The Ends of Literature Brett Levinson, 2001 The Ends of Literature analyzes the part played by literature within contemporary Latin American thought and politics above all the politics of neoliberalism. The why of contemporary Latin American literature is the book's overarching concern. Its wide range includes close readings of the prose of Cortázar, Carpentier, Paz, Valenzuela, Piglia, and Las Casas of the relationship of the Boom movement and its aftermath of testimonial narrative and of contemporary Chilean and Chicano film. The work also investigates in detail various theoretical projects as they intersect with and emerge from Latin American scholarship, cultural studies, deconstruction, psychoanalysis, and postcolonial studies. Latin American literature both as a vehicle of conservatism and as an agent of subversion is bound from its inception to the rise of the state. Literature's nature, role, and status are therefore altered when the Latin American nation-state succumbs to the process of neoliberalism as the too strong state dictatorship yields to the too weak state, the market, and as the various practices of civil society and public life are replaced by private or privatized endeavors. However, neither the end of literature nor the end of the state can be assumed. The end of literature in Latin America is in fact the call for more literature; it is the call of literature in particular that of the Boom. The end of the state likewise is the demand upon this state. The book then analyzes the ends in question as at once their purpose, direction, future, and conclusion. Also key to the study is the notion of transition. Within much recent Latin American political discussion, la transición refers to the passage from dictatorship to democracy as well as to the failure of this shift, the failure of post-dictatorship. The author argues that the movement from literary to cultural studies while issuing from intellectual and aesthetic circles is an integral component of this same transition. The thematization of the bond between these two displacements, hence of Latin America's voyage into post-transition, forms a fundamental portion of the text.

Twentieth-century Spanish American literature to 1960 David William Foster, Daniel Altamiranda, 1997. Meets the needs of today's teachers and students. Gathered to meet the upsurge of interest in Latin America, this collection features major critical articles dealing with the authors and texts customarily taught in colleges and universities in the United States. The articles are in English and Spanish with a predominance of the former. Surveys a dynamic and exciting area of research. Four Latin American writers have won the Nobel Prize for Literature: Guatemalan Miguel Ángel Asturias, Chilean Gabriela Mistral, Colombian Gabriel García Márquez, and Chilean Pablo Neruda. Also internationally recognized are the Argentine Jorge Luis Borges, the Mexican Carlos Fuentes, and the Chilean Isabel Allende, to name only a few. Moreover, the sociopolitical circumstances of the past four decades of Latin American history and the growing importance of the region have resulted in the creation of Latin American studies programs in numerous American universities. All of this literary activity has inspired innumerable dissertations, theses, books, and journal articles. Explores contemporary Latin American issues and concerns. In the face of such an enormous proliferation of commentary, students of Latin America and its literature need a body of basic texts that will provide them an orientation in the various research areas and new schools of thought that have emerged in the field. Particularly important are the essays and articles that have appeared in periodicals and other sources that Anglo-American readers often find difficult to obtain. Individual

Displaying Reciprocity Jun Xu, 2016-10-03 This book is intended to address students researchers and teachers of spoken language It presents an empirical study of task oriented language data in which coparticipants display levels of reciprocity through reactive tokens An in depth investigation of displaying reciprocity is of interest primarily to conversation analysts and pragmatics involved in the research on talk in interaction in general and Mandarin Chinese conversations in particular The communicative aspect makes this book relevant to the areas of language use While previous research has shown that one single reactive token has different discourse functions in different conversational environments this study shows that participants collaborative orientation to each other s status of displayed reciprocity seems decisive for the selection of reactive tokens rather than one specific reactive token being employed for specific conversational purposes in varying interactional contexts This book also contributes to fields in linguistics pragmatics and sociology which specialize in the investigation of spontaneous human communication

