Refuge in Crestone Aaron Thomas Raverty, 2014-06-18 As globalization

proceeds at an ever increasing and more unrelenting pace relations among the world's religions are taking on both a new visibility and a new urgency Christian theologians and others intent on innovative formulations in the theology of religions are making interreligious dialogue with non Christians a priority One way to promote creative scholarship in this quest is to tap into interdisciplinary resources and the author of this volume is uniquely qualified to do so since he holds graduate degrees in both theology and cultural anthropology Aaron Thomas Raverty's Refuge in Crestone A Sanctuary for Interreligious Dialogue elucidates how the praxis of interreligious dialogue as outlined in key Vatican documents in the Catholic Church could be better served by attending to the qualitative ethnographic methods of sociocultural anthropology Because the material behavioral and cognitive aspects of dialogue as revealed in daily life common social and political action religious experience and theological exchange are embedded in culture they are amenable to ethnographic analysis Using the unique multi religious Colorado site of Crestone and its environs as a fieldwork laboratory and self described Refuge for World Truths the ethnographic data gleaned from this project exemplify the creative interdisciplinary contributions of anthropology to theologizing It seeks to demonstrate using an empirical multi religious community as its focus how anthropology can support interreligious dialogue The results of such dialogue could not only assist the scholarly community by helping theologians arrive at new formulations in the burgeoning area of the theology of religions but might also serve the more practical goal of promoting peace as an alternative to violence in today's complex and sorely troubled world or for anyone in need of solace and inspiration Ten Poems for Difficult Times Good Bones by Maggie The Thing Is by Ellen Bass The Quarrel by Conrad Aiken Cutting Loose by William Stafford Rain Light by W S Merwin How the Light Comes by Jan Richardson Now You Know the Worst by Wendell Berry A Brief for the Defense by Jack Gilbert It s This Way by Nazim Hikmet Annunciation by Marie Howe Dropping the Struggle Roger Housden,2016-08-05 Is it possible to fully accept even love the life you have Is it possible to drop the struggle to make yourself and your life different Acclaimed teacher and bestselling author Roger Housden says yes in this profound alternative to nonstop striving and self criticism Whether about our relationships careers or spirituality many of us judge ourselves as not measuring up But fulfillment comes when we stop struggling and learn to trust the wisdom of what life presents us with Housden wrote Dropping the Struggle as someone who up until a few years ago spent much of his time in a covert struggle with life Despite his success he often felt that something was missing He struggled for years with an ongoing spiritual longing with questions of meaning and purpose with the search for love with all the usual difficulties of being human until he finally realized though not with his thinking mind that the only thing life was asking of him was to rest in a deeper knowing that was always there usually silently behind the arguments and strategies that would so commonly occupy his conscious self Struggle will never get us the things we want most Housden writes love meaning presence freedom from anxiety over the past and future contentment with ourselves exactly as we are imperfections and all the acceptance of our mortality because these things lie outside the ego s domain For these we need another way That way begins and ends in surrender in letting go of our resistance to life as it presents itself Unraveled Maria Housden,2006-05-23 Housden shares the riveting story of how after the death of her young daughter she found the courage to break away from her role as a wife and stay at home mom and strike out on her own in search of a more fulfilling life The Mayan Prophecies for 2012 Gerald Benedict,2012-01-01 A cataclysmic change to our way of life is looming as the winter solstice of 2012 heralds the end of the 5 000 year Mayan Fourth Age With its conclusion will we see the end of the world as we know it or the dawning of a new golden age Pilgrimage Sean O'Reilly,James O'Reilly,2000 This book showcases a diverse array of spirit renewing journeys from pilgrims of many kinds from places as far away as Tibet s Mount Kailish and as near as sacred New Mexico soil A soulful blend of more than 20 stories Pilgrimage is ideal for all with an affinity for travel a practice of mindful living and a thirst for the unknown Law, Registration, and the State Jess Smith,2023-07-28 This book provides an original and compelling analysis of registration as a dynamic process which makes and unmakes legal identities Critical legal and socio legal scholarship tends to assume that registration is a textually mediated act of statecraft which governs through the technology of writing Taking a different approach this book develops movement as socio legal method to illustrate the legal social and bureaucratic layers of movement which unfold in everyday engagements with the law The book presents empirical and theoretical analysis of historical contemporary and future oriented places of registration a community hub a city of pilgrimage and the General Register Office Drawing from diverse perspectives across anthropology geography sociology architecture and mobility studies the book argues for an understanding of registration as evolving socially constructed and shaped by spatial imaginaries which are materialised in its architecture This mobile understanding of registration expands conceptual discussions of legal materiality whilst opening up possibilities for legal identities unconstrained by the assumed desirability of stability or endurance This interdisciplinary book will appeal primarily to a sociolegal critical legal and legal geography readership but it will also be of interest to those in other disciplines concerned with materiality movement and statecraft

