Nevada Noble begins to feel a part of the Salem Crossing community a storm on the Florida coast threatens to upend her new life Will the terrible lies she's been telling destroy her future with the man she loves Can uncovered secrets ruin lifelong friendships Unexpected romances strike like lightning sending thundering reverberations along the coastline New dangers arrive on fierce winds shaking the foundations of the community to the very core Will Neve survive the hurricane of mystery and danger blowing through town or will everything she cares about be laid to ruin as the storm tears through the lives of everyone in SX Romance and the Erotics of Property Jan Cohn, 1988 Romance and the Erotics of Property examines contemporary popular romance from a number of different points of view probing for codes and subtexts that sometimes exploit and sometimes contradict its surface tale of romantic attraction frustration longing and fulfillment Cohn argues that a full understanding of the contemporary romance requires an investigation of its literary and historical sources and analogues Three principal sources are examined in the context of women's history in bourgeois society Pride and Prejudice Jane Eyre and Gone With the Wind demonstrate the development of romance fiction's themes yet in all three the central love story is complicated by issues of property the sign of male power Jan Cohn further considers the development of the genre in the fictions of Harriet Lewis and May Agnes Fleming prolific and popular American romance writers of the late nineteenth century who developed the role of the villain thereby bringing into focus the sexual and economic struggles faced by the heroine Romance and the Erotics of Property sets romance fiction against a historic and literary background arguing that contemporary romance disguises as tales of love the subversive fantasies of female appropriation and male property and power