Improvised Continent Richard Cándida Smith, 2017-08-25 How does a country in the process of becoming a world power prepare its citizens for the responsibilities of global leadership In Improvised Continent Richard C ndida Smith answers this question by illuminating the forgotten story of how over the course of the twentieth century cultural exchange programs some run by the government and others by philanthropies and major cultural institutions brought many of the most important artists and writers of Latin America to live and work in the United States Improvised Continent is the first book to focus on cultural exchange inside the United States and how Americans responded to Latin American writers and artists Moving masterfully between the history of ideas biography institutional history and politics and international relations and engaging works in French German Spanish and Portuguese C ndida Smith synthesizes over seventy years of Pan American cultural activity in the United States The stories behind Diego Rivera s murals the movies of Alejandro G I rritu the poetry of Gabriela Mistral the photography of Genevieve Naylor and the novels of Carlos Fuentes these works and artists along with many others challenged U S citizens about their place in the world and about the kind of global relations the country s interests could allow Improvised Continent provides a profoundly compassionate portrayal of the Latin American artists and writers who believed their practices might create a more humane world

Sacred Surrealism, Dissidence and International Avant-Garde Prose Vivienne Brough-Evans, 2016-05-05 Vivienne Brough Evans proposes a compelling new way of reevaluating aspects of international surrealism by means of the category of divin fou and consequently deploys theories of sacred ecstasy as developed by the Coll ge de Sociologie 1937 39 as a critical tool in shedding new light on the literary oeuvre of non French writers who worked both within and against a surrealist framework The minor surrealist genre of prose literature is considered herein rather than surrealism s mainstay poetry with the intention of fracturing preconceptions regarding the medium of surrealist expression The aim is to explore whether International surrealism can begin to be more fully explained by an occluded strain of dissident surrealist thought that searches outside the self through the affects of ekstasis Bretonian surrealism is widely discussed in the field of surrealist studies and there is a need to consider what is left out of surrealist practice when analysed through this Bretonian lens The Coll ge de Sociologie and Georges Bataille s theories provide a model of such elements of dissident surrealism which is used to analyse surrealist or surrealist influenced prose by Alejo Carpentier Leonora Carrington and Gellu Naum respectively representing postcolonial feminist and Balkan locutions The Coll ge and Bataille s dissident surrealism diverges significantly from the concerns and approach towards the subject explored by surrealism Using the concept of ekstasis to organise Bataille s theoretical ideas of excess and inner experience and the Coll ge s thoughts on the sacred it is possible to propose a new way of reading types of International surrealist literature many of which do not come to the forefront of the surrealist literary oeuvre

The Walker Matthew Beaumont, 2020-11-10 From Charles Dickens London to today s megacities a fascinating exploration of what urban walking tells us about modern life for fans of Rebecca Solnit Olivia Laing s The Lonely City and literary history A labyrinthine journey into the literature of walking and thinking as seen in the lives and works of Edgar Allan Poe Virginia Woolf Ray Bradbury and other literary greats Guardian There is no such thing as a false step Every time we walk we are going somewhere Especially if we are going nowhere Moving around the modern city is not a way of getting from A to B but of understanding who and where we are In a series of riveting intellectual rambles Matthew Beaumont retraces episodes in the history of the walker since the mid 19th century From Dickens s insomniac night rambles to restless excursions through the faceless monuments of today s neoliberal city the act of walking is one of self discovery and self escape of disappearances and secret subversions Pacing stride for stride alongside literary amblers and thinkers such as Edgar Allan Poe Andr Breton H G Wells Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys and Ray Bradbury Beaumont explores the relationship between the metropolis and its pedestrian life Through these writings Beaumont asks Can you get lost in a crowd What are the consequences of using your smartphone in the street What differentiates the nocturnal metropolis from the city of daylight What connects walking philosophy and the big toe And can we save the city or ourselves by taking to the pavement

