The Eucharist Church of England. House of Bishops, 2001 The Eucharist Sacrament of Unity sets out the teaching of the Church of England within the Anglican Communion on the Eucharist It discusses the following questions Why is it so important How is Christ present Is the Eucharist a sacrifice in any sense Why do Anglicans offer eucharistic hospitality to members of other churches and expect to receive it from them In 1998 the Roman Catholic Bishops of England and Wales Ireland and Scotland issued One Bread One Body and invited ecumenical responses In this courteous but robust reply the House of Bishops shows that the Church of England upholds the faith of the Church concerning the Eucharist and justifies eucharistic sharing

Nature, Grace, and Secular Culture Christian C. Irdi, 2024-09-13 The relationship between nature and grace is a key debate in Fundamental theology The understanding of how nature and grace relate to each other is also a critically important part in comprehending the underpinnings of Western secular culture and therefore how best to evangelise it This book compares John Milbank and Joseph Ratzinger two relatively recent theologians who have both drawn from the insights of Henri de Lubac and have attempted to address the challenge that secular culture presents to the mission of the church In demonstrating and comparing how each author's approach to the nature of grace consequently determines their respective approach to secular culture it is hoped that responses to the challenge of secular culture might be more comprehensively considered

The Celebration of the Eucharist Enrico Mazza, 2016-03-24 Eucharistic liturgy has differed through the centuries and in different Churches. Because of these differences it is essential that eucharistic liturgy be studied from a historical perspective. In The Celebration of the Eucharist Enrico Mazza offers a thorough account of the theology of the Eucharist and presents a historical analysis of the origin and variety of eucharistic liturgies and their development in the Church. Beginning with the Last Supper, Father Mazza weaves his way through interpretations elaborated by the Fathers of the Church and medieval writers to provide the rich tapestry of concepts and categories adopted by Vatican Council II. Complete with an appendix including Jewish texts and early Eucharistic Prayers, abbreviations, bibliography, and notes, The Celebration of the Eucharist is a comprehensive source for those who have an interest in the theology of the Eucharist in the course of history. Chapters are: Old Testament Sacrifices and Ritual Meal; The Origin of the Christian Eucharist; From the Jewish Liturgy to the Christian Eucharist; Primitive Anaphoras; From the Didache to the Mystical Eucharist; Primitive Anaphoras; Developments of the Eucharistic Liturgy; Thematic Developments in the Eucharistic Liturgy; The Early Patristic Period: Tertullian and Cyprian; The Fourth Century; The Early Middle Ages; The Scholastic High Middle Ages; The Eucharist and the Relics of the Saints; The Reformation and the Council of Trent; The Liturgical Reform of Vatican Council II; The Implementation of the Liturgical Reform; The Parts of the Eucharistic Prayer; and The Last Supper and the Church's Eucharist. Enrico Mazza is professor of liturgical history at the Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Milan. He is the author of Mystagogy: A Theology of Liturgy in the Patristic Ages, Eucharistic Prayers of the Roman Rite, and The Origins of the Eucharistic Prayer, published by The Liturgical Press.

The Church in Act Maxwell E. Johnson, 2015 The Church in Act explores the dynamics of ecclesial and liturgical theology, examining the body of Christ in action. Maxwell E. Johnson provides in this volume historical and doctrinal thinking on a diversity of liturgical subjects under the umbrella of Lutheran liturgical theology in ecumenical conversation. From baptismal spirituality to Eucharistic concerns, the volume offers a robust account of the liturgical, sacramental, and spiritual practices of the church for scholars, students, pastors, and others who seek to minister in an ecumenical context with increased understanding and insight.

Eucharist Shaping and Hebert's Liturgy and Society Andrew Bishop, 2016-03-31 The contemporary Church of England is wrestling with issues around the relationship between its worship and mission and relating both to wider society. Much of this hinges on an understanding of the nature of the Church. Gabriel Hebert's seminal book Liturgy and Society (1935) took as its subtitle The Function of the Church in the Modern World. For many, this book inspired engagement with Eucharistic worship with new patterns emerging, paving the way for further liturgical reform in the second half of the twentieth century. Eucharist Shaping and Hebert's Liturgy and Society re-examines Hebert's work, doing so uniquely in the light of the current dialogue about Church liturgy and mission. Andrew Bishop argues that Hebert's contribution has been overlooked latterly and that a re appreciation opens up fruitful ways of thinking and acting making this book a distinctive contribution to a lively debate If the options are reaction or novelty Eucharist Shaping and Hebert's Liturgy and Society shows how Hebert's thinking subtly undermines both

The Active Participation of the Faithful in the Eucharist on the Basis of Common Priesthood Stella Adamma Nneji,2018-06-15 One of the significant points of the Second Vatican Council is its emphasis on the status of the lay faithful in the church which includes active participation in the life of faith The council spoke of the active participation of all the faithful in liturgical celebrations on the basis of the common priesthood of the faithful which is conferred during baptism and through which every believer shares in the priestly kingly and prophetic offices of Christ In this book Stella Nneji develops an ecclesiological critical reflection on the teaching of the Second Vatican Council with regard to active participation Focusing especially on the church as people of God Nneji shows how the idea of participation is not merely a passive action but an active one Based on the ecclesiological reflection on the church as people of God and its relevance for active participation she maintains that Vatican II's vision on active participation is relevant to the upbuilding of the body of Christ church This vision integrates a critical thinking especially regarding those places where the implementation of Vatican II's teachings seems difficult
