Criminal cases raise difficult normative and legal questions and are often a consequence of compelling human drama In this collection expert authors place leading cases in criminal law in their historical and legal contexts highlighting their significance both in the past and for the present The cases in this volume range from the fifteenth to the twenty first century Many of them are well known to modern criminal lawyers and students others are overlooked landmarks that deserve reconsideration The essays often based on extensive and original archival research range over a wide spectrum of criminal law covering procedure and doctrine statute and common law individual offences and general principles Together the essays explore common themes including the scope of criminal law and criminalisation the role of the jury and the causes of change in criminal law

Significant Cases in Corrections Craig Hemmens, Barbara Belbot, Katherine Bennett, 2013 Easily accessible to undergraduates Significant Cases in Corrections Second Edition offers a clear comprehensive introduction to corrections Rather than providing complete opinions which may overwhelm students the authors present case briefs along with analyses explanations and short excerpts In addition to the case summaries the book includes lists of all of the cases it covers both in alphabetical order and grouped by topic a short introduction to each topic and an index CRIMINAL JUSTICE CASE BRIEFS SERIES Significant Cases in Criminal Procedure Second Edition Craig Hemmens Alan Thompson and Lisa S Nored 978 0 19 995791 0 Significant Cases in Corrections Second Edition Craig Hemmens Barbara Belbot and Katherine Bennett 978 0 19 994858 1 Significant Cases in Juvenile Justice Second Edition Craig Hemmens Benjamin Steiner and David Mueller 978 0 19 995841 2      Criminal Justice Case Briefs Craig Hemmens, Katherine Bennett, Barbara Belbot, 2004

Comprehensive in its treatment of corrections law this book covers the major cases in the area It features a list of cases in alphabetical order and grouped by topic briefs of each case arranged by topic a short introduction to each topic intended to put the cases into context and provide some unity and an index      Landmark Cases in Competition Law Barry Rodger, 2012-12-01 It is the thesis of this fascinating and highly instructive book on competition law that an examination of one landmark case scenario or saga each from a range of legal systems leads to a thorough understanding of the issues informing and arising from competition policy law and legal practice To that end leading scholars from 14 jurisdictions enhance their academic authority and rigour with an element of panache to describe a particularly salient case in each of their countries commenting in depth on the contribution of the case to the development of their particular competition law culture and to the case's enduring significance for competition law and its enforcement from a global perspective. There are chapters for each of thirteen countries as well as the European Union preceded by an informative and thoughtful introduction. For each landmark case, selected the legislative background, the case facts and the legal ruling and reasoning are all minutely described along with commentary, critique and assessment of the case's impact and contemporary significance. The cases cover vast swathes of the competition law territory in terms of substance and procedure dealing with cartels, abuse of dominance, mergers and vertical restraints and involving diverse forms of public and private enforcement processes. Aspects covered include the following: the public interest test, bid rigging in public procurement, the entitlement of dominant companies to compete on a level footing with other companies, the hard to draw line between legitimate competition and unlawful monopolizing conduct, the dangers of eclectic borrowing in the development and interpretation of competition law rules, horizontal price fixing, collusion, hub and spoke cartels, resale price maintenance agreements and the U.S. rule of reason, the increasing use of private enforcement and the right for victims of a competition law infringement to seek compensation, merger control in energy markets and the political use of merger review rules to benefit domestic firms, cooperation with criminal enforcement agencies and prosecutors, the role courts play in undertaking adequate legal supervision of competition authorities, leniency processes and obtaining access to confidential whistleblowing documentation, imposition of administrative fines and other deterrence based sanctions and how the consumer welfare standard is interpreted. More than a set of landmark case descriptions, this book in which many chapters reflect upon recent and consider further future significant reforms demonstrates that competition law and its enforcement processes form part of a chronological narrative and that it is important to understand the broader legal, social and economic context within which competition law and policy develop. This wider perspective will prove immeasurably valuable to the many practitioners, business people, jurists and policy makers engaged in the shaping of competition law in any jurisdiction and will moreover be essential reading for postgraduate students studying any aspects of comparative competition law enforcement.

