Translation Martin Christof-Füchle, Razak Khan, 2024-01-29 The volume examines translation of key German texts into the modern Indian languages as well as translation from the vernacular languages of South Asia into German Our key concerns are shifting historical contexts concepts and translation practices Bringing an intellectual history dimension to translation studies we explore the history of translation translators and sites of translation The organization of the volume follows some key questions Which texts were being translated At what point or period in time did this happen What were the motivations behind these translations Topics covered range from thematic nodes or clusters e.g. translations of Economics texts and ideas into Urdu or the translation of Marx and Engels into Marathi to personal endeavours such as the first Hindi translation of Goethe's Faust done by Bholanath Sharma in 1939 Missionary as well as Marxist activist translation work from Malayalam Tamil and Telugu is included too On the other hand German translations of Tagore and Gandhi setting in shortly after 1912 are also examined Also discussed are political strategies of publication of translations from modern Indian languages guiding the output of publishing houses in the GDR after 1949 Further included are the translator's perspective and the contemporary translation and literary culture What happens through the process of linguistic translation in the realm of cultural translation What can a historical study of translation tell us about the history of Indo German intellectual entanglements in the long twentieth century The volume brings together multifaceted interdisciplinary research work from South Asian and German studies to answer some of these questions Sociology, 2000 Sociologists in a Global Age Mathieu Deflem, 2016-04-01 Sixteen leading international sociologists are brought together in this volume to share their experiences of becoming practitioners in the field Selected for their comparative and transnational interests and experiences

the contributors include Martin Albrow Karin Knorr Cetina Diane E Davis Pierpaolo Donati Leon Grunberg Horst J Helle Eiko Ikegami Tiankui Jing Hyun Chin Lim Ewa Morawska Richard M nch Saskia Sassen Joachim J Savelsberg Piotr Sztompka Edward A Tiryakian and Ruut Veenhoven Each contributor provides an auto biographical review of their journey into the discipline with special attention paid to the intellectual and social political contexts in which their work matured Each chapter concludes with a commentary on the anticipated future direction of that particular sociological area These original and reflective contributions provide fascinating and rare insights into the careers of sociologists living in a global age

Postmodernism is Not What You Think Charles C. Lemert, 2015-12-03 Charles Lemert is one of the most thoughtful and interesting of sociology's postmodernists He recurrently finds new angles of vision and is especially helpful for overcoming the pernicious opposition of micro and macro perspectives Craig Calhoun New York University on the first edition Highly readable the second edition of Postmodernism Is Not What You Think responds to the widespread claim that postmodernism is over It explains the historical connections between the postmodern and globalization Those who wish to kill the term postmodernism still must face the facts that the former nationalistic world system has collapsed and is slowly being replaced by a more global set of structures The book is completely revised and updated with an entirely new section on globalization The media and popular culture identity politics the science wars politics and cultural studies structuralism and poststructuralism and the new sociologies are also put in perspective as signs of the new social formations dawning at the end of the modern age Lemert shows that the postmodern is less a theory than a condition of social life brought about by the trouble modernity has gotten itself into The Lutheran Observer, 1901 Atlantic Educational Journal, 1910

The Citizen, 1898 Frontiers of Social Theory George Ritzer, 1990 This book presents essays reflecting the current state and near term prospects of sociological theory "Strangers" of the Academy Guofang Li, Gulbahar H. Beckett, 2023-07-12 No less than other minorities Asian women scholars are confronted with racial discrimination and stereotyping as well as disrespect for their research teaching and leadership and are underrepresented in academia In the face of such barriers many Asian female scholars have developed strategies to survive and thrive This book is among the first to examine their lived experience in Western academic discourses It addresses the socio cultural political academic and personal issues that Asian female scholars encounter in higher education The contributors to this book include first and second generation immigrants who are teachers and researchers in higher education and who come from a wide range of Asian nations and backgrounds They here combine new research and personal narratives to explore the intersecting layers of relationships that impact their lives language culture academic discourses gender class generation and race The book is replete with the richness and complexity of these scholars struggles and triumphs in their professional and personal realms This powerful and engaging volume Examines and celebrates the struggles and triumphs that Asian female scholars experience as they try to make it in academic environments that may differ sharply from the culture of their countries of origin Highlights the unique contributions the authors have made to research theory and the profession Establishes the authors claim to visibility and a voice for themselves and more generally for Asian women in the academy Opens a dialogue on these critical issues by sharing the academic and personal experiences of senior and junior scholars alike and Contributes to the on going discussion on issues pertinent to the status of minority female scholars in higher education Inklings
