Chris McMahon

Revenge For A Duch:

Revenge for a Duch Harlequin Enterprises, Limited, Sara Orwig, 1984-06 Family and the State in Early Modern Revenge Drama Chris McMahon, 2012-11-27 In this book McMahon considers Early Modern revenge plays from a political science perspective paying particular attention to the construction of family and state institutions Plays set for close study are The Spanish Tragedy Hamlet The Revenger's Tragedy The Malcontent and The Duchess of Malfi The plays are read as unique events occupying positions in historical process concerning the privatisation of the family by means of symbolism and concrete household strategies such as budgeting and surveillance and the subsequent appropriation of the family and its methods by the state The effect is that family becomes an unofficial organ of the state This process however also involves the reform of the state along lines demanded by the private family McMahon's critical method derived from the theory of Bourdieu Bataille and Girard maps capital transactions to reveal emotionally charged often idiosyncratic responses to issues of shared concern Such issues include state corruption the management of women the performance of roles according to gender the uses of surveillance and the ethics of sacrifice Figures of Ill Repute Charles Bernheimer, 1997 Ubiquitous in the streets and brothels of nineteenth century Paris the prostitute was even more so in the novels and paintings of the time Charles Bernheimer discusses how these representations of the sexually available woman express male ambivalence about desire money class and the body Interweaving close textual analysis with historical anecdote and theoretical speculation Bernheimer demonstrates how the formal properties of art can serve strategically to control anxious fantasies about female sexual power Drawing on methods derived from cultural studies psychoanalysis social history feminist theory and narrative analysis this interdisciplinary classic available now for the first time in paperback was awarded Honorable Mention in 1990 for the James Russell Lowell prize awarded by the Modern Language Association for the best book of criticism Making Trifles of Terrors Harry Berger, Peter Erickson, 1997 This collection of essays includes some of the most recent work of a master critic at the height of his powers Of the fourteen essays written from the late 1970s to the present three have never before been published the essays appearance in a single volume makes available for the first time the full scope of Berger's unique approach to ethical discourses in Shakespeare's plays The sequence of essays displays both the continuity and the revisionary development that mark his critical practice since the early work on The Tempest Troilus and Cressida and the Elizabethan theater When one compares Berger's earlier work from the 1960s with the writing from the 1980s and 1990s in the present collection one sees that the difference stems primarily from the impact on the later work of his encounters with the whole range of structuralist and poststructuralist theory Much of the excitement and vitality of Berger's current work comes from his efforts to incorporate new methodological influences into his previous system Because he comes to poststructuralism as a mature critic whose larger interpretive framework is already in place his response is not simply to immerse himself in the new theoretical modes and adopt them wholesale but rather to make them his own Among the plays discussed are The Merchant of Venice Much Ado About Nothing King Lear Macbeth 2 Henry IV Richard II and in two of the new essays 1 Henry IV and Measure for Measure Also new is Berger's retrospective account of his critical development in the extensive opening Acknowledgments the Chief Elizabethan Dramatists, 1911 Fashioning Horror Julia Petrov, Gudrun D. Whitehead, 2017-12-14 From Jack the Ripper to Frankenstein Halloween customs to Alexander McQueen collections Fashioning Horror examines how terror is fashioned visually symbolically and materially through fashion and costume in literature film and real life With a series of case studies that range from sensationalist cinema and Slasher films to true crime and nineteenth century literature the volume investigates the central importance of clothing to the horror genre and broadens our understanding of both material and popular culture Arguing that dress is fundamental to our understanding of character and setting within horror the chapters also reveal how the grotesque and horrific is at the center of fashion itself with its potential for instability disguise and carnivalesque subversion Packed with original research and bringing together a range of international scholars the book is the first to thoroughly examine the aesthetics of terror and the role of fashion in the construction of horror