Experimental Robotics Oussama Khatib, Vijay Kumar, George Pappas, 2009-04-22 By the dawn of the new millennium robotics has undergone a major transformation in scope and dimensions This expansion has been brought about by the maturity of the field and the advances in its related technologies From a largely dominant industrial focus robotics has been rapidly expanding into the challenges of the human world The new generation of robots is expected to safely and dependably co habitat with humans in homes workplaces and communities providing support in services entertainment education healthcare manufacturing and assistance Beyond its impact on physical robots the body of knowledge robotics has produced is revealing a much wider range of applications reaching across diverse research areas and scientific disciplines such as biomechanics haptics neurosciences virtual simulation animation surgery and sensor networks among others In return the challenges of the new emerging areas are proving an abundant source of stimulation and insights for the field of robotics It is indeed at the intersection of disciplines that the most striking advances happen The goal of the series of Springer Tracts in Advanced Robotics STAR is to bring in a timely fashion the latest advances and developments in robotics on the basis of their significance and quality It is our hope that the wider dissemination of research developments will stimulate more exchanges and collaborations among the research community and contribute to further advancement of this rapidly growing field

Philosophers' Walks Bruce Baugh, 2021-11-29 Nietzsche Kierkegaard Virginia Woolf Samuel Taylor Coleridge Andr Breton Rousseau Simone de Beauvoir who could imagine a better group of walking companions In this engaging and invigorating book Bruce Baugh takes us on a philosophical tour following in the footsteps and thoughts of some great philosophers and thinkers How does walking reveal space and place and provide a heightened sense of embodied consciousness Can walking in Andr Breton's footsteps enable us to remember Breton's experiences A chapter on Sartre and Beauvoir investigates walking in relation to anxiety and our different ways of responding to our bodies Walking in the Quantocks Baugh seeks out the connection between Coleridge's walking and his poetic imagination With Rousseau and Nietzsche he examines the link between solitary mountain walks and great thoughts with Kierkegaard he looks at the urban flâneur and the disjunction between outward appearances and spiritual inwardness Finally in Sussex and London Baugh explores how Virginia Woolf transposed a Romantic nature pantheism to London in Mrs Dalloway Philosophers Walks provides a fresh and imaginative reading of great philosophers offering a new way of understanding some of their major works and ideas

Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America Jerónimo Arellano, 2015-05-21 Iconoclastic in spirit Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions in Latin America is the first study of affect and emotion in magical realist literature Against the grain of a vast body of scholarship it argues that magical realism is neither exotic commodity nor postcolonial resistance but an art form fueled by a search for spaces of wonder in a disenchanted world Linking the rise and fall of magical realism and kindred narrative forms to the shifting value of wonder as an emotional experience this thought provoking study proposes a radical new approach to canonical novels such as One Hundred Years of Solitude Received as one of the most convincing manifestations of the turn to affect in contemporary Latin American critical thought Magical Realism and the History of the Emotions draws on affect theory the history of emotions and new materialism to reframe key questions in Latin American literature and culture

