Sacred And The Feminine Toward A Theology Of Housework:

Feminist Issues in Literary Scholarship Shari Benstock, 1987 an important and valuable collection the essays are at the cutting edge of post modernism Maggie Humm Women s Studies International Forum This well written carefully edited anthology provides an excellent overview of the thicket of contemporary feminist literary theory No library should be without it Kathryn Allen Rabuzzi Syracuse University Religious Studies Review In all this is a rich and varied collection Journal of Modern Literature Explores the aesthetic and political issues inherent in feminist critical theory and practice Contributors include Shari Benstock Elaine Showalter Nina Baym Paula A Treichler Jane Marcus Josephine Donovan Judith Kegan Gardiner Judith Newton Lillian S Robinson Nina Auerbach Elizabeth Fox Genovese Hortense J Spillers and Susan Stanford Friedman The Sacred and the Feminine Kathryn Allen Rabuzzi, 1982 Feminist Theory, Fourth Edition Josephine Donovan, 2012-03-08 This first major study of feminist theory revised and updated here in its fourth edition now takes the reader into the twenty first century It addresses the basic question What is feminism by outlining the various strands of feminist theory liberal cultural Marxist socialist Freudian and radical This fourth edition brings the discussion up to date integrating the developments in feminist theory that have emerged in the last two decades such as ecofeminism multiculturalism postmodernism and global feminism including new material since the publication of the third edition 2000

Fantasies of the Feminine Patricia Nisbet Klingenberg, 1999 In order to address these questions and to better understand Ocampo s work the analysis sustains an extended dialogue between her short fiction and current Euro American feminist theory While the analysis is intended primarily for scholars interested in Latin American authors every effort has been made to facilitate a reading by the non specialist BOOK JACKET Religion, Feminism, and Idoloclasm Melissa Raphael, 2019-01-22 Religion Feminism and Idoloclasm identifies religious and secular feminism s common critical moment as that of idol breaking It reads the women s liberation movement as founded upon a philosophically and emotionally risky attempt to liberate women s consciousness from a three fold cognitive captivity to the self idolizing god called Man the God who is a projection of his power and the idol of the feminine called Woman that the god called God created for Man Examining a period of feminist theory theology and culture from about 1965 to 2010 this book shows that secular as well as Christian Jewish and post Christian feminists drew on ancient and modern tropes of redemption from slavery to idols or false ideas as a means of overcoming the alienation of women s being from their own becoming With an understanding of feminist theology as a pivotal contribution to the feminist criticism of culture this original book also examines idoloclasm in feminist visual art literature direct action and theory not least that of the sexual politics of romantic love the diet and beauty industry sex robots and other phenomena whose idolization of women reduces them to figures of the feminine same experienced as a de realization or death of the self This book demonstrates that secular and religious feminist critical engagements with the modern trauma of dehumanization were far more closely related than is often supposed As such it will be vital reading for

Prelinger,1996 The opening of the ministry to women has created a new situation within Protestant denominations This work studies the impact of these gender changes and includes essays on Episcopal theology and women s spirituality the urban church ageing and the church women s organizations Imitating Abraham ,2025-03-27 Imitating Abraham provides exciting glimpses into the reception history of the character Abraham in Judaism Christianity and Islam illuminating the manifold ways in which interpreters draw upon his legacy to authorize practices like sacrifice circumcision hospitality feasting prayer and personal and corporate piety Abraham holds surprises his name is used in magical amulets some published here for the first time to ward off demons protect cattle from illness and even to round up runaway slaves Researchers students and all interested in Biblical Jewish Christian and Islamic Studies as well as ritual and exemplarity will want to read this book The Aesthetics of Care Josephine Donovan,2016-06-02 In this important new book from a distinguished scholar Josephine Donovan develops a new aesthetics of care which she establishes as the basis for a critical approach to the representation of animals in literature The Aesthetics of Care begins with a guide to the relationship between ethics and aesthetics leading to a reconceptualization of key literary critical terms such as mimesis and catharsis before moving on to an applied section with interpretations of the specific treatment of animals handled by a wide range of authors including Willa Cather Leo Tolstoy George Sand and J M Coetzee The book closes with three concluding theoretical chapters Clear original and provocative The Aesthetics of Care introduces and makes new contributions to a number of burgeoning areas of study and debate aesthetics and ethics critical theory animal ethics and ecofeminist criticism Family Theories James M. White,David M. Klein,2002-06-27 Praise for the First Edition This is an admirable text and sourcebook but also achieves the status of an intellectually challenging confrontation with the reader It is in many ways a model which many of us would be well advised to follow I wish I could have written it British Journal of Developmental Psychology This revision of a best seller remains the only single volume book to present family theory in a clear and approachable manner providing a thorough introduction to current theories about the family for both advanced undergraduate and beginning graduate students The authors incorporate a broad scope of work from different perspectives in surveying seven major theoretical frameworks developed by key social scientists to explain variation in family life This incisive New Edition examines the exchange symbolic interaction family developmental systems conflict feminist and ecological theoretical frameworks and presents a typology for analyzing and comparing the seven frameworks while providing direction for future theory development Made from Scratch Jean Zimmerman,2012-11-13 A stunning celebration and reappraisal of the importance of women s work Made from Scratch addresses the tug that many Americans feel between our professional and private lives In this stunning celebration and reappraisal of the importance of women s work acclaimed journalist Jean Zimmerman poignantly addresses the tug that many Americans of the twenty first century feel between our professional and private lives

