Silent Revolution In Africa:

The Silent Revolution in Africa Fantu Cheru, 1989 South Africa's Silent Revolution John Kane-Berman, 1991

Africa's Quiet Revolution Observed from Nigeri Dominic Okereke, 2012-07 This book prescribes rapid revolution in principal sectors of this African economy through radical paradigm changes And the resultant comprehensive transformation will guarantee significantly higher productivities and double digit annual economic growth Included in this paradigm shift is the joint reindustrialization of the African economy and the US ailing industries via a new Strategic trans Atlantic Alliance modeled on the balanced Euro US cooperation after World War II But it first takes readers through a thorough evaluation of the familiar subject corruption which haunts Nigeria the principal economy in the continent The fundamental difference with other texts on the subject is that this book identifies the most debilitating variant of that corruption That variant causes massive capital flight from a post colonial soft economy that is neither capitalist nor socialist The Nigerian corruption thrives on the native Philosophy of Commission hardened by intractable tribalism that coagulated and ossified with the imports substitution pattern preferred by European firms since independence The book then proceeds to earn its priced revolutionary credential by inventing very novel scientific methods that will skillfully turn this insidious source of structural rigidity and arrested development into a force for economic growth A new apex political leadership culture is recommended and to be fortified with a unifying lingua franca An inter ethnic marriage melting pot is advised for intensified nigerianization of Nigerian youths at birth Spiritual diversity is envisaged to significantly diminish religious intolerance and sectarian violence Modern bureaucracy and inward looking tourism are reformulated to reduce effervescent insecurity and minimize capital flight The resultant economic stability will enlarge domestic foreign investment inflow and will reverse the current dis industrialization and massive job loss and the conditions of under full employment Technological Functionalism Economic pan Africanism and the Alternative Policy of Inputs Substitution are among the several brand new blueprints that this book offers for the extensive transformation of Africa s economy into the robust emerging economy that will rival its counterparts in India and China in the immediate future People Power in an Era of Global Crisis Barry K. Gills, Kevin

Gray, 2013-10-31 A quarter of a century has now passed since the historic popular uprising that led to the overthrow of the Ferdinand Marcos dictatorship in the Philippines The mass movement known as the People Power Revolution was not only pivotal to the democratic transition within the Philippines but it also became an inspiration for subsequent mass movements leading to further democratic transitions throughout the Third World and in the former Communist bloc in Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union However the neoliberal economic policies subsequently pursued by newly democratic governments throughout the Third World led all but the most celebratory observers to note the constrained and limited nature of these formal political transitions This volume poses the question of the extent to which people power has been able to play an active role resisting neoliberalism and deepen substantive democracy and social justice Through a series of case studies of the regions and individual countries of Asia Africa Latin America and Eastern Europe the contributions in the volume provide a new set of original and in depth critical assessments of the nature of the longer term impact of the democratic transitions commencing in the 1980s and continuing until the present and questioning their impact and potential influence on human dignity freedom justice and self determination and thus opening new avenues of enquiry into the future of democracy This book was originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly Resources under Regimes Paul R. JOSEPHSON, Paul R Josephson, 2009-06-30 Democratic or authoritarian every society needs clean air and water every state must manage its wildlife and natural resources In this provocative comparative study Josephson asks to what extent the form of a government and its economy centrally planned or market colonial or post colonial determines how politicians bureaucrats scientists engineers and industrialists address environmental and social problems presented by the transformation of nature into a humanized landscape Religion Today Ross Aden, Chris A. Kramer, 2024-07-02 Religion Today introduces students to key concepts in religious studies through a compelling problem solving framework Each chapter opens with a contemporary case study that helps students engage in current religious issues explore possible solutions to difficult religious problems today and learn key themes and concepts in religious studies To enhance student learning a free Student Study Guide is available for download from Rowman Littlefield The Study Guide features chapter summaries definition quizzes for students to test themselves on key terms and possible learning activities Fidel Castro and Africa's Liberation Struggle Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Charity Manyeruke, 2020-10-01 The post 1959 Cuban government's engagement with Africa which was led by its charismatic and revolutionary leader Fidel Castro had two connecting dimensions military internationalism and humanitarian internationalism While African states and societies benefited immensely from these engagements it was Fidel Castro's military assistance towards the decolonization of and the pushback of Apartheid South Africa that received the loudest attention and ovation in the developing world Fidel Castro this book argues was never motivated by economic selfish or geopolitical considerations but rather by the altruism and the certainty of his worldview and by the historical connection between the peoples of Cuba and Africa The principle of international solidary socialism and the emancipation of Africa was a much desired aspiration and attainment Beginning covertly in Algeria in 1961 and the Congo and Guinea Bissau in 1964 and more conspicuously in Angola in 1975 Fidel Castro and his socialist government was at the forefront supporting liberation movements in their struggle against colonialism Defining Castro's engagement with Africa was his support for the People's Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA against the United States backed Apartheid South Africa which supported the National Liberation Front of Angola FNLA and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola UNITA Race, Ethnicity and Gender in Education Joseph Zajda, Kassie Freeman, 2010-03-23 Race Ethnicity and Gender in Education Cross cultural which is the sixth volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research presents scholarly research on major discourses of race

Eastern and Southern Africa Debby Potts, T.A.S. Bowyer-Bower, 2016-02-04 A unique and comprehensive introduction to contemporary development issues in East and Southern Africa and represents a significant departure from the often descriptive approach adopted by existing regional and development texts on African regions Each contribution is carefully chosen to highlight the theoretical basis to development issues and the practical problems of implementing development plans in this vital subregion Overall this produces comprehensive and balanced coverage of historical economic political and social issues The twin issues of globalisation and modernisation give the book a clear focus

Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa's population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic and political change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of declining urban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author's longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens' livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the reinvention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King's College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub

Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985
