Hooked Rugs Cynthia Fowler, 2017-07-05 Through a close look at the history of the modernist hooked rug this book raises important questions about the broader history of American modernism in the first half of the twentieth century Although hooked rugs are not generally associated with the avant garde this study demonstrates that they were a significant part of the artistic production of many artists engaged in modernist experimentation Cynthia Fowler discusses the efforts of Ralph Pearson and of Zoltan and Rosa Hecht to establish modernist hooked rug industries in the 1920s uncovering a previously undocumented history The book includes a consideration of the rural workers used to create the modernist narrative of the hooked rug as cottage industries were established throughout the rural Northeast and South to serve the ever increasing demand for hooked rugs by urban consumers Fowler closely examines institutional enterprises that highlighted and engaged the modernist hooked rugs such as key exhibitions at the Museum of Modern Art and the Metropolitan Museum of Art in the 1930s and 40s This study reveals the fluidity of boundaries among art craft and design and the profound efforts of a devoted group of modernists to introduce the general public to the value of modern art

The Grenfell Medical Mission Jennifer J. Connor, Katherine Side, 2019-01-30 Dr Wilfred Grenfell physician and folk hero recruited thousands of volunteer workers for his Newfoundland and Labrador seamen s mission many of them Americans from Ivy League institutions As the medical mission grew to become the International Grenfell Association establishing institutions along the Labrador and northern Newfoundland coasts Americans also became resident staff leaders in the region and Grenfell himself married an American Anne MacClanahan who led mission activities The Grenfell Medical Mission and American Support in Newfoundland and Labrador 1890s 1940s reveals the nature and extent of support from Americans throughout the distributed privately run social enterprise until the 1940s before the region joined Canada Essays explore the organization s claims to share an Anglo Saxon heritage with the United States American reaction to its financial scandal and creation of an incorporated association its promotion of sport and masculinity and the development of education and schools in the region and the mission The organization s strong ties to the United States are exemplified by Grenfell s friendship with American physician John Harvey Kellogg the donation of clothing from American donors the work of one American woman on her affiliated mission unit the impact of American philanthropy and training on the construction of the mission's main hospital in St Anthony and the superior American accredited health care facilities and their clinical achievements From its corporate base in New York City the International Grenfell Association blended contemporary social movements and adopted American notions of philanthropy The Grenfell Medical Mission and American Support in Newfoundland and Labrador 1890s 1940s offers the first thorough history of an iconic health and social organization in Atlantic Canada

New Materials Amy E. Slaton, Scott Gabriel Knowles, Sharon Tsai-hsuan Ku, Projit Bihari Mukharji, Rafico Ruiz, Tiago Saraiva, Karen Senaga, Darin Hayton, José Torero, Patryk Wasiak, 2020-10-01 This edited volume gathers eight cases of industrial materials development broadly conceived from North America Europe and Asia over the last 200 years Whether given utility as building parts fabrics pharmaceuticals or foodstuffs whether seen by their proponents as human made or found in nature materials result from the designation of some matter as both knowable and worth knowing about In following these determinations we learn that the production of physical novelty under industrial imperial and other cultural conditions has historically accomplished a huge range of social effects from accruals of status and wealth to demarcations of bodies and geographies Among other cases New Materials traces the beneficent self identity of Quaker asylum planners who devised soundless metal cell locks in the early 19th century and the inculcation of national pride attending Taiwanese carbon fiber bicycle parts in the 21st the racialized labor organizations promoted by California orange breeders in the 1910s and bureaucratized distributions of blame for deadly high rise fires a century later Across eras and global regions New Materials reflects circumstances not made clear when technological innovation is explained solely as a by product of modernizing impulses or critiqued simply as a craving for profit Whether establishing the efficacy of nano scale pharmaceuticals or the tastiness of farmed catfish proponents of new materials enact complex political ideologies In highlighting their actors conceptions of efficiency certainty safety pleasure pain faith and identity the authors reveal that to produce a new material is invariably to preserve other things to sustain existing values and social structures

Slow Disturbance Rafico Ruiz, 2021-03-22 From the late nineteenth through most of the twentieth century the evangelical Protestant Grenfell Mission in Newfoundland and Labrador Canada created a network of hospitals schools orphanages stores and industries with the goal of bringing health and organized society to settler fisherfolk and Indigenous populations This infrastructure also served to support resource extraction of fisheries off Labrador's coast In Slow Disturbance Rafico Ruiz engages with the Grenfell Mission to theorize how settler colonialism establishes itself through what he calls infrastructural mediation the ways in which colonial lifeworlds subjectivities and affects come into being through the creation and maintenance of infrastructures Drawing on archival documents maps interviews with municipal officials teachers and residents as well as his field photography Ruiz shows how the mission's infrastructural mediation from its attempts to restructure the local economy to the aerial surveying and mapping of the coastline responded to the colony's environmental conditions in ways that expanded the bounds of the settler frontier By tracing the mission's history and the mechanisms that enabled its functioning Ruiz complicates understandings of mediation and infrastructure while expanding current debates surrounding settler colonialism and extractive capitalism "Craft, Community and the Material Culture of Place and Politics, 19th-20th Century" Janice Helland, 2017-07-05 Craft practice has a rich history and remains vibrant sustaining communities while negotiating cultures within local or international contexts More than two centuries of industrialization have not extinguished handmade goods rather the broader force of industrialization has redefined and continues to define the context of creation deployment and use of craft objects With object study at the core this book brings together a collection of essays that address the past and present of craft production its use and meaning within a range of community settings from the Huron Wendat of colonial Quebec to the Girls Friendly Society of twentieth century England The making of handcrafted objects has and continues to flourish despite the powerful juggernaut of global industrialization whether inspired by a calculated refutation of industrial sameness an essential means to sustain a cultural community under threat or a rejection of the imposed definitions by a dominant culture The broader effects of urbanizing imperial and globalizing projects shape the multiple contexts of interaction and resistance that can define craft ventures through place and time By attending to the political histories of craft objects and their makers over the last few centuries these essays reveal the creative persistence of various hand mediums and the material debates they represented Atlantis, 2005 The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts Gordon Campbell, 2006-11-09 The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts covers thousands of years of decorative arts production throughout western and non western culture With over 1 000 entries as well as hundreds drawn from the 34 volume Dictionary of Art this topical collection is a valuable resource for those interested in the history practice and mechanics of the decorative arts Accompanied by almost 100 color and more than 500 black and white illustrations the 1 290 pages of this title include hundreds of entries on artists and craftsmen the qualities and historic uses of materials as well as concise definitions on art forms and style Explore the works of Alvar Aalto Charles and Ray Eames and the Wiener Werkstatte or delve into the history of Navajo blankets and wing chairs in thousands of entries on artists craftsmen designers workshops and decorative art forms