With sharp wit and intelligence she offers evidence that in the current domestic vacuum we still long for a richer home life a paradox visible in the Martha Stewart phenomenon in the continuing popularity of women's service magazines such as Better Homes and Gardens Family Circle and Ladies Home Journal whose combined circulation of over 17 million is nearly twice the combined circulation of Time Newsweek and U S News World Report and the booming business of restorations where onlookers get a hands on view of domestic life as it flourished in past centuries This book is about the ways home traditions passed from one generation to the next baking a birthday cake from scratch cherishing family heirlooms or discovering the satisfaction of piecing a quilt sustain our souls especially in our ever more processed synthetic world where we buy homemade goods and fail to see the irony in that Made from Scratch tells the story of the unsung heroines of the hearth investigating the history of female domesticity and charting its cultural changes over centuries Zimmerman traces the lives of her own family's homemakers from her tiny but indomitable grandmother who managed a farm strangled chickens with her bare hands and sewed all the family clothing to her mother who rejected her country upbringing yet kept a fastidious suburban home where the gender divide stayed firmly in place to her own experiences as a wife and mother weaned on the Women's Movement of the 1970s with its emphatic view that housework was a dirty word and that the domestic sphere was to be fled rather than cherished In this book Zimmerman questions the unexamined trade off we have made in a shockingly brief time span as we've progressed from home raised chickens to frozen TV dinners to McNuggets from the food court at the mall What is lost when we no longer engage as individuals and as a community in the ancient rituals of food craft and shelter of dividing work by gender are disappearing and new ways of ordering our lives are emerging Today women and men engage in various forms of work in the course of a lifetime work for pay housework family care taking work volunteer work Our expansion of work roles holds great promise for our personal development the well being of families and the health of society We can weave together all forms of work with determination and imagination as we open doors for future generations Our attitudes values and world views are changing along with our working patterns Old ideal images now limiting and harmful are losing their power Opportunities for theological reformation emerge based on a new understanding of human nature just love and the order of society We live in an accelerating time of great change and great consequence This is a book for such a time Borderland Brutalities Laura Elena Belmonte, 2024-06-01 Laura Elena Belmonte Albuquerque NM In Borderland Brutalities Laura Elena Belmonte analyzes how border violence is perpetuated and sanctioned by private corporations as well as the US and Mexican governments and how this violence is represented through border literature and cultural production Belmonte examines literature art and film produced by artists living on both sides of the border to explore how they portray this violence and how they use their art to actively resist it This important analysis of the border will be required reading for decades to come and lays the groundwork for additional studies on borderland violence and resistance Perspectives on Contemporary Literature David Hershberg, 2021-10-21 Today's music painting and film share with literature in the development of a new aesthetic even as these other arts influence and are influenced by literary themes and structures And at the same time the music and art of the past continue to re-echo in twentieth century letters The thirteen essays gathered here open a fine and varied view of the ways in which contemporary literature interacts with the other arts Surrealism in French painting and literature collage theory and the cutups of William Burroughs texts of Butor as shaped by works of Duchamp this volume offers a rich harvest of perceptive studies on these and other aspects of a fascinating topic Writing the Woman Artist Suzanne W. Jones, 2016-11-11 I mean what is a woman I assure you I do not know I do not believe that you know I do not believe that anybody can know until she has expressed herself in all the arts and professions open to human skill Virginia Woolf Professions for Women Writing The Woman Artist is a collection of essays that explores the ways in which women writers portray women painters sculptors writers and performers Surveying the works of a variety of women writers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from different ethnic national racial and economic backgrounds this book treats their revisions of the Künstlerroman and their perceptions of the relationships between muse artist and audience in other genres Suzanne Wones and her collaborators seek to understand how representations of women artists and their poetics and politics are mediated by social and historical factors including literary movements and theories of language In doing so they make an important contribution to the field of feminist scholarship and generate new ways of understanding how the dynamics of creativity intersect with the dynamics of gender Contributors to the volume are Ann Ardis Alison Booth Kathleen Brogan Lynda Bundtzen Pamela Caughie Mary DeShazer Linda Dittmar Josephine Donovan Susan Stanford Friedman Gayle Greene Linda Hunt Katherine Kearns Holly Laird Estella Lauter Z Nelly Martinez Jane Atteridge Rose Margaret Diane Stetz Renate Voris and Mara Witzling Writing The Woman Artist is a valuable new resource for scholars and students working in the fields of European and American literature and women's studies
