Ginsberg, William Burroughs, Gregory Corso, and their friends and lovers. Newsweek, 1955 What the Woman Lived Louise Bogan, 1973 LIFE, 1969-07-04 LIFE Magazine is the treasured photographic magazine that chronicled the 20th Century. It now lives on at LIFE.com, the largest most amazing collection of professional photography on the internet. Users can browse, search, and view photos of today's people and events. They have free access to share print and post images for personal use. The Fifties Douglas T. Miller, Marion Nowak, 1977 Surveys the social, cultural, and political history of the United States during the decade of the 1950s. Perspectives, 1955 Time Briton Hadden, Henry R. Luce, 1955 American Satire in Prose and Verse Henry Carlisle, 1962 Satirical pieces, classical and contemporary.
