Ryder Cup:

Miracle at Medinah: Europe's Amazing Ryder Cup Comeback Oliver Holt, 2012-11-22 Golf fans will not forget the 39th Ryder Cup in a hurry Staged at the Medinah Country Club just outside of Chicago the 2012 event has already gone down as the most remarkable competition in its 85 year history The American team had home advantage and a golf course unapologetically set up to suit its own players Supported by tens of thousands of loud and proud fans the USA's star studded line up dominated the first two days and ended the Saturday with a seemingly unassailable 10-6 advantage No away team had ever won the Ryder Cup from such an unpromising position Sunday was singles day traditionally the forte of American teams The situation looked bleak especially when European team member and number 1 golfer in the world Rory McIlroy very nearly missed his tee off time Yet slowly but surely the European team who had top loaded their line up in one last throw of the dice started to turn the scoreboard blue With inspirational captain Jose Maria Olazabal stirring European blood with thoughts of the late Ryder Cup magician Seve Ballesteros whose silhouette was emblazoned on the players sweaters and bags the tide turned and the previously dominant American players started to crumble in the face of the onslaught Suddenly European players were holing miraculous putts to win holes out of the blue Something very special was happening When German Martin Kaymer sank his putt on the eighteenth green to clinch the point that retained the Ryder Cup the most astonishing comeback in the event's long and distinguished history was complete Miracle at Medinah is the compelling narrative of those amazing three days in Illinois a fitting chronicle of an unbelievable sporting story Ryder Cup Rivals Hank Gola, 2025-07-15 Veteran journalist and author Hank Gola takes readers on a tour of the most consequential clashes in the history of the biennial matches Since the first meeting between the United States and Great Britain in 1927 the Ryder Cup has become the most passionate of golf's professional events with the combatants playing for country rather than themselves Gola brings readers inside the ropes and behind the scenes from the most memorable shots to the most momentous putts to the craftiest machinations and most contentious confrontations He recalls iconic moments and figures including Walter Hagen and his gamesmanship Dai Reese and Britain's 1957 upset Jack Nicklaus Tony Jacklin and The Concession Seve Ballesteros and the arrival of the Europeans Bernhard Langer's agony at the War at the Shore and Paul Azinger's stunning captaincy at Valhalla Ryder Cup - Player by Player McCann Liam, 2014-08-18 The brainchild of Samuel Ryder a wealthy seed merchant from St Albans the Ryder Cup was a bi-annual British American professional golf tournament that was first played for the trophy bearing his name in Worcester Massachusetts in 1927 America won the match and gradually became the dominant force in the competition During the 1960s the results were so one-sided that the Ryder Cup was expanded so that players from Ireland could compete for the British team As the Americans continued to win comfortably Jack Nicklaus led the movement to alter the teams so that European players were also allowed to compete against them Since 1983 the contest has become one of the most competitive tournaments in the world with many players achieving sporting immortality for their exploits on green and fairway on both sides of the Atlantic This book examines the careers and Ryder Cup contributions of 50 of the greatest golfers in history from Tiger Woods and Arnold Palmer to Seve Ballesteros and Nick Faldo Lavishly illustrated throughout this book provides the perfect accompaniment to the upcoming tournament at Gleneagles in Scotland The Ryder Cup Bruce Critchley, Henry Lord, Peter Pugh, 2010-09 For those old enough to remember the Ryder Cups before the 1980s were often dispiriting affairs especially if you were British The Americans were simply too good and the British won only very occasionally At the end of the 1970s the great American golfer Jack Nicklaus suggested that the British invite golfers from Europe to join their team Seve Ballesteros from Spain and Bernhard Langer from Germany were just coming to the peak of their careers and it was an inspired suggestion that fortunately the British accepted The contest became more even and the Europeans began to win as often as the Americans Indeed since 1981 Europe has won ten of the sixteen contests There have been many close and exciting contests with huge dramas developing on the last day Standing out are the matches at Brookline in 1999 when the Americans overturned a deficit of 10 6 going into the final day Celtic Manor in 2010 when the Americans nearly but not quite overturned a substantial European lead and finally at Medinah in 2012 when the Americans were cruising comfortably to victory on Saturday afternoon with a 10 4 lead only for the Europeans to fight back first by winning the last two fourballs on the Saturday and then winning 81 2 points out of 12 in the singles on Sunday The Ryder Cup captures all the glory of golf s greatest match
