Notecards New York Jeweled:

New York Magazine, 1986-06-30 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country. With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion, the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea.

Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1967 The Places and Spaces of Fashion, 1800-2007 John Potvin, 2013-01-11 The Places and Spaces of Fashion 1800-2007 brings together art, design, fashion, and a much neglected concern for its spatial realities. The spaces and places of fashion have often been overlooked in the writing of fashion history and visual culture. More often than not, however, these environments mitigate, control, inform, and enhance how fashion is experienced, performed, consumed, seen, exhibited, purchased, appreciated, and of course displayed. Space, as this volume attempts to illustrate, is itself a representational strategy on par with and influencing the visibility and visuality of fashion. Innovative and challenging, the essays in this volume explore various physical and conceptual spaces, moving from physical environments to the two-dimensional with paintings, illustrations, and photographs to chart similarities, differences, and complex nuanced relationships between environments, fashion identities, and visuality. The volume also navigates various sites, both permanent and temporary, of production, circulation, exhibition, consumption, and promotion of fashion that define meaning and knowledge about a culture or individual by providing for a bond between embodied consumers, spectators, and fashion objects. The Places and Spaces of Fashion 1800-2007 is a compelling project with a thematic, theoretical, and historiographic approach that is at once both focused yet far-reaching and original in its implications. The volume engages with questions attending to the modern condition by seamlessly weaving interdisciplinary discussions of the visual with material culture to explore the spatial dimensions of fashion. Some of the essays explore new and exciting spaces, while others offer compelling revisionary analyses of relatively known sources.

Mixtape Nostalgia Jehnie I. Burns, 2021-10-19 Mixtape Nostalgia: Culture, Memory, and Representation tells the story of the mixtape from its history in 1970s bootlegging to its resurgence as an icon of nostalgic analog technology. Burns looks at the history of the mixtape from the early 1980s and the rise of the cassette as a fundamental aspect of the music industry. Stories from music fans collecting hip hop mixtapes in the Bronx or recording songs off the radio permeate the book. She discusses the continued contemporary appeal of the mixtape as musicians, novelists, memoirists, playwrights, and even podcasters have used it as a metaphor for connection and identity. From Rob Sheffield's Love Is a Mix Tape to Questlove's Mixtape, Potluck Cookbook. Burns analyzes how the mixtape can function as a plot point, a stand-in for emotional connection, or an organizing structure. The book shows how creators use the iconography of the mixtape cassette to create ephemera from coffee subscriptions to board games, which speaks to the appreciation of the tangible and the analog. The desire to find connection through sharing a physical artifact permeates the various creative uses of the mixtape From blockbuster films like Guardians of the Galaxy to mixtape throw pillows Burns highlights the mixtape as a site of collective memory tied to youth culture community identity and sharing music House Beautiful ,1956 Catalog of Copyright Entries.
