Lost Mother:

The Lost Mother Anne Summers, 2010 My mother had just turned ten in mid 1933 when a young woman approached her as they were both leaving Mass at St Joan of Arc s in Brighton The woman was an artist and she would like to paint her portrait After her mother s death in 2005 Anne Summers inherits a portrait of her mother as a child Mesmerised by this image she finds herself drawn into the story of how the portrait was painted and eventually found its way into her family She soon learns the artist painted another portrait of her mother this time as the Madonna In a gripping narrative that is part art history part detective story and part meditation on the relations between mothers and daughters Anne s search for the Madonna painting and the mysterious Russian migr collector who bought both paintings takes her down unexpected paths Her search soon turns into a parallel quest to rescue Constance Stokes the artist from obscurity and to learn why the collector suddenly abandoned the paintings Along the way Anne finds she must face the truth of the relationship she had with her mother In turn hypnotic and moving The Lost Mother is a powerful exploration of art loss and love The Dead Mother Gregorio Kohon, 1999 This collection of essays explore the concept of the dead mother which refers to the process of mourning that takes place in the child following maternal depression when the child experiences the loss of love The Finding of Martha Lost Caroline Wallace, 2016-03-10 Liverpool 1976 Martha is lost She s been lost since she was a baby abandoned in a suitcase on the train from Paris Ever since she s waited in lost property for someone to claim her It s been sixteen years but she s still hopeful Meanwhile there are lost property mysteries to solve a suitcase that may have belonged to the Beatles a stuffed monkey that keeps appearing But there is one mystery Martha has never been able to solve and now time is running out If Martha can t discover who she really is she will lose everything A Queer Mother for the Nation Licia Fiol-Matta, A Queer Mother for the Nation weaves a nuanced understanding of how Gabriela Mistral 1889 1957 the first Latin American to win the Nobel Prize for Literature cooperated with authority and fashioned herself as the figure of Motherhood in collaboration with the state Over her dead body Elisabeth Bronfen, 2017-06-01 In 1846 Edgar Allen Poe wrote that the death of a beautiful woman is unquestionably the most poetic topic in the world The conjunction of death art and femininity forms a rich and disturbing strata of Western culture explored here in fascinating detail by Elisabeth Bronfen Her examples range from Carmen to Little Nell from Wuthering Heights to Vertigo from Snow White to Frankenstein The text is richly illustrated throughout with thirty seven paintings and photographs An Introduction to Criticism Michael Ryan, 2012-02-13 An accessible and thorough introduction to literary theory and contemporary critical practice this book is an essential resource for beginning students of literary criticism Covers traditional approaches such as formalism and structuralism as well as more recent developments in criticism such as evolutionary theory cognitive studies ethical criticism and ecocriticism Offers explanations of key works and major ideas in literary criticism and suggests key elements to look for in a literary text Also applies critical approaches to various examples from film studies Helps students to build a critical framework and write analytically Fraser's Magazine for Town and Country James Anthony Froude, John Tulloch, 1848

Andrea O'Reilly, 2012-02-01 Traces Morrison's theory of African American mothering as it is articulated in her novels, essays, speeches, and interviews. Mothering is a central issue for feminist theory and motherhood is also a persistent presence in the work of Toni Morrison. Examining Morrison's novels, essays, speeches, and interviews, Andrea O'Reilly illustrates how Morrison builds upon black women's experiences of and perspectives on motherhood to develop a view of black motherhood that is in terms of both maternal identity and role radically different from motherhood as practiced and prescribed in the dominant culture. Motherhood in Morrison's view is fundamentally and profoundly an act of resistance, essential and integral to black women's fight against racism and sexism and their ability to achieve well-being for themselves and their culture. The power of motherhood and the empowerment of mothering are what make possible the better world we seek for ourselves and for our children. This argues O'Reilly is Morrison's maternal theory, a politics of the heart. As an advocate of a politics of the heart, O'Reilly has an acute insight into discerning any threat to the preservation and continuation of traditional African American womanhood and values. Above all, Toni Morrison and Motherhood, based on Andrea O'Reilly's methodical research on Morrison's works as well as feminist critical resources, proffers a useful basis for understanding Toni Morrison's works. It certainly contributes to exploring in detail Morrison's rich and complex works, notable from the perspectives of nurturing and sustaining African American maternal tradition. African American Review: O'Reilly boldly reconfigures hegemonic western notions of motherhood while maintaining dialogues across cultural differences. Journal of the Association for Research on Mothering: Andrea O'Reilly examines Morrison's complex presentations of and theories about motherhood with admirable rigor and a refusal to simplify, and the result is one of the most penetrating and insightful studies of Morrison yet to appear. A book that will prove invaluable to any scholar, teacher, or reader of Morrison. South Atlantic Review: it serves as a sort of annotated bibliography of nearly all the major theoretical work on motherhood and on Morrison as an author; anyone conducting serious study of either Toni Morrison or motherhood, not to mention the combination, should read this book. O'Reilly's exhaustive research, her facility with theories of Anglo-American and Black feminism, and her penetrating analyses of Morrison's works result in a highly useful scholarly read. Literary Mama: By tracing both the metaphor and literal practice of mothering in Morrison's literary world, O'Reilly conveys Morrison's vision of motherhood as an act of resistance. American Literature: Motherhood is critically important as a recurring theme in Toni Morrison's oeuvre and within black feminist and feminist scholarship. An in-depth analysis of this central concern is necessary in order to explore the complex disjunction between Morrison's interviews, which praise black mothering, and the fiction, which presents mothers in various destructive and self-destructive modes. Kudos to Andrea O'Reilly for illuminating Morrison's maternal standpoint and helping readers and critics understand this difficult terrain. Toni Morrison and Motherhood is also valuable as a resource that addresses and synthesizes a huge body of secondary literature Nancy Gerber author of Portrait of the Mother Artist Class and Creativity in Contemporary American Fiction In addition to presenting a penetrating and original reading of Toni Morrison O Reilly integrates the evolving scholarship on motherhood in dominant and minority cultures in a review that is both a composite of commonalities and a clear representation of differences Elizabeth Bourque Johnson University of Minnesota Andrea O Reilly is Associate Professor in the School of Women s Studies at York University and President of the Association for Research on Mothering She is the author and editor of several books on mothering including with Sharon Abbey Mothers and Daughters Connection Empowerment and Transformation and Mothers and Sons Feminism Masculinity and the Struggle to Raise Our Sons
