peopled by the damaged the neglected and the depraved Julian Murphet appraises the career of the controversial if increasingly ignored indie film auteur Through close readings and a discussion with the director Murphet dissects how Solondz s themes and techniques serve stories laden with hot button topics like pedophilia rape and family and systemic cruelty Solondz s uncompromising return to the same motifs stylistic choices and characters reject any idea of aesthetic progression Instead he embraces an art of diminishing returns that satirizes the laws of valuation sustaining what we call cinema It also reflects both Solondz s declining box office fortunes and the changing economics of independent film in an era of financial contraction
