Loss Of Sexual Innocence

James Berardinelli

Loss Of Sexual Innocence:

Loss of Sexual Innocence Mike Figgis, 2012-10-04 Mike Figgis's Loss of Sexual Innocence is a fascinating fusion of stories, dreams, images, and music. The film is a meditation on the process of growing up and the inevitable loss of innocence this entails. The central image is the expulsion of Adam and Eve from the Garden of Eden, and as in all of Mike Figgis's work, the focus is upon the passionate and often troublesome nature of relationships between men and women. The film was shot in Italy, Tunisia, and Figgis's native Newcastle on the lowest of imaginable budgets. In an introduction to the screenplay, Figgis describes how he brought off this remarkable task.

The Loss of Sexual Innocence Mike Figgis, The Loss of Sexual Innocence is a free-wheeling rumination on eroticism and the myth of Eden from the writer-director of Leaving Las Vegas.

Reel Views 2 James Berardinelli, 2005 Thoroughly revised and updated for 2005. Includes a new chapter on the best special edition DVDs and a new chapter on finding hidden easter egg features.

Global Scriptwriting Ken Dancyger, 2013-06-26 Global Scriptwriting offers a look at an exciting new phase in screen storytelling as writers and directors from all over the world infuse traditional forms with their own cultural values to create stories that have an international appeal and suggest a universality among readers, viewers, and listeners. A unique blend of screenwriting technique and film studies, Global Scriptwriting discusses screen stories as they have evolved through the years, focusing first on the basics of scriptwriting, then going on to afford a more sophisticated look at script via different models of scriptwriting: the Hollywood model, the independent model, the national model, and various alternative models. It examines the internationalization of storytelling and illustrates how particular innovations have helped national screen stories to international success. This book is the first to incorporate the basics of the classical form with the innovative edge of the last decade, as well as the culture-specific changes that have taken place outside of North America. It offers readers a view of the enriched repertoire available to writers resulting from the introduction of cultural perspectives into traditional story forms. Specific topics examined include the ascent of voice, the search for new forms, the struggle between style and content, and the centrality of megagenre.

It's My Life Now Meg Kennedy Dugan, Roger R. Hock, 2013-08-21 Those who have never experienced an abusive or violent relationship often believe that upon finding a way out, victims' difficulties are solved, their life is good, they are safe, and recovery will be swift. However, survivors know that leaving is not the end of the nightmare; it is the beginning of an often difficult and challenging journey toward healing and happiness. It's My Life Now offers readers the practical guidance, emotional reassurance, and psychological awareness that survivors of relationship abuse and domestic violence need to heal and reclaim their lives after leaving their abusers. Since its publication in 2000, It's My Life Now has been highly successful as a working manual for survivors who are starting their lives over after an abusive relationship. This valuable book combines direction on practical and emotional issues with worksheets and self-exploration exercises. Now in the second edition, Dugan and Hock include updated information and resources while encompassing a wider range of individuals and the relationships in which abuse and violence occur The new edition also provides a new emphasis on safety assessment which has increasingly been shown to be a critical factor in recovery In addition this new edition includes current resources and information about organizations for victims along with revised and enhanced strategies to help survivors move forward on the path of recovery TLA Video & DVD Guide 2005 David Bleiler,2004-10 This 2005 edition of the annual
