Signifying Identities Anthropological Perspectives On Boundaries And Contested Values:

You Belong to Christ J. Brian Tucker, 2011-01-01 You Belong to Christ explores the way that the Apostle Paul sought to form the social identity of one of his most important Christ following communities It sheds light on the way various social identities function within the Pauline community and provides guidance concerning the social implications of the gospel Drawing from contemporary social identity theories as well as ancient source material J Brian Tucker describes the way 1 Corinthians 1 4 forms social identity in its readers so that what results is an alternative community with a distinct ethos in contrast to the Roman Empire and its imperial ideology This book contends that previous identities are not obliterated in Christ but maintain their fundamental significance and serve to further the Pauline mission by means of social integration Providing a comprehensive survey of Christian identity in Pauline studies as well as an interesting look into the material remains of Roman Corinth this volume provides a social scientific reading of 1 Corinthians 1 4 and argues that Paul's strategy was to form salient in Christ social identity in those to whom he wrote

Critical Journeys Geert De Neve, Maya Unnithan-Kumar, 2016-04-22 Through an ethnography of ethnographers this volume explores the varied ways in which anthropologists become and remain attracted to the discipline The contributors reflect on the initial preconceptions assumptions and expectations of themselves as young anthropologists and on the ways in which early decisions are made about fieldwork and about the selection of field locations They question how fieldworkers come to understand what anthropology is both as a profession and as a personal experience through their commitments in the field in academic departments and in contexts where their specialist knowledge is called upon and applied They discuss the nature of reflexivity that emerges out of anthropological practices and the ways in which this reflexivity affects ethnographic practices Providing reflections on fieldwork in such diverse places as Alaska Melanesia New York and India the volume critically reflects on the field as a culturally constructed site with blurred boundaries that allow the personal and the professional to permeate each other It addresses the politics of location that shape the anthropologists involvement in the field in teaching rooms in development projects and in activist engagements The journeys described extend beyond the field and into interdisciplinary projects commissions colleges and personal spheres These original and critical contributions provide fascinating insights into the relationship between anthropologists and the nature of the discipline

Strategies of Symbolic Nation-building in South Eastern Europe Pål Kolstø, 2016-04-01 After the conflagration of Tito's Yugoslavia a medley of new and not so new states rose from the ashes Some of the Yugoslav successor states have joined or are about to enter the European Union while others are still struggling to define their national borders symbols and relationships with neighbouring states Strategies of Symbolic Nation building in South Eastern Europe expands upon the existing body of nationalism studies and explores how successful these nation building strategies have been in the last two decades Relying on new quantitative research results the contributors offer interdisciplinary analyses of symbolic nation building in Albania Bosnia Herzegovina Croatia Kosovo Macedonia Montenegro and Serbia to show that whereas the citizens of some states have reached a consensus about the nation building project other states remain fragmented and uncertain of when the process will end A must read not only for scholars of the region but policy makers and others interested in understanding the complex interplay of history symbolic politics and post conflict transition

Land Grabbing and Conflict in the North West Region of Cameroon René Ngek Monteh, 2024-01-03 In Cameroon conflicts emerging from land ownership and boundary discrepancies have reached record heights with the North West Region serving as the theatre of land and boundary conflicts These conflicts are not just rampant but have taken shifting positions making the much cherished desire for peaceful cohabitation a far fetched possibility As this book shows the ordinances of the 1970s which stopped traditional communities from making claims of ownership of land the unwillingness of the traditional elite to understand and accept the arbitrary colonial imposed boundaries and the dubious role played by those in authority in an attempt to solve or identify the root causes of these conflicts constituted the bed rock for the emergence of multi dimensional problems This book argues that conflicts in the North West Region have been promoted by the colonial factor the authorities insistence on focusing on the consequences rather than on the deep causes land laws administrative orders and formally made arrangements It argues very strongly that conflicts in the North West Region have become so protracted that solving them has been an uphill task

Modern Languages Alison Phipps, Mike Gonzalez, 2004-05-24 This accessible book is written by teachers of modern languages and tackles the specifics of the discipline while situating it within the literature on teaching Modern Languages in Higher Education

Martin, 2007 What is a Galilean What were the criteria of defining a person as a Galilean archaeologically or with respect to literary sources such as Josephus or the rabbis What role did religion play in the process of identity formation Twenty two articles based on papers read at conferences at Cambridge Wuppertal and Yale by experts from 7 countries shed light on a complex region the pivotal geographic and cultural context of both earliest Christianity and rabbinic Judaism In these papers ancient Galilee emerges as a dynamic region of continuous change in which religion ethnicity and identity were not static monoliths but had to be negotiated in the context of a multiform environment subject to different influences
