

The poster features a central illustration of a large, circular, stone-like structure with a face-like pattern, set against a backdrop of a city with colorful, vertical banners in red, blue, purple, and orange. In the foreground, two turtles are shown in a dynamic pose, one in a yellow and black suit and the other in a dark grey suit. To the right, a man in a blue jacket and a woman in a dark blue robe are standing near a body of water. The overall style is a blend of traditional Japanese art and modern comic book illustration.

Lost Years:

Ten Lost Years, 1929-1939 Barry Broadfoot, 2013-04-23 Hundreds of ordinary Canadians tell their own stories in this book They tell them in their own words and the impact is astonishing As page after page of unforgettable stories rolls by it is easy to see why this book sold 300 000 copies and why a successful stage play that ran for years was based on them The stories and the 52 accompanying photographs tell of an extraordinary time One tells how a greedy Maritime landlord ho tried to raise a widow s rent was tarred and gravelled another how rape by the boss was part of a waitress s job Other stories show Saskatchewan families watching their farms turn into deserts and walking away from them or freight trains black with hoboos clinging to them criss crossing the country in search of work or a man stealing a wreath for his own wife s funeral Throughout this portrait of the era before Canada had a social safety net there are amazing stories of what Time magazine called human tragedy and moral triumph during the hardest of times In the end this is an inspiring uplifting book about bravery one you will not forget
