How to Cope with Losing Your Pet from A to Z Ellen Gerst, 2020-11-22 Thom Jones wrote Dogs have a way of finding the people who need them and filling an emptiness we didn't ever know we had Consequently when your pet dies you are left with an empty hole in your life and in your heart It is important and natural to grieve your great loss for your pet filled your life with unconditional love and pure joy and you will miss your faithful companion That's the only downside of owning a pet they leave us too soon If you've been lucky enough to not have experienced loss in your life up to now you may not know how to mourn in a healthy manner You just know that you feel terrible but you don't know how to climb out of the dark hole in which you find yourself How To Cope With Losing Your Pet will help you to adjust your perspective so that you may see there are brighter days ahead While the book explains the various emotions you might experience after the loss of your pet you may want to tuck this book away to revisit one day if and when you lose a human loved one There are universal truths about dying death loss and grief whether it is a beloved furry friend or a person you are mourning No matter who it is love is love And we miss the ones we love and who loved us back Visit the author's website at <http://www.LNGerst.com> for more information on grief For tips on coping with grief visit <http://www.pinterest.com>
