Losing Our Minds Gifted Children Left Behind:

Losing Our Minds Deborah L. Ruf, 2005 Wouldn't it be a disgrace if we lost the brightest students now attending our nation's schools Dr Deborah L Ruf establishes that there are far more highly gifted children than previously imagined yet large numbers of very bright children are never discovered by their schools Using 78 gifted and highly gifted children as her examples she illustrates five levels of giftedness Parents will be able to estimate which of the five levels of giftedness their child fits by comparing their own child's developmental milestones to those of the children described in the book This book contains practical advice for parents including how to find a school that works for your child Book jacket How to Parent So Children Will Learn Sylvia B. Rimm, 2021-04-23 Dr Rimm provides practical compassionate no nonsense advice for raising happy secure and productive children from preschool to college This book contains easy to follow parent pointers sample dialogues and step by step examples to show parents how to select appropriate rewards and punishments decrease arguments and power struggles set limits nurture creativity encourage appropriate independence without giving children too much power guide children toward good study habits and much more Parents will refer to the topics in this book again and again Talented Children and Adults Jane Piirto, 2021-09-03 This third edition of the widely popular Talented Children and Adults Their Development and Education has been revised to include the most up to date information on talent development Written by a nationally recognized author in the field of gifted education this textbook explores the factors that encourage talent development from birth through adulthood with specific chapters focusing on children from birth to age 2 elementary and middle school students high school and college students and adults Talented Children and Adults includes information for identifying talented students developing programs for these students identifying creativity and creating appropriate curricula The book also addresses counseling and guidance for talented students as well as underserved populations Each chapter begins with a vignette and case studies from students and educators in the field are included at the end of each chapter This book is a must read for anyone who works with talented children and adults Life with Gifted Children Wendy Skinner, 2020-07-01 Double Award Winner When her seven year old son showed his understanding of the concept of infinity while talking about how zebras all have their own unique patterns of stripes Wendy Skinner knew that he was going to need something more stimulating than the regular school program her son's gifted intellect and advanced talents were going to be a challenge In this book Skinner shares her family's story of struggle and eventual success in working with the school system trying out various educational options to meet her children's needs Enlightening anecdotes of the author's experiences and discussions of a variety of educational approaches help parents reading this book discover effective strategies for minimizing parent school conflict Learn how to build trusting relationships with teachers and administrators as well as how your voice can influence school decisions that will allow your gifted child to learn and thrive The Cluster Grouping Handbook Dina Brulles, Susan Winebrenner, 2020-12-16 Definitive resource for implementing sustaining and evaluating schoolwide cluster grouping fully revised and expanded In today's standards driven era how can teachers motivate and challenge gifted students and ensure that all students reach their potential This book provides a compelling answer the Schoolwide Cluster Grouping Model The authors explain how the model differs from grouping practices of the past and they present a roadmap for implementing sustaining and evaluating schoolwide cluster grouping Readers will find a wealth of teacher tested classroom strategies along with detailed information on identifying gifted students for clusters gaining support from parents and providing ongoing professional development to teachers and other staff The new edition offers identification and placement guidance for a wide variety of student ages and populations directs special attention toward empowering gifted English language learners shows teachers how to use the Depth of Knowledge framework to differentiate learning tasks offers new ideas for integrating technology into both professional development and student learning The Cluster Grouping Handbook offers a guide for schools to create a workable defensible gifted program to simplify teachers jobs and to maximize learning for all students Digital content includes customizable forms from the book and a PDF presentation a free PLC Book Study Guide is also available

Cheating, Dishonesty, and Manipulation Kate Maupin, M.A.,2020-01-01 Why do bright kids cheat lie and manipulate What can you do about it More than 80% of bright students self reported that they had cheated in an academic setting and had never been caught Bright children try to manipulate parents and teachers for many reasons boredom a lack of appropriate challenges a need to fit in fear of failure or simply avoiding responsibility Kate Maupin addresses symptoms underlying causes and how to address roots of the problem rather than simple punishment so that children do not become repeat offenders She also discusses ways to build honesty and confidence so that children can become self sufficient life long learners who no longer feel a need to resort to cheating dishonesty or manipulation

Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners Carrie J. Boden,Kathleen P. King,2013-10-01 Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners is the second volume in a series of scholarly publications associated with the annual Adult Higher Education Alliance AHEA The Alliance conference The title of this volume derived from the theme of the 2012 conference co sponsored by American Association of Adult and Continuing Education AAACE in Las Vegas NV encompasses significant issues and questions at the forefront of the field of adult education At the conference scholars practitioners and adult educators gave presentations and received feedback on some of the most significant and timely issues in their praxis The Alliance which values collaboration transformative dialogue and collegiality among professionals considers this volume a continuation of those conversations as the presentations were expanded into chapters We are glad that you are joining the conversation This volume confirms not only that adult learning higher education and both fields of research have many contexts but also that there is so much more to learn about different perspectives and opportunities for research and practice Opportunities for symbiotic relationship abound We hope that Developing and Sustaining Adult Learners will be a book that you pull off your bookshelf or open in your e reader often We know that as we engage in program and course planning design and teaching