Landmark Cases in EU Law, Volume 2 Paul Craig, Robert Schütze, 2025-07-10. From Van Gend en Loos and Costa v ENEL to Cassis de Dijon and Consten and Gründig. Landmark Cases in EU Law explores the most important and well known EU law cases in two volumes. These volumes show how the European Court of Justice has played a fundamental role in the construction of the European Union in the past 70 years. Many EU landmark cases have been controversial yet no one can deny that they have been essential in defining the Union legal order as we find it today. Volume 2 explores the substantive cases that have shaped the Union's internal market, its competition law as well as its internal and external policies. Each of the twenty cases within this volume is placed in its historical and doctrinal context and each chapter also presents the history of its reception by the Court and academia.

Landmark Cases in Consumer Law Jodi Gardner, Iain Ramsay, 2024-01-11. This book analyses the history of the common law foundations of consumer law and encourages readers to rethink the role that consumer law plays in our society Consumer law is often constructed as purely statute based law However as this collection will demonstrate this is far from the truth Much of the history of the common law concerns consumer transactions and markets Case law has often established or modified the ground rules of consumer markets has had a patterning effect on the economic organisation of markets and has expressed cultural visions of the market and consumers An analysis of landmark cases of consumer law allows many traditional cases to be viewed through a new and distinct lens providing significant academic and intellectual value The collection also includes a unique socio legal perspective considering the role that consumer law has played in addressing racial discrimination LGBTQ challenges and the rights of women This collection of landmark cases demonstrates the theoretical and practical significance of consumer law through a wide range of contributions by distinguished authors from the United Kingdom Europe the United States and Australia

Significant Cases in Juvenile Justice Craig Hemmens, Benjamin Steiner, David Mueller, 2004 This text is one of three books in the Criminal Justice Case Briefs series each of which provides a summary and analysis of leading cases in a particular area of criminal justice criminal procedure law corrections law or juvenile law Craig Hemmens is the lead author on all three books there is a different set of coauthors on each book all of whom are experts in their respective areas Easily accessible to undergraduates each volume has the same basic outline and format which is neither exclusively casebook nor textbook The purely casebook approach is not always appropriate for undergraduates whose primary focus is learning the law not how to think like a lawyer Therefore these books present briefs or summaries of the opinions along with analyses and explanations instead of the actual opinions themselves This allows instructors to use the books as either supplements or as main stand alone texts The volumes also include less background and extraneous material than most textbooks the cases are presented in a context with relevant commentary which allows students to better understand the significance of the legal holdings explains the Court's holdings and places each case in context with the Court's other decisions Criminal Justice Case Briefs Significant Cases in Juvenile Justice is comprehensive in its treatment of juvenile law covering all of the major cases in the area It features a list of cases in alphabetical order and grouped by topic briefs of each case arranged by topic a short introduction to each topic intended to put the cases into context and provide some unity and an index

Landmark Cases in International Law Eric Heinze, Malgosia Fitzmaurice, 2023-07-03 This book contains excerpts in extenso from leading cases in general international law and seeks to provide a greater volume of case law than that currently available on the market It contains no editorial commentary and no secondary literature as these are widely available in other works It can serve either as a principal text or as a supplement to other standard books It is thoroughly up to date including recent ICJ judgments on the Bosnia case the Gavc kovo Nagymaros Project the Advisory Opinion on Nuclear Weapons and the Lockerbie case It will be of inestimable value to all libraries of international law large and small institutional and private No student or practitioner in the field

should be without it      Landmark Cases in the Law of Punitive Damages James Goudkamp, Eleni Katsampouka, 2023-12-28

Punitive damages are private law's most controversial remedy. This book traces the development of the jurisdiction from the foundational decisions of Huckle v Money and Wilkes v Wood in England to leading modern cases such as Harris v Digital Pulse Pty Ltd in Australia, Whiten v Pilot Insurance Co in Canada, Couch v AG No 2 in New Zealand, PH Hydraulics and Engineering Pte Ltd v Airtrust Hong Kong Ltd in Singapore, and Mathias v Accor Economy Lodging Inc and State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co v Campbell in the United States. Many of the decisions addressed are not only landmarks regarding punitive damages but are among the most important judgments delivered in private law more generally. The essays, which are written by leading scholars from a wide range of jurisdictions, cast new light on the cases covered. They do so by examining their historical antecedents and the impact that they have had on the development of the law. The full spectrum of issues regarding punitive damages is addressed, including the insurability of punishment, constitutional constraints on the remedy's availability, and whether the award should be confined to particular causes of action. The collection will be of interest to all scholars and students of private law. It concentrates on common law cases, although civilian perspectives drawn from France and Germany are also offered.