Extreme Beauty James Swearingen, Joanne Cutting-Gray, 2003-01-01 What do we mean when we speak of beauty What do we experience Beauty is no longer the human experience of the harmonious object today an aesthetics of difference has revolutionised our ways of seeing the beautiful Now we live in a time of extreme beauty Extreme Beauty explores art literature politics and philosophy in order to illuminate how the concept and experience of beauty has changed The essays range from Hegel and Modernism to Marcel Duchamp and the Avant Garde postmodern poetics boredom and Proust the romance of Arendt and Heidegger fascism and the consumption of the flesh postcolonialism and imagination to Derrida and the glory and gift of death Studies and Essays on Romance Literatures Rodica Grigore,2025-05-17 Adopting the challenging perspective of Comparative Literature with respect to some important books of the 20th century this collection of essays embodies a symbolic journey trying to find some new and unexplored meanings of certain famous novels short stories or poems decoding images characters and plots in a particular way Covering a wide range of writers from the Romanian poet Lucian Blaga to the Portuguese Fernando Pessoa or from the rather unknown Romanian representative of the avant garde Urmuz to the great Latin American novelists Clarice Lispector Alejo Carpentier Julio Cort zar Gabriel Garc a M rquez or Guillermo Cabrera Infante the studies included in this volume re read some masterpieces of Romance literatures in the attempt to highlight the deep and often hidden truth of these authors great books This quest also tries to metaphorically cover the distance between the two sides of the Atlantic encompassing the initiatory experience often lived both by the above mentioned writers and their characters Embattled Avant-Gardes Walter L. Adamson,2007-11-06 Adamson leads his readers through intricate debates with care and skill Even the non specialist reader will come away with an understanding of the stakes in modernist studies Mary Gluck author of Popular Bohemia Modernism and Urban Culture in Nineteenth Century Paris No serious student of the European avant garde in the early twentieth century will be able to overlook this subtle and impassioned attempt to rethink its history its far reaching ambitions and its strategies for achieving them its successes and its failures Because of Adamson s distinctive perspective and the breadth of his research I persistently found myself being forced to rethink the history of the European avant garde and question some of my own assumptions and conclusions Robert Wohl author of The Spectacle of Flight Aviation and the Western Imagination 1920 1950 Afro-Greeks Emily Greenwood,2010-01-28 An exploration of the reception of Classics in the English speaking Caribbean Emily Greenwood argues that writers such as Kamau Brathwaite C L R James V S Naipaul and Derek Walcott have successfully adapted Classics to the cultural context of the Caribbean creating a distinctive tradition This is the Canon Joan Anim-Addo,Deirdre Osborne,Kadija Sesay,2021-10-28 A vital and timely introduction to some of the best books I ve ever read Perfectly curated and filled with brilliant literature Nikesh Shukla The ultimate introduction to post colonial literature for those who want to understand the classics and the pioneers in this exciting area of books Symeon Brown These are the books you should read This is the canon Joan Anim Addo Deirdre Osborne and Kadija Sesay have curated a decolonized reading list that celebrates the wide and diverse experiences of people from around the world of all backgrounds and all races It disrupts the all too often white dominated required reading collections that have become the accepted norm and highlights powerful voices and cultural perspectives that demand a place on our shelves From literary giants such as Toni Morrison and Chinua Achebe to less well known but equally vital writers such as Caribbean novelist Earl Lovelace or Indigenous Australian author Tony Birch the novels recommended here are in turn haunting and lyrical innovative and inspiring edgy and poignant The power of great fiction is that readers have the opportunity to discover new worlds and encounter other beliefs and opinions This is the Canon offers a rich and multifaceted perspective on our past present and future which deserves to be read by all bibliophiles whether they are book club members or solitary readers self educators or teachers

Latin American and Iberian Perspectives on Literature and Medicine Patricia Novillo-Corvalán, 2015-06-05 This is the first study to examine the representation of illness disability and cultural pathologies in modern and contemporary Iberian and Latin American literature Innovative and interdisciplinary the collection situates medicine as an important and largely overlooked discourse in these literatures while also considering the social political religious symbolic and metaphysical dimensions underpinning illness Investigating how Hispanic and Lusophone writers have reflected on the personal and cultural effects of illness it raises central questions about how medical discourses cultural pathologies and the art of healing in general are represented Essays pay particular attention to the ways in which these interdisciplinary dialogues chart new directions in the study of Hispanic and Lusophone cultures and emerging disciplines such as the medical humanities Addressing a wide range of themes and subjects including bioethics neuroscience psychosurgery medical technologies Darwinian evolution indigenous herbal medicine the rising genre of the pathography and the illness as metaphor trope the collection engages with the discourses of cultural studies gender studies disability studies comparative literature and the medical humanities This book enriches and stimulates scholarship in these areas by showing how much we still have to gain from interdisciplinary studies working at the intersections between the humanities and the sciences