Muslim Preacher in the Modern World Richard T. Antoun, 2014-07-14 Richard Antoun documents and exemplifies the single most important institution for the propagation of Islam the Friday congregational sermon delivered in the mosque by the Muslim preacher In his analysis of various sermons collected in a Jordanian village and in Amman the author vividly demonstrates the scope of the Islamic corpus beliefs ritual norms and ethics its flexibility with respect to current social issues and specific social structures and its capacity for interpretation and manipulation Focusing on the pivotal role of preacher as culture

broker Antoun compares the process of the social organization of tradition in rural Jordan with similar processes outside the Muslim world. He then highlights the experiential dimension of Islam. The sermons discussed range over such topics as family ethics, political attitudes, pilgrimage, education, magic, work, compassion, and individual salvation. Originally published in 1989. Contemporary Muslim Travel Cultures C. Michael Hall, Siamak Seyfi, S. Mostafa Rasoolimanesh, 2022-07-26 This timely volume brings together various issues in Muslim consumer cultures and provides a comprehensive account of Muslim tourism and tourist behaviour. Islam is a major international religion and Muslims are a majority of the population in many countries in Asia, the Middle East and North Africa. The growth of a substantial middle class, the development of Islamic consumer cultures, rising Muslim market consumption in non-Muslim majority destinations, and the growing significance of intra-Muslim traffic and rising outbound tourism expenditure in emerging Muslim markets have all contributed to substantial interest in Muslim tourism. However, travel by Muslims is about far more than the Hajj and Umrah as important as they are as acts of devotion. Instead, although often portrayed in the West as a monolithic religion, Muslim travel and leisure behaviour is very diverse with different traditions and cultures leading to a range of expressions of tourism-related consumption culture and practices. Drawing on a range of empirical studies undertaken in different social and economic contexts and countries, this book provides a well-balanced portrayal of the Muslim tourism experience and practices. This book makes a substantial contribution to an improved understanding of Muslim travel culture and will be required reading for anyone interested in this fast-growing market.

A Cloud of Witnesses Joan S. Hickey, 2013-05-07 This is a book of true stories, stories about people who have had extraordinary experiences of God. These events have not occurred as going to heaven in the course of Near-Death Experiences as have been chronicled in some best-selling books of recent years. Rather, they have happened here in this world unexpectedly and in the middle of the everyday lives of almost half of present-day Americans according to some studies. Here you will find in their own words accounts of such experiences from fifty-eight of those people, some of them sharing their experiences for the first time.

Tourism and Embodiment Catherine Palmer, Hazel Andrews, 2019-07-23 The role of the body and the concept of embodiment have largely been neglected in anthropological studies of tourism. This book provides a more holistic understanding of the role of the body in making and re-making self and world by engaging with tourism. tourism who each draw upon ethnographically informed research based on international case studies that include India Turkey Australia and Tasmania Denmark the United States Nepal France Italy South Africa and Spain The case studies focus on a variety of themes including human and nonhuman bodies The range of case studies gives the book an international appeal that makes it valuable to academic researchers and students in the disciplines of social anthropology cultural geography sociology philosophy and the field of tourism studies itself
